Introduction

Before you got into the franchise consulting space, you were working in wealth management?

What is your typical client?

Process of franchisors that allow an owner to work just 5/10/15 hours a week

Are there any interesting industries that you see bowed well for that type of investor that can't leave their job and needs a day-to-day manager?

Do you have a general investment minimum that you set for your clients if they've told you they are not willing to work full-time in the business?

What are some of the most important things that you vet with your clients when you're investigating this type of franchises?

In terms of data that you are tracking daily/weekly, are there items that you are monitoring?

What amount of success do franchisors and franchisees have?
