The Battle of Cable Street: Britain's fight against fascism - BBC News - The Battle of Cable Street: Britain's fight against fascism - BBC News by BBC News 242,991 views 7 years ago 1 minute, 12 seconds - On this day 1936: The Battle, of Cable Street took place when Oswald Mosley's, fascists were forced out of the east end of London.

Sir Oswald Mosley led the British Union of Fascists, known as the Blackshirts, on mass demonstrations.

Mosley admired Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini.

Fascist rallies often ended in violence.

After two years of marching into largely Jewish areas of the east end of London, the Battle of Cable Street broke out.

London Jews and Irish labourers attacked and turned back a fascist rally.

The men who did the street fighting, who led it, were the very flower of the English army.

Men, again, as I say, wearing every medal for gallantry and drawing to them similar men.

Fascism and Mosley's influence faded, as Britain moved slowly towards war.
