Cope by Faith

Ready to step by faith to get through cancer? Join Life Coach Dr. Natalie Hamrick in the journey that can change your life: partnering with God to not only get through but triumph from cancer. It does not matter whether your cancer diagnosis was today or years ago, working through this book as a self-study or with a group will inspire you. Cope by Faith is designed to help you: ? Trust God to handle things beyond your control ? Work through any self-blame and anger at others or God ? Determine how God is growing you ? Find the peace that is waiting for you ? Live your life according to your priorities ? Discover the strength that only comes from true faith in God's healing love Cope by Faith filled a void by providing something secular support groups do not provide. A life-threatening event such as cancer is really a spiritual event and Cope by Faith inspires people to step back and trust in God to find hope, strength and peace. - Maria Staiano, 5-Year Cancer Survivor Cope by Faith is the first of its kind to enlist religious and spiritual truths as a catalyst for survivorship and healing from the ravages of cancer. Dr. Natalie Hamrick uses her skills as a Psychologist and her Christian faith to tap spiritual and religious resources as a means for cancer survivors to defend against the impositions of fear and worry so common with this disease. With this step by step, facilitated, group-based program, she has armed cancer survivors with the religiously accurate and psychologically sound means to maintain a healthy approach to living – with faith, a sense of God-given dominion and spiritual acceptance as a pathway to peace. – Jane Mather, MS, BCC, Director of Spiritual Care Services at Providence Sacred Heart Medical Center and Holy Family Hospital

Everyday Strength

As a cancer survivor, Randy Becton knows firsthand the onslaught this disease brings on the human spirit. His experience creates a special bond with fellow cancer patients, making his encouragement even more powerful. In Everyday Strength he offers hope and comfort through poetic prayers, Scripture, brief reflections, and uplifting thoughts for each day. Everyday Strength deals honestly with topics such as depression, anger, fear, and loneliness. It guides those who are fighting cancer toward spiritual and mental wellness in the face of physical illness. First published in 1989, these thirty-three meditations are now repackaged with a fresh look for today.

When God & Cancer Meet

A book of powerful stories about cancer patients and their families who have been touched by God in miraculous ways—some in their bodies, others in their minds, all in their spirits—offers inspiring testimony that, when God and cancer meet, cancer is conquered. The author, herself a cancer survivor, gives us a behind-the-scenes glimpse of 18 personal encounters with God. Here's what others are saying about When God & Cancer Meet: "Lynn has captured the essence of hope in this book; captured hope in ways that I have always taught in my professional world as well as in my spiritual community. This book is a treasure to those who struggle with the fears of cancer and I want to keep it close at hand for those reasons." —Judy Lentz, RN, MSN, OCN, NHA Executive Director, Hospice and Palliative Nurses Association "I co-lead a cancer support group at my church, and we have been looking for "just the right book" to study and discuss. Guess what?! Lyn wrote it! I was truly touched by all the stories; of course being a cancer-survivor myself, I saw myself in one of the stories, as if Lyn were writing my own personal story. I was truly impressed with the way she incorporated scripture, and God's viewpoint into every story. I think that is of utmost importance for anyone facing this disease. Lyn's book is "Real-Life"; some quickly are healed of the cancer, some deal with it over a prolonged period, some deal with recurrences, some, mercifully, die rather quickly. I share Lyn's belief that GOD sometimes chooses to heal in different ways: physically, emotionally and spiritually. In the process of surviving a primary brain tumor, surgery, Chemo, and radiation, I gave my life to Christ, realizing that my physical health was not GOD's main concern, my Spiritual health was the biggest victim of a disease that needed attention and this was the way He FINALLY got my attention. Lyn's book alludes to this fact in every one of her stories. In this day and age that we are living, where it is against the rules to even mention GOD (unless we mention His name in vain) it is refreshing to have a book written, praising Him for His care and concern for us; written by a woman who has experienced the disease firsthand, and continues to minister to others with cancer, and to work for a Doctor! who isn't ashamed of his Faith ! WOW!! Obviously, Lyn's book has my highest recommendation, and my support group will be purchasing multiple copies, and we plan to invite Lyn to speak with us. Lyn is a wonderful person, and I thank God for allowing our paths to cross. I'm sure this book will touch many lives, and give many a new perspective and hope with their cancer." —Chris Winand, cancer survivor

Cancer, so What?

The book Cancer, So What? is a public declaration of the authors love for Jesus Christ. The author shares her sincere love for Jesus Christ, and unfolds the intricacies of God's divine love and comfort for mankind, and shares how He provides guidance for His purposes for you and for your destiny in Him. In Cancer, So What? the author presents compelling and unique insights into the love of God which comes to all from the cross at Calvary, through the death and resurrection of Jesus, the Savior. She openly and genuinely invites others to join her in this love relationship with Jesus while concurrently seeking to encourage others to live on in Him while experiencing attacks of illness and disease! Cancer, So What? offers a compelling message from an author who is a cancer survivor of three different types of cancer: colon, breast and ovarian cancers, and who recently was given a fourth diagnosis of multiple myeloma. DWELLING IN GOD to be sustained in the crisis is the poignant lesson introduced in Cancer, So What?

Written by women who have walked the road and speak from experience, it demonstrates how God can enable you to come through the trials of cancer with praise on your lips, peace in your spirit, and hope in your heart.”—Kay Marshall Strom, author of The Cancer Survival Guide “Journeying through breast cancer, the most authentic voices that encouraged me were women who have pilgrimmed ahead of me. . . . This book nourished my spirit and renewed my hope—may it do the same for you.”—Karen Hill, Author of Owen's Walk and assistant to Max Lucado

What Cancer Cannot Do

Cancer is so limited... It cannot cripple life, it cannot shatter hope, it cannot corrode faith, it cannot ... Filled with encouragement and hope for anyone dealing with cancer, this book combines uplifting Scripture from the NIV, inspirational quotes, and encouraging stories from cancer survivors.

Grace Keeps You Going

In Grace Keeps You Going: Spiritual Wisdom from Cancer Survivors, cancer survivor Anne Turnage and her husband Mac have compiled an inspiring collection of stories from cancer survivors. This brief volume includes quotations and prayers from cancer survivors and others that provide real insight into the lives of those who are faced with the disease and express the range of emotions experienced by family members and other loved ones who care for them. These heartfelt, heartwarming, and humorous stories are taken from actual events in the lives of those with cancer, giving readers an authentic experience that allows them to share in the grace that lifts the spirits of cancer survivors.

50 Days of Hope

Eib shares amazing, true stories of those who have been through cancer and discovers that when God and cancer meet, hope is never far away. This book is packed with a daily dose of encouragement.

The Cancer Misfit

You've survived cancer treatment - now what? The Cancer Misfit is here to support you when doctors, friends and family have gone 'back to normal' and assumed you can do the same. It's a life raft to help you navigate life after cancer treatment; to help you live better, think better and feel better and show you how to embrace your new future. After the treatment stops it can be difficult to know how to move on, and many survivors feel stuck in limbo between who they used to be before the diagnosis and who they are today. This is how Saskia felt when she was told the treatment was over: she felt like a Cancer Misfit, recovered physically, but mentally and emotionally still healing. Now, Saskia shares the tools that enabled her to become the happiest version of herself she has ever known. In these pages, you'll find the truth - that your best life and most beautiful self was not the person you were before your cancer diagnosis, but the person you are today; that you've become even more powerful because of the hell you went through, and that the greatest chapter of your life is here and now. The Cancer Misfit will introduce you to the person you've become as a consequence of the trauma you endured and help you to embrace your new life after treatment; a life full of confidence, happiness and peace.

Triumphs of the Human Spirit

“Whether you have cancer or someone you love and care about does, here are 48 powerful stories from cancer survivors who prove that it is what you do with the cancer that matters so much more than what the cancer does to you. Grab it with determination and know that a diagnosis of cancer does not define who you are and that you are not alone.”

How Can I Honor Christ in Fighting Cancer?

Almost everyone diagnosed with cancer will endeavor to fight it. As a cancer survivor, Earl Blackburn encourages everyone diagnosed with cancer to fight it. Although he thinks medical treatment is important, the fight he is primarily interested in is spiritual. In How Can I Honor Christ in Fighting Cancer?, Blackburn shows how this spiritual fight, conducted in a manner that honors Christ the Creator and Lord, will aid the cancer patient's medical fight tremendously. Through Blackburn's experience, a series of practical lessons derived from it, and from Scripture, you can better understand what a godly fight against cancer looks like.

The Cancer Survival Guide

Kay Marshall Strom delivers hope, encouragement, and practical advice for dealing with cancer.

Lessons of the Spirit: A Christian Spiritual Companion for Your Breast Cancer Journey

Using scripture and prayers, breast cancer survivor and Episcopal priest Rhonda Joy Robinson helps the breast cancer patient and their loved ones navigate the complex and stressful world of diagnosis and treatment. Lessons of the Spirit is part guidebook, part meditation, part sermon, and part memoir. It will prove an invaluable companion to both patients and their loved ones who are making the journey through breast cancer.

What Cancer Cannot Do

Cancer is so limited.... It cannot cripple life, it cannot shatter hope, it cannot corrode faith, it cannot ... Filled with stories of courage for anyone dealing with cancer, this book combines uplifting Scriptures from the NIV, inspirational quotes, and encouraging stories from both male and female cancer survivors.

Surviving Cancer

This year there will be more than 1,660,290 new cancer cases in the U.S. Behind that sad statistic are many stories with both similarities and variations. Cancer's shadow looms large, even for survivors. Fears often linger. Will the cancer come back? Will I experience limitations and side effects for the rest of my life? Are my loved ones predisposed to this disease? Experiencing cancer (or other life-threatening diseases) is life changing and all pervasive. It affects every part of one's life. It is not just a physical event. For some, it can become a spiritual journey, transforming relationships in a positive and healing way. The author explains the power of gaining knowledge about one's disease and the treatments available for it, and the power of hope and a spiritual life, including a faith in something bigger than oneself.

My Gift to You

Ruth Olson had no intention of writing a book encouraging those with cancer. She never expected to get cancer in the first place. But after her recovery from the disease, she started thinking about writing such a book based on her strong Christian faith. Inside this book, the reader will find uplifting words wrapped in God's love. With many included Scriptures, Ruth provides a base of comfort and godly direction on the road to recovery. She writes, "I never thought I'd get cancer, but I did. I agonized if I would survive, and I did. This book may hold some answers to your questions. I hope so, because it's my Gift to You."

Faith Journey

Most people have been touched by cancer in some way. You either have cancer, have been through cancer or you know someone with cancer. Cancer is not who you are. It is simply a journey you will be on which can involve a spiritual transformation if you allow it. God is not mad at you and God did not leave you. God wants to be on this journey with you if you turn to Him and trust Him with this challenge. Faith Journey is a devotional that will remind you of God's promises and give you an opportunity to meditate on the word. This devotional is a relevant and shockingly honest portrayal about the spiritual roller coaster you may find yourself on. Faith Journey will encourage you during the hard times and challenge you to keep the faith and trust God in the process. Faith Journey is a caring and inspirational devotional to encourage those who are going through cancer and for individuals who love and care for the patient. Faith Journey - A Devotional for Christians Overcoming Cancer is a practical, caring guide to give to those with cancer and their loved ones, helping them navigate the medical, emotional, relational, and spiritual challenges they may encounter. A passage from every book of the bible is included.

Peace in the Face of Cancer

Millions of us are living in the shadow of cancer. Some are hoping to beat the odds and become cancer-free, while others know they are facing cancer for the long haul. And even more of us are standing by someone with a cancer diagnosis and feeling helpless as we grapple with the uncertainty it brings. Whether the cancer is considered "in remission," "cured," or "chronic," it is possible to find peace as we face it. In this beautiful, giftable book, cancer patient advocate Lynn Eib shares how to live well from the moment of diagnosis through the rest of life. She weaves the story of her own experience as a long-time cancer survivor and those of others around the world into these hope-filled pages. You'll discover how to bring God's peace into your own home and heart—regardless of your or your loved one's medical prognosis.

A Spiritual Journey Through Breast Cancer

Judy Asti writes about how she renewed her faith while undergoing treatment for breast cancer.

Finding the Light in Cancer's Shadow

Author and cancer patient advocate Lynn Eib, a colon cancer survivor, draws on her own experiences, the wisdom of Scripture, and the stories of others who battled cancer, to help survivors and their loved ones deal with their fears, their moods, their questions, and more.

Living in Bonus Time

Cancer confronts us with our mortality. But cancer survivors find ourselves with a second chance for life. We grapple with profound questions: Why am I still here? How did I survive when others didn't? Where is God in all this? And how should I live differently now? Those who experience and survive cancer live in bonus time, a season of grace that can be both disorienting and wonderful. In this honest and hopeful account, two-time survivor Alec Hill helps readers recalibrate expectations, grapple with survivor's guilt, and steward the opportunities for new purpose and growth. As counterintuitive as it may seem, cancer can transform us emotionally and spiritually into better people. We are not the people we were before. Survivors and caregivers can discover how encountering death can bring us to a different kind of life.

Faithful Warrior

Cancer. You hear the word and your heart stops. Unfair. Frightening. Life. Death. Fragmented thoughts ricochet around in your mind as you try to grasp this unthinkable diagnosis. How will she be able to fight it? How will I be able to help her? The diagnosis of cancer is devastating, leaving family and friends feeling helpless, wishing there was something they could do to alleviate their loved one's suffering. Thankfully, there is. Faithful Warrior offers an answer to those questions, equipping you with Scripture-based prayers for the person battling cancer. These simple yet heartfelt prayers are infused with the power of God's Word, inviting the faithful warrior to step out in belief and hope. Written to be perfectly blended with the reader's prayers and voice, the prayers focus on personal surrender and acceptance, continued hope and healing, and God's constant and abiding presence, equipping the reader with a means of tangible support while offering a deeper sense of involvement. The battle against cancer is intense, woven throughout with fear, anger, and doubt. Yet the compassionate voice of Faithful Warrior will comfort your heart and soul, arming you with strength and support during this fierce fight. Many people say, "I'll pray for you; it's the least I can do." No, Faithful Warrior, it is the most you can do. The sword is now in your hand. The question is...what will you do with it?

Gold in the Road - Through the Cancer Storm with Jesus Christ

Cancer is a unique disease on many fronts. The newly diagnosed cancer sufferer is awash in a wide range of emotions crashing in on a daily basis in the early stages of diagnosis and treatment. Fear is the constant companion while all the time they are subject to be being overwhelmed with new information, their minds muddled as they attempt to absorb diagnoses, pathology, a treatment plan, and their prognosis. As they enter the new world of cancer treatment, cancer patients may find side effects that can rival the disease itself in life-altering severity. In the worst stages of the treatment patients indeed feel as if they are indeed dying. Every person's cancer and treatment is unique to them personally, but cancer sufferers do share common feelings and responses. They speak the same language. They find that they belong to a new people group. Connecting with other cancer sufferers can be a game-changer. Finding someone who has felt what they feel, and understands what they are going through, can be their emotional lifesaver. Cancer patients will find themselves and their personal cancer journey mirrored on the pages of this book. They will:

- Recognize the emotions that are uniquely common to the cancer sufferer.
- Learn practical and helpful information about ways of navigating through cancer treatment.
- Be strengthened in their faith as they learn to recognize the presence of Christ with them in the cancer storm.
- Find new ways to receive and embrace God's promise that he will take every crisis, even cancer, and turn it into something good in their behalf.

Gold in the Road provides a fresh perspective not only on surviving a cancer storm but becoming victorious in right the midst of it. Because Gold in the Road rides on the story of a seasoned woman pastor, it reveals personal vulnerability as well as spiritual depth by:

- Revealing the author's chronological journey through early symptoms, diagnosis, and treatment, including double mastectomy, chemotherapy, and radiation - and all the tumult that goes with being a cancer sufferer.
- Sharing the author's emotional and spiritual insights on suffering with cancer, and the ways she navigated through her life-threatening storm lasting for more than a year, changing the direction of her life forever.
- Providing hope and practical advice that even in the worst storms of life, Christ's presence makes all the difference, not only in surviving the storm but in finding "gold in the road" even in right the middle of the valley of the shadow of death.

While the book is written from a Christian perspective, readers may include anyone who seeks to find God's presence in a seemingly dark and hopeless situation. Even those who have suffered cancer in the past will find emotional healing for them on its pages. Friends, family, pastors, and doctors and nurses, will want to share this book of hope and deliverance.

Christians and Cancer

Cheryl Wilson, her husband Mike, and her family discovered that God's people, armed with a biblical perspective, have a huge advantage over unbelievers when facing a cancer-related crisis. Each chapter of this heartwarming story closes with spiritual reflections.

Raw Faith

As a respected Bible teacher, Kasey Van Norman had dedicated her life to sharing God's Word and encouraging women to trust in God during times of crisis. Then, just as her ministry was poised to explode, Kasey was diagnosed with an aggressive form of cancer that shattered her spirit and rocked her faith to its core. Sick, frightened, and in pain, Kasey suddenly found herself facing the greatest challenge of her life—believing her own message. In Raw Faith, Kasey chronicles her courageous battle with cancer, taking readers on a candid and poignant journey of faith and discovery, from the depths of despair through triumphant victory. Drawing on a variety of Bible stories and characters, Kasey discovers and distills the singular truth that has existed since time began: while change and uncertainty are inevitable, God is always unchanging, and He is always faithful—even when our circumstances might tempt us to think otherwise.

So This Is Suffering...

God loves his children, blesses his own, rewards those who serve him, tells us to ask and receive, and heals those who believe. Really? Then why on earth am I lying in a hospital bed with cancer? So This Is Suffering... is a first-hand, real-time account of a battle with cancer over a three month period. Told with candor, insight and humour, the author shares a world of needles and nausea, fear and fatigue, and hospitals and bad haircuts. But it turns out there was more to it all. Much more. For the experience also opened up a rich world of Biblical understanding, ministry opportunities and most of all the reality of joy in even the most desperate circumstances.

God's Prescription For Healing

Are you fighting a battle for your health? Are you standing in faith to see a loved one healed? GOD'S PRESCRIPTION FOR HEALING will provide you with hope, build your faith, and give you practical tools for finding and standing on the promises in God's Word. Healing is available for you today!

Staying Alive

Heal Your Body, Embrace Your Life. Few things are more frightening, confusing, or devastating than a diagnosis of cancer. If you or someone you love has cancer (or is at risk for it), you want reliable information, reasons for hope, and a plan of attack you can trust. Staying Alive provides this and more. A six-year cancer survivor, psychologist, and cancer coach, Dr. Brenda Hunter presents the program that has contributed significantly to her survival, as well as interviews with cancer experts and long-term survivors. Inside you'll find: • life-changing strategies for beating cancer • an integrated, holistic approach to cancer care and survival that involves body, mind, and spirit • success stories and survival strategies from long-term cancer survivors • a proactive nutritional program designed to empower you and increase wellness • interviews with national cancer experts The good news? The human body has an amazing capacity to heal itself when life-changing strategies are applied. Dr. Brenda Hunter suggests that many of us can work to reverse—or prevent—cancer's destructive course. Learn how you may be unnecessarily putting yourself at increased risk, and discover the steps you can take today to begin to restore or protect your health. A Cancer-Conquering Plan for Your Body, Mind, Emotions, and Spirit

Cross of a Different Kind

CANCER: with often abrupt and unwelcome entry into human lives as well as profound multi-dimensional impact, such an illness is, for many, considered to be a ruthless thief, intent on stealing not only joy, but life itself. Of course, even as cancer attempts to steal life and captivate those under its hold, lest we forget that as powerful an adversary as it may seem, it is no contestant against the power of the One who ¿has come to set the captives free¿ (Luke 4:18) and who is Life itself (John 14:6) and its Source. Cross of a Different Kind: Cancer & Christian Spirituality draws upon the richness of Christian spiritual theology with the aim of rejuvenating hope within and imparting eternal Truth to all persons who have in any ways been ¿touched¿ by cancer in any of its wicked forms. Divided into three parts which addresses those who have lost loved ones to cancer; those currently confronting their diagnoses; and survivors, this book serves as both a ¿spiritual field-guide¿ as well as an informative, yet practical helmpate to ensure all facing such adversities that they are never alone in their journey.

Life, Cancer and God

All will benefit from this triumphant and candid story of one mans victory over cancer when conventional medicine offered no hope. Forty years later and still cancer free, Dr. Morris F. Keller offers a proven lifestyle for Setting Yourself APART from the SEEDS of CANCER in this must-read book about staying healthy physically, emotionally, mentally, and spiritually. Dr. Keller having survived colon/pancreatic cancer using only natural methods was shown a new path and purpose for his life in serving God by teaching others time-tested and learned principles and techniques for healthful living. Tracking a spiritual journey from Judaism to Christianity and a personal journey from Cancer to Wellness, Keller emphasizes the need to revert to Biblical truth and to be in partnership with God. A culmination of his seventy-two years of experience, Dr. Keller poses a challenge to readers to re-evaluate their own lives and be willing to change to improve their own health, the health of society and of this planet. We can all make a difference, says Dr. Keller. "My purpose is to teach others how to prevent and cleanse their bodies of illness. I tell the story of how other researchers and Doctors Kelley, Gerson, Jenson and Reams paved the way for me with proven protocols used in my recovery from colon/pancreatic cancer." This new HEALTH and SURVIVAL GUIDE Setting Yourself APART from the SEEDS of Cancer reveals how Western lifestyles, industrial and agricultural practices influence our health. Both anecdotal and instructional, readers will see the sound reasoning behind and the details for doing a complete body cleansing program, for making healthier choices in life, and for leading by example to help improve the lives of others. Your body has the ability to heal itself if you give it a chance, Keller says. Illness is the body out of balance in more ways than one. One must address the chemical, nutritional, physical, emotional, and spiritual imbalances. Published for non-profit by the Fountain of Life Church in Belize, earnings will go to support their health ministry. About the Authors Born, raised and educated in America, Dr. Keller and his wife and co-author, Kathryn Rose Mandel-Keller, now reside in the Mennonite community of Spanish Lookout, Belize. They chart a clear course for healthful living that anyone can follow in their book that also reflects Dr. Kellers diverse life experiences: first as a student, then as a physician/surgeon, a cancer survivor, nutritional coach, chef, artisan baker, organic farmer and teacher. Kathryn more often referred to as Rose has a Masters Degree in Art/Education and has put into practice over the past thirteen years all that her husband teaches. Together, the Kellers continue to coach students and present a free Natural Health Seminar called Taking Care of Gods Temple at churches or organizations.

Setting Yourself Apart from the Seeds of Cancer

What happens when the fight of your life happens at the most inconvenient time, and you literally have the wind knocked out of you? How do you find your strength? What do you do when doing what has always worked no longer works? Your enemy has gotten the best of you, and all hope seems to be lost. Sharon learned the power of her own written words, the strength of her faith in God, and the passion to pursue destiny. Understand how she overcame a traumatic experience with breast cancer, maintained tenacity, and fought back. Sharon shares her experience in hopes to bring change in how you handle trauma, surviving and making it serve you well. The secret to overcoming trauma and living a full life is that you already have all the power needed. This story is meant to move you to change your thoughts so your life will follow. Develop your inner voice and fight for the life you want. This story is compelling, emotional, and inspirational. You will experience every emotion possible with this read. If you want to know the ingredients for overcoming your trials, you must read this book. Sharon often speaks about, "If you can change the perspective on a thing, you will change the very course of your path." Her mission is to touch all lives that are affected in any aspect by cancer, as well as prepare others to lead productive lives that, whatever you go through, nothing will be without purpose but for purpose. Nothing that you go through is in vain. Everything is for divine purpose. The foundation of this book is based in the scripture 1 Corinthians 15:58. This book is a must read if you want to know the journey of one breast cancer survivor story that saw it all work for her good.

Steadfast

The Battle Plan for Cancer is the first of the Battle Plan Book Series. This book lays out a battle plan for those who are facing the battle of cancer. This plan is based on God's word, scientific studies, and personal testimonies. The Battle Plan for Cancer begins by going over the state of your spiritual life and how it affects the overall state of your health. Second, it covers the state of your soul (mind, will, and emotions) and the vital role it plays in both the health of your spirit and the direct affect it has on your physical health. Hosea 4:6 states "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Third, the Battle Plan for Cancer covers the physical body and how we take care of it directly affects our health. This book also brings the awareness of the correlation that the health of spirit, soul, and body all affect the health of the others. In other words, if one area is not healthy then you are not in complete health. The importance of understanding this in order to have the best chance of winning is crucial during this battle for your health. My goal as a writer is to bring knowledge of the word of God that will help people win this battle. This book covers the importance of forgiveness, faith, love, and trust in our Heavenly Father, and how all of these will affect our life and everyday health. I also share my personal struggles and victories that God has brought me through to encourage others to stand on God's promises for their own lives. Take this battle plan and allow the Holy Spirit to reveal the areas of knowledge that you can personally apply that will give you tools you need to have the victory in Jesus name. Author Bio: Carmon J. Green is the wife of Matt Green and mother of four boys. She is a former owner of a gym/wellness center. Her calling from God has driven her passion to see people walk in divine health. Jenay has been trained in the area of fitness and nutrition but also has researched and prayed for well over 17 years in search of answers to some of our greatest health challenges including cancer. Her goal is to see people walk in divine health in accordance to III John:2 "Beloved I wish above all things that thou may prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospers."

A Battle Plan for Cancer

After providentially meeting Kayla Hudson, a courageous young woman who has dealt with several cancer diagnoses, Ed Adams followed a nudge from God and collected stories of hope from cancer survivors-including Kayla-and their families. In each author's unique voice, the stories detail the survivor's diagnosis and treatment as well as the faith, love, and support that sustained him or her through the cancer journey. The survivors range from Izzie Pittman, diagnosed with leukemia at just eleven months old, to LeeAnn Lapum, who discovered she had breast cancer in her mid-fifties after nearly twenty years of dealing with MS. This book is relatable and encouraging for anyone who has dealt with cancer or is currently walking through this daunting disease as each story reminds readers that God is always with us.

Spirituality and Cancer

"Lord Jesus, I can't do this without you." This is the essence of my life, and it became really evident to me after I heard the words, "You have cancer." I am a Christian woman who prays. I have spent years writing down my prayers in journals. I didn't decide to write this book; the Lord impressed upon me that I was going to write about this journey from the beginning when everything began to happen. That was probably so I'd chronicle what was happening in my journals. This book is the result of what transpired during the first couple of years after discovering I had a lump in my breast. Fighting cancer changed me. I learned to fight for my life. Losing meant death, so every day I had to stand in that place of faith. I found ways that worked for me to reinforce my faith and belief that God would heal me. Repeating the words, I am alive, full of vitality, and victorious, was one of the ways I stood in faith to believe I'd survive. I prayed for great faith because I had doubts, Jesus said believe and do not doubt; every doubt was an attack against me. I had other people praying for me so that my faith level would increase. I fought every day to live and did whatever was necessary to insure I'd survive. I did not put my faith in doctors or chemotherapy or radiation. I put my faith in God. The doctors and radiation treatments gave me hope that I'd get better, but I wanted to be healed.

Trusting God Through Cancer: a Collection of Cancer Survivor Stories of Faith and Hope

How much does life change when you're confronted with how very fragile it can be? When Amy Luscher Smith was diagnosed with breast cancer, she wondered how she would make time in her busy life after the word "cancer" was whispered. In the aftermath of treatment and personal transformation, Amy shares how she adapted to surgery, chemotherapy, radiation, recovery, and, ultimately, her new identity as a cancer survivor. Amy was raised Baptist with a strong faith in God, and her everyday life was a life in which prayer, faith, and trust in God had never failed her. More than a cancer memoir, My Faith Sparkles is Amy's story about her struggle to keep faith when God seemed conspicuously distant. Her faith always sparkles, but there were days when she struggled to cling to the kind of hope that can't be found in this world alone. Amy shares a two-year path of diagnosis, treatment, and recovery, including her reflection on: The diagnosis of HER2-positive breast cancer Lumpectomy versus mastectomy* Talking to her children about cancer* Overcoming the fear of death* Using breast cancer statistics and research* Managing cancer treatment* Chemotherapy side effects and port placement* Radiation therapy and side effects* Living with cancer and accepting cancer support* Remission* Becoming a cancer survivor. Encouragement in a Dark World In her conversational, revealing, and often humorous style, Amy shares what her diagnosis and treatment were really like; her struggles along the way; and, finally, where she found encouragement through her faith, which made all the difference. A powerful book for: Newly diagnosed cancer patients Family members of cancer patients* Cancer care professionals and oncology support providers* Supporters of cancer survivors* Cancer support group leaders* Anyone directing a ministry of encouragement. When cancer happens, knowledge, support and hope are the best medicine.
