#Realism in International Politics #Idealism in International Relations #International Politics Theories #Realism vs Idealism Debate #Power Politics

Realism and idealism are two fundamental schools of thought that shape the study and practice of international politics. Realism emphasizes the pursuit of national interest, power, and security in an anarchic world, while idealism prioritizes cooperation, international law, and the promotion of shared values to achieve peace and prosperity. Understanding these contrasting perspectives is crucial for analyzing global events, formulating foreign policy, and navigating the complexities of the international arena.
