American Red Fox 4x4 Graph 8x10 Journal Notebook

Just look at this handsome fellow. Smart and cunning too. What a great cover for a planner / organizer or journal. The American red fox is the largest of the fox species and is widely distributed across the entire northern hemisphere. This fox has orangish-red fur with black feet, large pointed black-tipped ears and a long bushy white-tipped tail. Adult red foxes weight up to 31 lbs. and typically live 2-5 years in the wild. They prefer open grassy fields in woodlands, brushy areas in forests, rural and suburban neighborhoods and wetlands. The red fox diet consists of rodents, rabbits, birds, amphibians and fruit. They are also adept at stealing food from garbage cans and farms, which is one reason why red foxes have a reputation for being cunning and smart. They have excellent hearing and can hear rodents tunneling under ground. Red foxes mate in the winter, after which the female builds a den and delivers from 1-12 pups. Both fox parents care for the newly-born pups until the following fall, when the offspring go out on their own. While quite secretive, red foxes have adapted well to living in close proximity to rural and suburban human populations. This is an 8" x 10" journal or notebook, perfect bound with beautiful matte cover finish and 160 premium white pages -- available with wide ruled, college ruled, 4x4 graph
