Which was another colonial role appointed by the monarch.

Intendencias became used only after the bourbon reforms and mostly took power from the captaincies general.

Of course the people from Spain had usually higher status then the people from elsewhere in Europe but they both where on top of the casta system.

In the early colonial period the word Criollos was used for all people born in america whether white or native or African however it later became to be used for only European descendance born in America.

However even though slavery wasn't really used endangered servitude still was.

And even though the Bourbon reforms tried to diminish this power of the church it didn't really work.

OK the French didn't control the whole peninsula but it was just easier to draw it like this.

City councils where the cabildos mentioned prior in the graphic showing the administration divides of the colony.

There where insurgencies against Spain before Hidalgo but Hidalgo is counted by historian as the start of the independence movement.

The reasons Hidalgo may have done this.

There where actually two main treaties declaring independence the Plan de Iguala (which is the original three guarantees plan) and the Treaty of Córdoba which expended on the Three Guarantees plan. These two are usually cited together as they deal with the same thing and are obviously just an extension of each other.

He technically didn't escape to Spain but was absolved of his duties by the Royalists who still thought they could fight Iturbide . The royalists however quickly followed him as it became very clear that the revolutionaries had won.

Ironically these republicans which wanted to enforce the abolishment of the casta system are thought to have been supported by the USA.

Technically they where allowed the right to determine their own destiny by the Mexican Republican Government (they chose independence) but a majority of Mexicans where against this, calling it an illegitimate declaration of independence.
