My name is Father Ubald Rugirangoga, from Rwanda in Central Africa, the country where genocide occurred in 1994

I am an Apostle of forgiveness.

in 1994 genocide occurred against the Tutsi people.

45,000 Tutsi people were killed in three days from April 15-17 1994.

I had to get refuge abroad because he wanted me to survive and evangelize.

I escaped through the bush to Congo, and later to France.

I have forgiven the killer of my mother who lost her life in the genocide.

Forgiveness made me free.

After six months of praying and healing, I returned to Rwanda.

organized retreats, first for the victims of genocide, secondly for the perpetrators...

I brought the three groups together.

Do not be conquered by evil, but conquer evil with good.

I remarked that every Tutsi victim of genocide was surrounded by six or seven Hutu who had worked together...

the Hutu's who were good Christians were rescuing Tutsis instead of killing them.

It was a time for conversion in order to forgive and beg pardon.

I have forgiven the killer of my mother during the genocide.

If you don't forgive, you die.
