

State Charities Aid Association Annual Report

#State Charities Aid Association #SCAA annual report #charity aid annual report #non-profit organization report #philanthropy annual review

Delve into the State Charities Aid Association Annual Report, offering a comprehensive overview of its work, financial performance, and impact on charitable organizations. This essential SCAA annual report provides vital insights into philanthropic initiatives and crucial support for non-profit operations, serving as a key charity aid annual report for stakeholders and the public.

Each publication is designed to enhance learning and encourage critical thinking.

Welcome, and thank you for your visit.

We provide the document State Charities Aid Report you have been searching for. It is available to download easily and free of charge.

Many users on the internet are looking for this very document.

Your visit has brought you to the right source.

We provide the full version of this document State Charities Aid Report absolutely free.

State Charities Aid Association Annual Report

Reports for 1909/10-1920/21 include the association's 18th-29th Annual report to the State Hospital Commission (varies slightly)

State Charities Aid Association Annual Report

This volume contains the annual report of the State Charities Aid Association of New York for the year 1914-15. Focusing on issues related to social welfare and public health, this report provides a snapshot of the state of charitable services in New York at the time. This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work is in the "public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commission in Lunacy

This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact, and remains as true to the original work as possible. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps (as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world), and other notations in the work. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commissioners of Public Charities of the State of New York

This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact, and remains as true to the original work as possible. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps (as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world), and other notations in the work. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commission in Lunacy

This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923. This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. that were either part of the original artifact, or were introduced by the scanning process. We believe this work is culturally important, and despite the imperfections, have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide. We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process, and hope you enjoy this valuable book.

Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commission in Lunacy

A brief sketch of the origin, work, etc. of charity organizations in a number of states, in report of 1903.

State Charities Aid Association Annual Report - Primary Source Edition

Excerpt from Sixth Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Board of Charities: Of the State of New York, March 1, 1878 Resolved: That the Committee on Children of the State Charities Aid Association protests against every attempt on the part of Commissioners of Almshouses and Superintendents of the Poor, to keep under their management or control children removed from the poor houses of the State. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

State Charities Aid Association annual report. v. 25, 1897

Excerpt from Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association: For the Year Ending September 30, 1912 Ed 1913 to fill vacancy caused by resignation of Mrs. Morris W. Kellogg. D to fill vacancy caused by resignation of Mr. P. Tecumseh Sherman. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

Annual Report of the Board of Managers of the State Charities Aid Association and Prison Reform Association

Excerpt from Thirty-First Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Board of Charities of the State of New York: November 1, 1903 Representatives in other Organizations Visitors to State Hospitals Visitors to State Charitable Institutions County Visiting Committees. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

Sixth Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Board of Charities

Excerpt from Thirty-Fifth Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association: An Unofficial Organization for the Improvement of Public Charitable Institutions and for Placing Needy Children in Families; November 1, 1907 Reports of Standing Committees Committee on Children: Dependent Children in New York State and City The Association's work for Destitute Children: sub-committee on Placing-out and Supervision of Children in Families sub-committee on the care of Mother-less Infants sub-committee on Assisting and Providing Situations for Mothers with Infants. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association

Excerpt from Twentieth Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Board of Charities of the State of New York: December 1892 Miss S. E. Minton. Mr. Horace White, Chairman. Mr. John B Pine. Miss Rosalie Butler, Secretary. Mrs. William 13. Rice. Mr. John L. Cadwalader. Prof. C. F. Chandler. Mr. H. G. Chapman. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

Thirty-First Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Board of Charities of the State of New York

Excerpt from Fifth Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commission in Lunacy: November 1, 1897; Reprinted From the Ninth Annual Report of the State Commission in Lunacy While most of the State hospitals now employ regularly both a dentist and oculist, some still employ only one and one hos pital employs neither. It would seem advisable that each State hospital should be obliged to employ regularly both a dentist and an oculist. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

Thirty-Fifth Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association

Excerpt from Seventh Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commission in Lunacy: November 1, 1899 This is an increase during the year ending September 30, 1899, of 637, as compared with an increase of 703 during the preceding year. The increase during the year in the number of patients in State hospitals is 562, as compared with 688 during the previous year. Before taking up the State hospitals in their order we will make some observations that seem to relate to all. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

Twentieth Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Board of Charities of the State of New York

Excerpt from First Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commissioners of Public Charities: Of the State of New York, March 1, 1873 Meanwhile the ladies continue their regular weekly visits to the hospital, and every month cheering accounts are given of improvements made in all departments excepting the nursing. And this the proposed school will remedy. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

Fifth Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commission in Lunacy

This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact, and remains as true to the original work as possible. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps (as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world), and other notations in the work. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE STATE CHARITIES AID ASSOCIATION TO THE STATE BOARD OF CHARITIES OF.. THE STATE OF NEW YORK

This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact, and remains as true to the original work as possible. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps (as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world), and other notations in the work. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

Seventh Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commission in Lunacy

This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact, and remains as true to the original work as possible. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps (as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world), and other notations in the work. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

First Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commissioners of Public Charities

Excerpt from First Annual Report of the New York City Visiting Committee of the State Charities Aid Association: Including the Annual Reports December 10, 1903, a communication to the Commissioner of Charities on condition of institutions in the Department. December 29, 1903, a communication to the Commissioner of Charities on condition of institutions in the Department. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commissioners of Public Charities of the State of New York

The State Charities Aid Association was a pioneering organization that worked to improve the conditions of public hospitals in New York City. This volume contains the annual reports of the New York County Visiting Committee for Bellevue and Other Public Hospitals, which was established by the association to oversee the care of patients in these institutions. The reports provide a detailed account of the committee's activities, as well as information on the hospitals' finances, staff, and patients. The volume is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history of public health and hospital reform. This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work is in the "public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commission in Lunacy

Excerpt from Report on the Department of Public Charities of New York City: Reprinted From the Twenty-Fourth Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Board of Charities; Adopted by the New York County Visiting Committee as Its Twenty-Fourth Annual Report; October 1st, 1896 Association and of this Association, it was decided, however, not to attempt to secure any amendments to the bill. Much as both bodies regretted any abandonment, even temporarily, of the plan of removing the correctional institutions to Riker's and Hart's Islands, the conditions prevailing in the Tombs and also in the Penitentiary were so terrible and called so urgently for relief that it was felt that we should not be justified in imperiling the passage of the bill by offering amendments. The passage of the bill seemed at that time most uncertain, and it was thought by all concerned that any amendment whatever would be fatal. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

Annual Report of the State Charities Aid Association to the State Commission in Lunacy

This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact, and remains as true to the original work as possible. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps (as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world), and other notations in the work. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

First Annual Report of the New York City Visiting Committee of the State Charities Aid Association

