The Doctrine of God

Scriptural Doctrine of God in the Old Testament

Deuteronomy 6

The Holy Spirit

Why Jesus Is Called the Son of God

The Bible Speaks of the Word of God

The Supreme Name by Which God Has Been Revealed

This Is the New Testament Author Shorthand Way of Referring to the One God Who Works both Now and Eternity Past and Present in His Eternal Threefold Way of Being Jesus Refers to God as His God and as His Father and Our Father Paul the Apostle Does the Same 2nd Corinthians 1 : 3 Three Final Passages Reveal the Reality the Triune God Who Does Not Hide Himself at Jesus Baptism He Is Clearly God's Son and this Is Witnessed Too by the Father's Voice and by the Descent of the Holy Spirit upon Him Separately in the Form of a Dove in John 17 Jesus Prays for the Father To Establish a Unity of Jesus Followers with Jesus That Parallels the Unity Jesus Has with the Father John 17 20 through 23

It's Too Strong for Classical Trinitarianism but Yet that Term Is Commonly Used the Problem It Arises Is this Implies Different Centers of Consciousness That Can Interact with each Other That Destroys any Meaningful Use of the Word One How Can Deuteronomy 6 : 4 Say the Lord Is One in Opposition to the Pagan Beliefs if inside the Lord There Are Different Centers of Consciousness Talking Back and Forth with Different Ideas That's Why I Say You've Got To Start with the Simple Abcs of the Old Testament and Decide What One Means and What One God Means and Then You CanNot Allow any Inferential

That's Why I Say You've Got To Start with the Simple Abcs of the Old Testament and Decide What One Means and What One God Means and Then You CanNot Allow any Inferential Systems To Violate

Your Fundamental Premises and There's a Statement of Implicit Trinitarianism but What I See Here Is a Conceptual Framework Imposed on Scripture I Don't Find any Scriptural Statements of Three Persons or Separate Personal Forms or Different Centers of Consciousness It Would Help To Have a Definition of the Word Person and Then We Could See if that Definition Can Be Identified in Scripture another Example Is There's a Statement of Eternal Son but I Don't See any Scripture That Actually Says There's an Eternal Son to the Contrary I've Given a Scripture Luke 1 : 35 As Well as the Galatians 4 : 4

But I Don't See any Scripture That Actually Says There's an Eternal Son to the Contrary I've Given a Scripture Luke 1 : 35 As Well as the Galatians 4 : 4 and Others Which Identifies the Son as Being Born in Time and So if We're Going To Impose this Terminology in this Conceptual Framework We've Got To Have Scriptural Support Not Simply Inferences Now Going a Little Bit Further There Is a Distinction between the Transcendent God and the Human Manifestation of God and When the Bible Is Speaking of God and His Transcendence as the Creator and Giver of Life in Relationship to Humans It Typically Uses the Word Father so It's no Surprise in Fact It's Essential to the Oneness View that You Speak of the Father and the Son

This Terminology in this Conceptual Framework We've Got To Have Scriptural Support Not Simply Inferences Now Going a Little Bit Further There Is a Distinction between the Transcendent God and the Human Manifestation of God and When the Bible Is Speaking of God and His Transcendence as the Creator and Giver of Life in Relationship to Humans It Typically Uses the Word Father so It's no Surprise in Fact It's Essential to the Oneness View that You Speak of the Father and the Son because You're Distinguishing God in His Transcendence from the Human Personification as I Said Jesus Had To Be a Real Human in every Way like Us except for Sin but if His Speaking of the Father into the Father That's Not Differentiating Persons in the Godhead

Then You Can Understand Why the Bible Would Need To Speak Our Father and Son in Order To Clearly Identify the Human Role and Human Identity of Jesus Christ Passages Such as John 16 : 13 Which Talked about the Holy Spirit We're Feeling the Mind of God There Is a Conceptual Distinction Again between the Transcendent God and His Work in the Life of Believers It's once that It's the One Spirit and I Would Agree with All the Statements that the Holy Spirit Is God God in Spiritual Action but When the Spirit Is Working in the Life of a Believer Sometimes a Believer Might Assume that He Automatically Has all Wisdom

Sometimes a Believer Might Assume that He Automatically Has all Wisdom and all Knowledge the Spirit Speaking through Him Is Automatically Going To Give the Whole Counsel of God but Instead There's a Clear Statement that the Spirit Working in the Believer Will Only Speak and Do What Comes from the Transcendent Mind of God so You Do Have To Make a Distinction as God in His Eternal Transcendent Essence and God as He Works in Individual Human Lives but that's Far Different from Saying There Are Two Centers of Consciousness or Three Centers of Consciousness in God When the Scripture Has Said God Is One Not Only One God but God Is One Galatians Three 20 and I Would Submit that Whatever Term We Would Use To Define God whether You Call Him a Spirit a Being a Person You Have To Say He's One of that because He Is One in the Baptism of Christ Doesn't Require Different Persons It Only Requires One Omnipresent God the Voice from Heaven Was Assigned for the People as We See in John 12

We Thought There Was Only One Personal God as the Way Abraham Isaac Jacob and Moses and Isaiah Believed but Now We See There's a New Revelation of a Plurality of Persons but There Was no Reaction They Only Saw Jesus Revealed as the Messiah as the Son of God So if We Look at that Scene 2 , 000 Years Later We Should Not Imply More than the People Who Were There Saw John 17 Jesus Speaks of Unity with God That's Speaking as a Man in Relationship to God as a Role Model for Us It's Not Speaking of His Transcendence because He Is the One True God by Identity He Said I and My Father Are One John 10 : 30 Matthew 28 : 19 I Did Explain that but I Would Like To Focus More Clearly It Says the Name Singular of the Father Son and Holy Ghost

And Verse 14 the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ the Love of God the Communion or the Fellowship with the Holy Ghost Be with You all That Does Not Imply Three Different Persons It Says the Love of God Now When the Bible Speaks of God this One God However You Define Him To Be You Shouldn't Automatically Assume if There's More than One Person that One Person Would Somehow Be More God than the Other Persons but Love God Is Love That's His Eternal Nature so It's Most Natural To Speak of the Love of God

Now When the Bible Speaks of God this One God However You Define Him To Be You Shouldn't Automatically Assume if There's More than One Person that One Person Would Somehow Be More God than the Other Persons but Love God Is Love That's His Eternal Nature so It's Most Natural To Speak of the Love of God but How Does the Grace of God Work in Our Lives Not Simply because the Eternal God God Is Love but Not Everybody's Going To Experience His Grace Only those That Receive the Work of Jesus Christ so the Grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ and How Do We Have Communion or Fellowship with God and with One another It's through the Holy Spirit But How Does the Grace of God Work in Our Lives Not Simply because the Eternal God God Is Love but Not Everybody's Going To Experience His Grace Only those That Receive the Work of Jesus Christ so the Grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ and How Do We Have Communion or Fellowship with God and with One another It's through the Holy Spirit and So It's Natural that these Titles Would Be Associated with Three Different Characteristics or Works of God but It Would Not Require God To Be Three Different Persons in Order To Do that It Only Requires that God Is Omnipotent

I Believe the Latter Is the Proper Way To Look at It Now There Were a Lot of Discussion of Churches Treat and I Did Not Go into that because I Feel like the Authority in this Matter Has Got To Be the Scripture Not Church History but There Are a Lot of Quotes if You'Re Going To Quote People like Justin Martyr He Had a Very Subordination Istic View Where the Father Is Superior to the Son and the Holy Spirit It's Not Even Clear if He Saw Him as One of the Angels or Something like that so You Can't Be Selective in Choosing Your Human Authorities

If You'Re Going To Quote People like Justin Martyr He Had a Very Subordination Istic View Where the Father Is Superior to the Son and the Holy Spirit It's Not Even Clear if He Saw Him as One of the Angels or Something like that so You Can't Be Selective in Choosing Your Human Authorities some of these Same Men That Were Quoted Were Subordination Istic They all Believed in the Essentiality of Water Baptism for Salvation Which Many Christian Groups Do Not Believe that and So if You'Re Going To Quote Them for Authorities People like Martin Luther and Erlich Swingley Founders of the Protestant Reformation They Stated in Their Works that the Apostles Baptize in the Name of Jesus but It's Not Necessary To Follow Their Example

And I Submit that the Early Writers Such as Clement Ignatius Polycarp and So on They Spoke in Scriptural Terms and They Were Very Quick To Speak of Jesus as Our God and Even Later on Irenaeus Spoke as the Father as the Invisible of the Sun and the Sun as the Visible of the Father So if You'Re Going To Go into Church History You Don't Really Find Solid Trinitarians until after Ad 200 and They'Re Not in the Majority to Tolian Said They Were in the Minority in His Day the Majority Refused To Accept His Doctrine Thinking It Was a Compromise of Christian Monotheism

Remember the Parable the Mustard Seed That Described the Development of the Kingdom of God in the Church That Pictures the Growth of Trinitarianism Speaking So Often as It Does about the Separate Nature's of Christ Sometimes It Seems Difficult Not To Conclude that Oneness Asserts Two Separate Natures in Christ I'M Not Sure that I Heard Mr Bernards Say that but in Such a Way that the Incarnation Is Jeopardized Jesus the God Man Was Perfectly God and Man but One Person Mode a Being without Confusion of Nature's

And all Things Were Made through Him without Him Was Not Anything Made that Was Made He Became Incarnate in the Flesh Seems To Indicate that this Jesus Was the Word in that He Was with the Father with God in the Beginning and that Implies Eternality Colossians 1 : 16 through 17 Philosophy of Philippians 2 : 5 2 : 11 these Seem To Present the Eternal Pre-Existence of Jesus Christ as a Separate Person Mode of Being Distinct from the Father Who Existed with God from Eternity and through Whom God Made the World's the I Am Passages of John 8 : 42 Clearly Refer Back to the Giving of God's Name in Exodus 3 : 14

Both the Divinity and the Distinctness of Jesus Christ Is Involved the Bible Indicates that Only God Can Save Us According to Oneness Theology Is that Best Ambiguous Who Saves Us According to the Economic Triadic Model of God That Is Sometimes Suggested as Opposed to an Immanent Trinity Model It Does Not Appear that the Personal God Does Save Us but Only an Appearance or Modal Appearance of God Does so that Is the Whole Being of God Not Involved in Our Salvation in this Vital Way for Certainly the Father God Does Not Abdicate the Throne in Heaven in Order To Affect Salvation for Humanity a Trinitarian View of the Godhead Does Not Have this Problem if Modalism Is True Then We Have To Ask Who Is the Real God behind the Mask of the Father Your Presentations of Modalism Leaves Us Wondering Who God Really Is during the Baptism of Jesus the Father Spoke to Him and the Holy Spirit Descended upon Him in the Form of a Dove Which Clearly Causes Me To Conceive of the Activity of a Triune God Who Can Act as One God in Three Ways at the Same Time In this Vital Way for Certainly the Father God Does Not Abdicate the Throne in Heaven in Order To Affect Salvation for Humanity a Trinitarian View of the Godhead Does Not Have this Problem if Modalism Is True Then We Have To Ask Who Is the Real God behind the Mask of the Father Your Presentations of Modalism Leaves Us Wondering Who God Really Is during the Baptism of Jesus the Father Spoke to Him and the Holy Spirit Descended upon Him in the Form of a Dove Which Clearly Causes Me To Conceive of the Activity of a Triune God Who Can Act as One God in Three Ways

at the Same Time Jesus Prayed in John 17 to His Father that His Father Would Make His Disciples One Even as He and the Father Were One Oneness Here Does Not Mean Exact Identity of Persons Jesus Is Clearly Separate from the Father and Jesus Is Not Praying that God Would Create a Unity of His Followers as One Personality in the Garden of Gethsemane Jesus Requests That the Father Take this Cup from Him

I Would Simply Say What's Happening Here Jesus as a True Human Being Is Praying to God if We Can Pray Such a Prayer Then Jesus Had To Be Able To Pray the Same Kind of Prayer Otherwise He Couldn't Be Fully Human Now for Trinitarians They Answer that Question Is Very Easy Council of Constantinople Which One Was at 680 Said One Person Can Have Two Wills There Are Two Wills in Jesus but There's Only One Person It's the Human Will and a Divine Will and the Divine Will Is Shared among the Three Members of the Trinity

So that's the Trinitarian Answer to that I Would Say We Don't Have To Complicate It with All the Relations between Three Persons and those 3 Persons Relating to a Human Identity but We Can Simply Say Jesus as an Authentic Human Being Was Praying to God When He Said Not My Will He Says Not My Will as a Human but I Submit to the Will of God but at the Same Time Recognizing that God Was Fully Incarnate in Him as Dr Carpenter Has Emphasized We Must Preserve the Integrity of the Incarnation

But We Can Simply Say Jesus as an Authentic Human Being Was Praying to God When He Said Not My Will He Says Not My Will as a Human but I Submit to the Will of God but at the Same Time Recognizing that God Was Fully Incarnate in Him as Dr Carpenter Has Emphasized We Must Preserve the Integrity of the Incarnation That Jesus Christ Is One Personal Being but We Can't Take Away from Him that One Personal Will Being the Ability To Speak as a True Human Being Otherwise He Could Not Be the Perfect Substitute a Sacrifice of Atonement for Our Sins Now if You Take It Logically Further and Say Well this Is the Second Person's Will in Opposition to the First Person's Will Seems like You've Got a Conflict between God the Two Wills of God if that Is Jesus Speaking in a Subordinate Role as a Second Person Then Your Two Persons Are Not Coequal

Why Would There Be an Implication You'd See Two of Them but You Wouldn't See the Third One but It Doesn't Even Say that It Says I See the Son of Man Standing on the Right Hand of God on Gods an Invisible Spirit He Fills the Universe What Is His Right Hand It's Not a Physical Location but throughout Scripture It Refers to the Power of God Exodus 15 6 Thy Right Hand O God Is Glorious and Power He Delivered It Roll by His Right Hand It Wasn't a Physical Right Hand That Came Out and Pulled Him across the Red Sea but It Was the Power of God so Stephen Saw Jesus as the Glorified Christ Not Just the Humble Servant as He Walked around Earth but Invested with All the Power and Authority of God He Saw Him with the Glory of God

But He Addressed Him Lord Jesus Receive My Spirit Now if He Saw Two People Standing Side-by-Side He Ignored One of Them because He Simply Called on Jesus So I Believe that He Saw Jesus Christ in His Glorified Divine Role on the Right Hand of God Just as Jesus Said You'Re GonNa See the Son of Man Coming in the Clouds at the Right Hand of Power Matthew 26 64 We'Re Not GonNa See Two People Coming Down in the Clouds Together One on Somebody Else's Hand but We'Re GonNa See Jesus Christ whether Enveloped with All the Power of God at the Right Hand Position So To Speak and that's Exactly What Stephen Saw So It's Consistent with My What I've Explained to You that There's One God Fully Revealed in Jesus Christ Jesus God Is Not Masked or Hidden behind Three Masts That's Not the Terminology
