Summary

Michael, could you tell us about your background and journey with Pan American Silver?

What would you consider to be your greatest achievements?

What is Ross Beaty's legacy and in what ways has he shaped the company that Pan American is today?

Introduction

Could you explain the rationale behind the Yamana acquisition?

What will the majority of the post-tax synergies be made up of?

When it comes to mid-level managers, such as chief geologists, mine general managers etc., have any left in connection with the acquisition?

What are your short-term and long-term plans for MARA?

Do you still plan on releasing a feasibility study for MARA this year?

Are you planning on exiting MARA or do you consider building it at some point in the future?

What are your plans for the Yamana bonds and your credit facility?

Introduction

Could you give us an update on the status of the ILO 169 consultation process?

If the mining license is reinstated at Escobal, how quickly would you be able to restart the mine?

Could you explain your main initiatives to repair and form a strong relationship with the local community and Xinka indigenous community?

How has your understanding of the La Colorada Skarn deposit changed since publishing the updated mineral resource estimate last year?

After the PEA for La Colorada Skarn has been released in the second half of this year, what are the next steps? (permitting, drilling, PFS etc.)

Steve, could you tell me about your career, both in Pan American but also prior to joining the company?

Could you briefly describe the Jacobina mine?

What is the timeline for the Phase 3 throughput expansion at Jacobine?

How are you thinking about a Phase 4 throughput expansion of Jacobina?

Could you briefly describe the El Peñón mine?

What is your average mining rate at El Peñón?

Could you briefly describe the La Colorada mine?

What measures are you taking in order to resolve the ventilation issue?

Could you briefly describe the Shahuindo mine?

You are guiding for remarkably high capital expenditures at Shahuindo this year, could you explain how the capital will be used?

Could you briefly describe the Timmins mine?

What room do you see for cost-savings and lowering the all-in sustaining costs?

Introduction

What are your thoughts on the investment in New Pacific Metals?

How are you thinking in terms of portfolio management?

Where do you envision Pan American Silver in five years?
