The sweat of your body covers me

Dream, if you can, a courtyard An ocean of violets in bloom Animals strike curious poses

They feel the heat The heat between me and you

Don't make me chase you Even doves have pride

This is what it sounds like When doves cry

How can you just leave me standing Alone in a world that's so cold?

Edward Windsor takes us home to Windsor Castle! A Royal Fortress and family home for more than 900 years. He provides a unique perspective on the stories, legends, and characters not just of the Castle, but also the town, the Great Park and the surrounding countryside.

Edward Windsor explores various sites in the South East of England examining their historical links with the Crown. When five small ports on the South Coast came to a deal with the King back in 1050, it heralded the start of Britain's maritime power. In the alleyways of Dover and Rye and finally, we arrive at Walmer, the official residence of Queen Elizabeth's mother.
