These translations from the French bring two of Claudine-Alexandrine de Tencin's novels back to life: The Memoirs of the Count of Comminge (1735), presented as a much-needed new translation, and The Misfortunes of Love (1747), appearing here for the first time in English. Published more than half a century after Marie-Madeleine de Lafayette's La Princesse de Clèves, they belonged less to Tencin's time than to the tradition of the "feminine historical novel" inspired by Lafayette. Beautifully written in the spare but powerful prose characteristic of French classicism and widely read both in Tencin's lifetime and beyond, the novels were forgotten in the mid-nineteenth century. Like the work of Abbé Prévost and Pierre de Marivaux, they were important contributions to the early sentimental novel. They also anticipated, surprisingly, the gothic novels of Ann Radcliffe which appeared later in the century.

Market: Those interested in the development of 20th-century science. A modest scientific review begun by Cornell University in 1893, The Physical Review is today the most prestigious and wide-ranging collection of archival journals of American physics. To celebrate the centenary of this influential publication, Cornell professor Paul Hartman provides an informal, anecdote-rich history of the journal. This book offers readers a special opportunity to meet the scientists who initiated and nurtured the magazine and revisit landmark papers, abstracts from meetings of the American Physical Society, and articles that chronicled advances in world physics.

Memoirs

The genre of political memoir has a long history, from its origins in classical times through its popularity in the age of courts and cabinets to its ubiquity in modern mass cultures where retired politicians increasingly attract large and eager readerships for their revelations. Yet there is virtually no scholarly criticism which treats this complex form of literature as a distinct genre, fusing autobiographical, historical and political elements. The essays in this book draw together the collaborative findings of a team of British, European, American and Canadian scholars to present a pioneering historical and critical study of the genre of political memoir, analysing the development of its distinct functions and assessing leading memoirists in European, American, Canadian, Indian and Japanese societies. The editor, George Egerton, introduces the volume and surveys the principal features of the genre over its long history. Otto Pflanze analyses the memoirs of Bismarck; Robert Young, Milton Israel, Joshua Mostow and Robert Bothwell study the memoir literature of France, India, Japan and Canada respectively. Barry Gough and Tim Travers look at naval and military memoirists, while Zara Steiner, B.J.C. McKercher and Valerie Cromwell assess the memoirs of diplomats and their families. Leonidas Hill examines the memoirs of leading Nazis. John Munro, Francis Heller and Robert Ferrell convey inside information on the making of memoirs - notably by the Canadian Prime Ministers Diefenbaker and Pearson and the American President Truman. Stephen Ambrose assays Nixon as memoirist, while Janos Bak portrays the status of memoirists under totalitarian regimes. Wesley Wark and John Naylor analyse the proliferation of intelligence memoirs and government efforts to protect official secrets from the revelations of the candid memoirist. The principal findings reached by the contributors in their study of this problematic but influential genre are set out by the editor in the concluding chapter.

My Memoirs

THE #1 SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER A riveting, deeply personal account of history in the making-from the president who inspired us to believe in the power of democracy - and the perfect gift this Christmas! 'Gorgeously written, humorous, compelling, life affirming' Justin Webb, Mail on Sunday In the stirring, highly anticipated first volume of his presidential memoirs, Barack Obama tells the story of his improbable odyssey from young man searching for his identity to leader of the free world, describing in strikingly personal detail both his political education and the landmark moments of the first term of his historic presidency-a time of dramatic transformation and turmoil. Obama takes readers on a compelling journey from his earliest political aspirations to the pivotal Iowa caucus victory that demonstrated the power of grassroots activism to the watershed night of November 4, 2008, when he was elected 44th president of the United States, becoming the first African American to hold the nation's highest office. Reflecting on the presidency, he offers a unique and thoughtful exploration of both the awesome reach and the limits of presidential power, as well as singular insights into the dynamics of U.S. partisan politics and international diplomacy. Obama brings readers inside the Oval Office and the White House Situation Room, and to Moscow, Cairo, Beijing, and points beyond. We are privy to his thoughts as he assembles his cabinet, wrestles with a global financial crisis, takes the measure of Vladimir Putin, overcomes seemingly insurmountable odds to secure passage of the Affordable Care Act, clashes with generals about U.S. strategy in Afghanistan, tackles Wall Street reform, responds to the devastating Deepwater Horizon blowout, and authorizes Operation Neptune's Spear, which leads to the death of Osama bin Laden. A Promised Land is extraordinarily intimate and introspective—the story of one man's bet with history, the faith of a community organizer tested on the world stage. Obama is candid about the balancing act of running for office as a Black American, bearing the expectations of a generation buoyed by messages of "hope and change," and meeting the moral challenges of high-stakes decision-making. He is frank about the forces that opposed him at home and abroad, open about how living in the White House affected his wife and daughters, and unafraid to reveal self-doubt and disappointment. Yet he never wavers from his belief that inside the great, ongoing American experiment, progress is always possible. This beautifully written and powerful book captures Barack Obama's conviction that democracy is not a gift from on high but something founded on empathy and common understanding and built together, day by day. 'What is unexpected in A Promised Land is the former president's candour' David Olusoga, Observer

Memoirs of the Royal Astronomical Society

Taking into account the popularity and variety of the genre, this collaborative volume considers a wide range of English Romantic autobiographical writers and modes, including working-class autobiography, the familiar essay, and the staged presence. In the wake of Rousseau's Confessions, autobiography became an increasingly popular as well as a literary mode of writing. By the early nineteenth century, this hybrid and metamorphic genre is found everywhere in English letters, in prose and poetry by men and women of all classes. As such, it resists attempts to provide a coherent historical account or establish a neat theoretical paradigm. The contributors to Romantic Autobiography in England embrace the challenge, focusing not only on major writers such as William Wordsworth, De Quincey, and Mary Shelley, but on more recent additions to the canon such as Mary Robinson, Dorothy Wordsworth, and Mary Hays. There are also essays on the scandalous Memoirs of Mrs. Billington and on Joseph Severn's autobiographical scripting of himself as "the friend of Keats." The result is an exploratory and provisional mapping of the field, provocative rather than exhaustive, intended to inspire future scholarship and teaching.

A Philosophical and Mathematical Dictionary Containing... Memoirs of the Lives and Writings of the Most Eminent Authors

Not every presidential visit to the theatre is as famous as Lincoln's last night at Ford's, but American presidents attended the theatre long before and long after that ill-fated night. In 1751, George Washington saw his first play, The London Merchant, during a visit to Barbados. John Quincy Adams published dramatic critiques. William McKinley avoided the theatre while in office, on professional as well as moral grounds. Richard Nixon met his wife at a community theatre audition. Surveying 255 years, this volume examines presidential theatre-going as it has reflected shifting popular tastes in America.

and master chef, César Fournier.

It was César who exposed me to the world of international cuisine.

Hearty Russian stews, Italian classics, all the flavors of Japan.

There was almost nothing César couldn't whip up in the kitchen

The Frenchman typically exuded confidence as the name suggested, was an impossible task.

"Impossible" means nothing to a child.

crumbling bits of gourmet chocolate.

with a whisk, spoon, or spice shaker.

There was nothing left to do but wait

Golden brown and fluffy, the Impossible Soufflé was a gourmand's dream.

So that We Had To Put Back into Port for 12 Hours I Left the Ship and Came Home Thinking What a Surprise It Would Be for My Wife and Open that Maybe She Would Be Glad To See Me So Soon the Thought Was in My Head as I Turned into My Own Street and at that Moment a Cab Passed Me and There She Was Sitting by the Side of Fair Ben the Two Chatting and Laughing with Never a Thought for Me as I Stood Watching Them from the Footpath I'll Tell You and I'll Give You My Word for It But as I Ran I Got Cunning Too and Hung Back a Little To See Them without Being Seen They Pulled Up Soon at the Railway Station There Was a Good Crowd round the Booking-Office So I Got Quite Close to Them without Being Seen They Took Tickets for New Brighton So Did I but I Got in Three Carriages behind Them When We Reached It They Walked along the Parade and I Was Never More than a Hundred Yards from Them the Last I Saw Them Hire a Boat and Start for a Row for It Was a Very Hot Day and They Thought no Doubt that It Would Be Cooler on the Water

It Was Just as if They Had Been Given into My Hands It Was a Bit of a Haze and You Could Not See More than a Few Hundred Yards I Hired a Boat for Myself and I Pulled after Them I Could See the Blur of Their Craft that They Were Going Nearly As Fast as I and They Must Have Been a Long Mile from the Shore before I Caught Them Up the Haze Was like a Curtain All around Us There Were We Three in the Middle of It My God I Forget Their Faces When I Saw like a Madman and Jabbed at Me with an Awl for He Must Have Seen Death in My Eyes

I Got past It Got One in with My Stick That Crushed His Head like an Egg I Would Have Spared Her Apps for All My Madness but She Threw Her Arms round Him Crying Out to Him and Calling Him Alec I Struck Again and She Lay Stretched beside Him I Was like a Wild Beast Then That Had Tasted Blood if Sarah Had Been There by the Lord She Should Have Joined Him I Pulled Out My Knife and Well There I've Said Enough He Gave Me a Kind of Savage Joy When I Thought How Sarah Would Feel and She Had Such Signs as these of What a Middling Had Brought About

Then I Tied the Bodies into the Boat Stove a Plank and Stood By until They Had Sunk I Knew Very Well that the Owner Would Think that They Had Lost Their Bearings in the Haze and Had Drifted Off out to Sea I Clean Myself Up Got Back to Land and Join My Ship without a Soul Having a Suspicion of What Passed that Night I Made Up the Packet for Sarah Cushing the Next Day I Sent It from Belfast There You Have the Old Truth of It You Can Hang Me We'll Do What You Like with Me but You CanNot Punish Me as I Have Been Punished

Did You Observe Where the Bullet Went Yes Sir I'M Afraid It Has Spoiled Your Beautiful Bust for It Passed Right through the Head and Flattened Itself on the Wall I Picked It Up from the Carpet Here It Is Holmes Held It Out to Me a Soft Revolver Bullet as You Perceive Watson There's Genius in that for Who Would Expect To Find Such a Thing Fired from an Airgun Alright Mrs Hudson I'M Much Obligated for Your Assistance and Now Watson Let Me See You in Your Old Seat Once More for There Are Several Points Which I Should Like To Discuss with

There Was no Use Appealing to a Magistrate They CanNot Interfere on the Strength of What Would Appear to Them To Be a Wild Suspicion so I Could Do Nothing but I Watched the Criminal News Knowing that Sooner or Later I Should Get Him Then Came the Death of this Ronald Adair My Chance Had Come at Last Knowing What I Did Was It Not Certain that Colonel Moran Had Done It He Had Played Cards with the Lad He Had Followed Him Home from the Club

But I Watched the Criminal News Knowing that Sooner or Later I Should Get Him Then Came the Death of this Ronald Adair My Chance Had Come at Last Knowing What I Did Was It Not Certain that Colonel Moran Had Done It He Had Played Cards with the Lad He Had Followed Him Home from the Club He Had Shot Him through the Open Window There Was Not a Doubt of It the Bullets Alone Are Enough To Put His Head in a Noose I Came Over at Once I Was Seen by the Sentinel Who Would I Knew Direct the Colonel's Attention to My Presence He Could Not Fail To Connect My Sudden Return with His Crime and To Be Terribly Alarmed

Who Would I Knew Direct the Colonel's Attention to My Presence He Could Not Fail To Connect My Sudden Return with His Crime and To Be Terribly Alarmed I Was Sure that He Would Make an Attempt To Get Me out of the Way at Once and Would Bring Round His Murderers Weapon for that Purpose I Left Him an Excellent Mark in the Window and Having Warned the Police that They Might Be Needed by the Way Watson He Was Spotted Their Presence in that Doorway with Unerring Accuracy I Took Our Pot Seemed to Me To Be a Judicious Post for Observation

And Having Warned the Police that They Might Be Needed by the Way Watson He Was Spotted Their Presence in that Doorway with Unerring Accuracy I Took Our Pot Seemed to Me To Be a Judicious Post for Observation Never Dreaming that He Would Choose the Same Spot for His Attack Now My Dear Watson Does Anything Remain for Me To Explain Yes Said I You Have Not Made It Clear What Was Colonel Moran's Motive in Murdering the Honourable Ronald Adair Our My Dear Watson There We Come into those Realms of Conjecture Where the Most Logical Mind May Be at Fault each May Form His Own Hypothesis upon the Present Evidence and Yours Is As Likely To Be Correct as Mine You Have Formed One Then I Think that It Is Not Difficult To Explain the Fact

Upon the Present Evidence and Yours Is As Likely To Be Correct as Mine You Have Formed One Then I Think that It Is Not Difficult To Explain the Fact It Came Out in Evidence that Colonel Moran and Young Adair Had between Them One a Considerable Amount of Money Now Moran Undoubtedly Played Foul of that I Have Long Been Aware I Believe that on the Day of the Murder Adair Discovered that Moran Was Cheating Very Likely He Had Spoken to Him Privately and Had Threatened To Expose Him unless He Voluntarily Resigned His Membership of the Club Promised Not To Play Cards

Scotland Yard Inspector

I Can't Help Thinking that Your Evidence Is Not Complete Lestrade Knew My Friend Too Well To Disregard His Words He Laid Down His Pen and Looked Curiously at Him What Do You Mean Mr Holmes Only that There Is an Important Witness Whom You Have Not Seen Can You Produce Him I Think I Can Then Do So I Will Do My Best How Many Constables Have You There Are Three within Call Excellent Said Holmes May I Ask if They Are all Large Able-Bodied Men with Powerful Voices I Have no Doubt They Are Though I Fail To See What Their Voices Have To Do with It Perhaps I Can Help You To See that and One or Two Other Things As Well Said Holmes Kindly Summon Your Men and I Will Try Five Minutes Later Three Policemen Had Assembled in the Hall

In the Outhouse You Will Find a Considerable Quantity of Straw Said Holmes I Will Ask You To Carry in Two Bundles of It I Think It Will Be of the Greatest Assistance in Producing the Witness Whom I Require Thank You Very Much I Believe You Have some Matches in Your Pocket Watson Now Mr Lestrade I Will Ask You all To Accompany Me to the Top Landing as I Have Said There Was a Broad Corridor There Which Ran outside Three Empty Bedrooms

We Were all Marshaled by Sherlock Holmes the Constables Grinning and Lestrade Staring at My Friend with Amazement Expectation and Derision Chasing each Other across His Features Holmes Stood before Us with the Air of a Conjuror Who Is Performing a Trick Would You Kindly Send One of Your Constables for Two Buckets of Water Put a Straw on the Floor Here the Free from the Wall on either Side Now I Think that We Are all Ready Lestrade Face Had Begun To Grow Red and Angry I Don't Know whether You're Playing a Game with Us Mr Sherlock Holmes Said He if You Know Anything You Can Surely Say It without All this Tomfoolery I Assure You My Good Lestrade That I Have an Excellent Reason for Everything That I Do You May Possibly Remember that You Chaffed Me a Little Summers Ago When the Sun Seemed on Your Side of the Hedge

That I Have an Excellent Reason for Everything That I Do You May Possibly Remember that You Chaffed Me a Little Summers Ago When the Sun Seemed on Your Side of the Hedge so You Must Not Grudge Me a Little Pomp and Ceremony Now Might I Ask You What's in that Window and Then To Put a Match to the Edge of the Straw I Did So and Written by the Draught a Coil of Gray Smoke Swirled down the Corridor while the Dry Straw Crackled and Flamed Now We Must See if We Can Find this Witness for You Lestrade Might I Ask You all To Join in the Cry of Fire

The Shout Must Have Run Over nor Would It Had Hardly Died Away When an Amazing Thing Happened a Door Suddenly Flew Open out of What Appeared To Be Solid Wall at the End of the Corridor and a Little Wizen Man Dashed out of It like a Rabbit out of Its Burrow Capital Said Holmes Calmly Watson a Bucket of Water over the Straw That Will Do Lestrade Allow Me To Present You with Your Principle Missing Witness Mr Jonas Oldacre the Detective Stared at the Newcomer with Blank Amazement the Latter Was Blinking in the Bright Light of the Corridor and Peering at Us and at the Smouldering

Allow Me To Present You with Your Principle Missing Witness Mr Jonas Oldacre the Detective Stared at the Newcomer with Blank Amazement the Latter Was Blinking in the Bright Light of the Corridor and Peering at Us and at the Smouldering Fire It Was an Odious Face Crafty Vicious Malignant with Shifty Light Gray Eyes and White Lashes Was this Then Said Lestrade at Last What Have You Been Doing All this Time a Oldacre Gave an Uneasy Laugh Shrinking Back from the Furious Red Face of the Angry Detective I Have Done no Harm no Harm You've Done Your Best To Get an Innocent Man Hanged if It Wasn't for this Gentleman

I'M Sure Sir It Was Only My Practical Joke Oh a Joke Was It You Won't Find the Laugh on Your Side I Promise You Take Him Down and Keep Him in the Sitting-Room till I Come Mr Holmes He Continued When They Had Gone I Could Not Speak before the Constables but I Don't Mind Saying in the Presence of Dr Watson that this Is the Brightest Thing That You Have Done Yet though It Is a Mystery to Me How You Did It You Have Saved an Innocent Man's Life and You Have Prevented a Very Grave Scandal Which Would Have Ruined My Reputation in the Force Holmes Smiled and

Clapped Lestrade upon the Shoulder Instead of Being Ruined My Good Sir You Will Find that Your Reputation Has Been Enormous Lee Enhanced Just Make a Few Alterations
You Said It Was Final and So It Was in a Very Different Sense I Knew It Had Not Been There the Day before I Pay a Good Deal of Attention to Matters of Detail as You May Have Observed and I Had Examined the Hall and Was Sure that the Wall Was Clear Therefore It Had Been Put On during the Night but How Very Simply When those Packets Were Sealed Up Jonas Oldacre Got Mcfarlane To Secure One of the Seals by Putting His Thumb upon the Soft Wax It Would Be Done So Quickly and So Naturally that I Daresay the Young Man Himself Has no Recollection of It
Very Likely It Just So Happened and Oldacre Had Himself no Notion of the Use He Would Put It to Brooding over the Case in that Den of His It Suddenly Struck Him What Absolutely Damning Evidence He Could Make against Mcfarlane by Using that Thumb Mark It Was the Simplest Thing in the World for Him To Take a Wax Impression from the Seal To Moisten It in As Much Blood as He Could Get from a Pinprick and To Put the Mark upon the Wall during the Night either with His Own Hand or with that of His Housekeeper if You Examine among those Documents Which He Took with Him into His Retreat I Will Lay You a Wager That You'll Find the Seal with the Thumb Mark upon It
I Don't Think that Is Very Hard To Explain a Very Deep Malicious Vindictive Person Is the Gentleman Who Is Now Waiting Us Downstairs You Know that He Was Once Refused by Mcfarlane's Mother You Don't I Told You that You Should Go to Blackheath First and Norwood Afterwards Well this Injury as He Would Consider It as Rankled in His Wicked Scheming Brain and All His Life He Has Longed for Vengeance but Never Seen His Chance during the Last Year or Two Things Have Gone against Him Secret Speculation I Think and He Finds Himself in a Bad Way
