Contro i pensieri malvagi. Antirrhethikos

The purpose of this work is to explore the distinct notions of divine embodiment developed by Maximos the Confessor (580-662), one of the greatest Greek Fathers, and Tsong kha pa (1357-1419), arguably the most important thinker in the history of Tibetan Buddhism.

Divine Contingency

"Empujado por la codicia, el avaro aspira a acumular las cosas que desea, y cuando ha amasado muchas cosas, por decirlo así, una vez saciado en el vientre de su codicia, se atormenta, pues, al buscar ansiosamente conservar los bienes acumulados, su misma saciedad lo angustia".

Gastrimargia. 2. durchgesehene Auflage

Geistliche Vaterschaft ist eine Gnade. Dieses Charisma ist daher weder an ein Amt noch an Geschlecht und Alter gebunden. Eine Rückbesinnung auf die Frühzeit des Mönchtums macht deutlich, daß das Thema der geistlichen Vaterschaft von höchster Gegenwartsbedeutung ist. Sie mag uns helfen, die Wurzeln mancher im Westen beklagter Mangelerscheinungen und der vielen importierten Ersatzlösungen aufzudecken. Die Arbeit über Evagrius Pontikos, den Gelehrtesten unter den Vätern der Wüste, stellt keineswegs eine vergangene Welt dar, sondern berührt zutiefst die Problematik unserer Zeit.

Geistliche Vaterschaft

"La soberbia es la negación de Dios, invención de los demonios, desprecio de los hombres, madres del juicio del prójimo, hija de las alabanzas, indicio de esterilidad, repudio de la ayuda de Dios, superación de la locura, causa de caídas..., fuente de la cólera, puerta de la hipocresía, apoyo de los demonios...".

Contra los pensamientos malignos

"La tristeza es un inquilino perjudicial, un confidente funesto, un anticipador del desarraigo, nostalgia de la familia, un compañero de la angustia, un familiar de la pereza, una lamentación exasperante, un recuerdo de las ofensas, un oscurecimiento del alma, humillación moral, prudente embriaguez, antídoto hipnótico, deslucimiento de las formas, un gusano de la carne, aflicción de los pensamientos, prisión de un pueblo".

La Civiltà cattolica

"La acedia es todo lo contrario de la eucaristía, es decir, del espíritu de agradecimiento: incapaz de tomar la relación con el espacio y el sentido de las cosas, quien es presa de la acedia vive en la a-caristía, en la incapacidad de maravillarse de la belleza, del amor y, por tanto, en la incapacidad de dar gracias". Enzo Bianchi

ýLÐ tt” 7 À Ä

"La ira es la rapiña de la prudencia, destrucción de una condición, confusión de la naturaleza, un modo de crear salvajes, un horno del corazón, una llama que lanza fuera, una ley de la irascibilidad, cólera por las ofensas, madre de fieras, un conflicto silencioso, impedimento para la oración".

Vanagloria y orgullo

Vizio difficile da descrivere, l'accidia è soprattutto incuria e indifferenza, scoraggiamento e disgusto, «male di vivere» e principio di disperazione. Essa si manifesta attraverso il languore inattivo, l'assenza di concentrazione, la lentezza nell'operare il bene, la noia generalizzata, la paura del vivere e del morire. Non è semplice pigrizia, ma debolezza dell'anima e assenza di attrazioni, anche se può manifestarsi come «fuoco inquietante» e umore euforico. Sentimento per sua natura oscuro, complesso, confuso e sfuggente, l'accidia è dunque capace di molteplici manifestazioni, talvolta opposte nella loro apparenza, ma unite dalla medesima radice: l'annebbiamento della gerarchia dei valori, che ricopre tutto di un manto grigio e omogeneo. Gli antichi la definivano «tentazione meridiana», poiché caratterizza soprattutto la metà della giornata, ma anche il mezzogiorno della vita, e in passato era considerata una malattia tipica della vita monastica. Oggi, al contrario, essa viene sempre più considerata come uno stato d'animo universale e moderno, innestato sulle ferite interiori, sull'indecisione e sulla mancanza di desiderio. Sull'incapacità di riaccendere uno sguardo svuotato e assente nella direzione della gioia e della letizia.

Tristeza

Senza vocazione in un mondo privo di destinazione, l'uomo contemporaneo sembra abbandonato alle proprie scelte e mosso da un disincantato e moderno desiderio di Dio, relegato nell'orizzonte di una sensibilità religiosa personalistica e privata, senza implicazioni di appartenenze religiose o morali concrete. Questa cultura del provvisorio, come l'ha definita papa Francesco, genera un'evidente difficoltà a perseverare in una scelta definitiva di vita consacrata. A partire dai dati statistici sugli abbandoni dei religiosi, lo studio si propone di comprenderne i possibili motivi psico-sociologici. L'autore cerca inoltre di individuare i caratteri propri – delineati dal magistero post-conciliare – della perseveranza dei consacrati e di tracciare un percorso in grado di avviare una «teologia della perseveranza» in dialogo con la cultura di oggi. L'intento è coniugare le fondamenta della tradizione cristiana con alcuni contributi della teologia contemporanea in grado di fondare ancora una scelta che sia «per sempre».

Acedia

Ritrovare il contatto con le proprie emozioni, con il proprio cuore e con il divino: La chiave ti mostra come realizzare la tua vita aprendoti all'amore verso te stesso, verso gli altri e al mistero di Dio. La benedizione di Dio è portatrice di numerosi significati, è l'espressione di ciò che Dio vuole comunicarci attraverso le cose. Ad esempio, l'anello è un simbolo molto caro alla tradizione religiosa. Con esso Dio ci rassicura che terrà salde in noi tutte le fragilità, che smusserà i nostri lati più spigolosi e che si unirà a noi affinché possiamo rimanere fedeli a noi stessi. Un altro simbolo è sicuramente la chiave. Anselm Grün ci guida verso la ricerca di una chiave per entrare nel nostro stesso cuore e accedere ai nostri sentimenti più nascosti e profondi. Inoltre, la chiave è il simbolo del desiderio di avere accesso al cuore altrui, in modo da comunicargli il nostro amore e i nostri sentimenti. In qualche modo, sostiene Anselm Grün, insieme a Christoph Gerhard e Erwin Sickinger, quello che stiamo cercando è la chiave della verità che possa aprirci le porte verso il mistero della vita e di Dio, facendoci vivere una vita consapevole e trasformando completamente la nostra quotidianità. Anselm Grün Si tratta di un percorso spirituale alle volte lungo, che richiede una via di trasformazione, che come in natura l'albero ha bisogno di sperimentare numerose stagioni, caldo e freddo, per assumere la sua forma definitiva, così anche un percorso spirituale richiede tempo e fatica, richiede allenamento e resistenza. Poi però la via spirituale prende il sapore dell'amore, un sapore dolce che sostituisce l'amaro delle delusioni. Quindi Anselm Grün, Christoph Gerhard ed Erwin Sickinger, monaci benedettini, ti guidano verso questo cammino spirituale, facendoti percorrere una via di metamorfosi per affrontare in maniera nuova il lavoro, così come le responsabilità familiari, professionali e sociali. Attraverso esercizi per la vita quotidiana, piccole meditazioni e semplici riflessioni, La chiave ti insegna a riflettere su di te, a riconoscere e accettare le tue contraddizioni, a fermarti, a fare un bilancio e essere davvero nel "qui e ora".

La Belt and Road Initiative, l'imponente programma cinese che mira a connettere e a integrare economicamente l'Asia con l'Europa, ha radici in un passato lontano. La Nuova Via della Seta vuole infatti ripercorrere le antiche strade e riprodurre i fecondi scambi commerciali, interculturali e interreligiosi che si sono realizzati lungo questi percorsi. Il libro riprende questa storia affascinante, raccontando le storie di uomini che hanno compreso le connessioni profonde e possibili tra universi distanti tra loro, traghettando saperi e insegnamenti religiosi tra paesi e aree diverse dell'Eurasia.

Les forces du bien et du mal dans les premiers siècles de l'èglise

Come emerge dalla lettura di questo libro, il peccato è un atto di amore che manca il suo bersaglio e i sette peccati capitali l'illusione di poter raggiungere la felicità, salvo poi constatare che non sono stati in grado di mantenere la promessa. Da qui l'insoddisfazione, il vuoto e quel tarlo che tutto divora, ovvero la noia. Sentimenti dell'umano vivere, che in queste pagine vengono chiamati per nome al fine di poter compiere un serio lavoro su di sé, ed essere in grado di tornare a vivere una felicità autentica. Il peccato è una ferita inferta ad una relazione, ma una ferita attraverso cui Dio può far irruzione per realizzare il suo desiderio più grande: il compimento del cuore dell'uomo. I vizi. Accidia

We live in a technical society and we are used to thinking that everything that happens has an external cause, every movement an impetus from another force. The positivist psychologists have taught us that a child's soul is a tabula rasa, in which we will find only what other people will write there. Therefore society tries to indoctrinate us, in the good and bad senses of the word. Therefore, the human person is used to listening only to others, no longer pays attention to the inspirations of the heart, which come from the Spirit. It is a privilege of artists to have inspirations, but not exclusively. In the spiritual life everyone must be an artist and construct their own life under the guidance of the supreme Artist.

As Saint Ignatius of Loyola said: It is not the richness of science which satisfies the soul, but feeling and tasting things from within. This Book deals with Prayer and Spiritual life, with the experience of Grace and Goodness, through discernment of evil and human passions in everyday experience. It is a beautiful and simple proposal to construct our spiritual life through Discernment and Prayer of the Heart

Fragili e perseveranti

El libro invita a los lectores no solo a dejar atrás las acciones pecaminosas, sino también los pensamientos que las originan. Todo ello a través de ocho series de frases bíblicas.

Evagrio Pontico e l'esperienza della Santissima Trinità

Now with a new afterword by Pope emeritus Benedict XVI! In a time when technology penetrates our lives in so many ways and materialism exerts such a powerful influence over us, Cardinal Robert Sarah presents a bold book about the strength of silence. The modern world generates so much noise, he says, that seeking moments of silence has become both harder and more necessary than ever before. Silence is the indispensable doorway to the divine, explains the cardinal in this profound conversation with Nicolas Diat. Within the hushed and hallowed walls of the La Grande Chartreux, the famous Carthusian monastery in the French Alps, Cardinal Sarah addresses the following questions: Can those who do not know silence ever attain truth, beauty, or love? Do not wisdom, artistic vision, and devotion spring from silence, where the voice of God is heard in the depths of the human heart? After the international success of God or Nothing, Cardinal Sarah seeks to restore to silence its place of honor and importance. "Silence is more important than any other human work," he says, "for it expresses God. The true revolution comes from silence; it leads us toward God and others so as to place ourselves humbly and generously at their service."

"In this fictional narrative, Theophilis is the skeptical but beloved adoptive father of St. Luke. Challenged by the startling account of the 'Christos' received in the chronicle from his beloved son Luke and concerned for the newly zealous young man's fate, Theophilos, a Greek physician and an agnostic, embarks on a search for Luke to bring him home. He is gravely concerned about the deadly 'illusions' to which Luke has succumbed regarding the incredible stories surrounding Jesus of Nazareth, a man of contradictions who has caused so much controversy throughout the Roman Empire. Thus begins a long journey that will take Theophilos deep into the war between nations and empires, truth and myth, good and evil, and into unexpected dimensions of his very self"--Page 2 of cover.

La via radiosa per l'Oriente

A profound yet very readable portrayal of Mary.

Uomini e religioni sulla via della seta

On April 2, 2005, the world kept vigil at the bedside of John Paul II and together mourned his passing. A man of suffering--the child who lost his parents; the youth who endured war, Nazi persecution, and the subsequent communist regime; the youthful Pope who was shot in an attempt on his life; the elderly Pope whose Parkinson's prompted numerous trips to Gemelli hospital--Wojtyla was always constantly attentive to the sick and suffering, who knew they would find a place of listening and understanding in his heart. Acquainted with sorrow throughout his life, John Paul II demonstrated the value of redemptive suffering to a world keeping vigil during his final hours. Now, his private secretary and personal physician, and others nearest him during his last days, share their own memories of that precious time: a story of courage, gratitude and love. Stanislaw Dziwisz is today the archbishop of Krakow, after having dedicated the past 27 years to John Paul II as his secretary. Czeslaw Drazek, SJ, is the publisher of the Polish edition of L'Osservatore Romano. Renato Buzzonetti was John Paul II's personal physician. Angelo Comastri is the President of the Fabbrica di San Pietro and was the Vicar General of Vatican City under John Paul II. He has published numerous books in spirituality.

L'inganno delle illusioni

Philosophy has often been criticized for privileging the abstract; this volume attempts to remedy that situation. Focusing on one of the most concrete of human concerns, food, the editors argue for the existence of a philosophy of food. The collection provides various approaches to the subject matter, offering new readings of a number of texts—religious, philosophical, anthropological, culinary, poetic, and economic. Included are readings ranging from Plato's Phaedo and Verses of Sen-No-Rikyu to Peter Singer's "Becoming a Vegetarian" and Jean-François Revel's Culture and Cuisine. This reader will have particular appeal for philosophers working in social theory, feminist theory, and environmental ethics, and for those working on alternative approaches to such traditional subject areas as epistemology, aesthetics, and metaphysics.

Monachesimo orientale

A series of letters purportedly written by Penelope, Dido, Medea, and other heroines to their lovers, the Heroides represents Ovid's initial attempt to revitalize myth as a subject for literature. In this book, Howard Jacobson examines the first fifteen elegaic letters of the Heroides. In his critical evaluation, Professor Jacobson takes into consideration the twofold nature of the work: its existence as a single entity with uniform poetic structure and coherent goals, and its existence as a collection of fifteen individual poems. Thus, fifteen chapters are devoted to a thorough analysis and interpretation of the particular poems, while six additional chapters are concerned with problems that pertain to the work as a whole, such as the nature of the genre, the role of rhetoric, theme, and variation, and the originality of Ovid. Special attention is given to the application of modern psychological criticism to the delineations of the pathological psyche in the letters. In an additional chapter on the chronology of Ovid's early amatory poetry, the author challenges and revises the traditional dating of the Heroides. Originally published in 1974. The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.
