

Camus Face A Dieu

#Albert Camus #Camus philosophy #Absurdism God #Existentialism #Meaning of life

Albert Camus, a seminal figure in 20th-century philosophy, deeply engaged with the concept of God, often challenging traditional notions through his philosophy of absurdism. He explored the human search for meaning in an indifferent universe, advocating for a revolt against the inherent lack of divine purpose rather than seeking solace in faith. His works provoke reflection on our relationship with the transcendent, urging an authentic embrace of life's inherent value without reliance on supernatural hope or ultimate answers.
