Road Trip Journal

Are you taking a road trip? Road trips, whether travelling by car, train or in an RV, can be quite enjoyable. You may have a specific destination in mind across the country, or you may want to 'wing it' and travel to whichever place catches your eye on the map next. Either way, keeping a log book of your journey is a great way to remember all the terrific places you've seen and experienced. It may be the majestic Rocky Mountains or a memorable historical landmark. This fantastic little notebook can help you keep track of all the wonderful places you've seen on your road trip. There's a large blank lined page to describe where you've been and what you've seen, as well as a page to record the distance you've travelled, the places you stayed at, what was memorable about each location, and even space to plot your next day's agenda. Doesn't that sound like a handy book to have on a road trip? It's a convenient size (6" x 9") so it's easy to toss into a bag or backpack for you to have with you everywhere. So whether you are driving to bicycling, this little book is a must to jot down your thoughts and feelings about the wonderful adventure you are planning. Don't leave home without it.

Road Trip Journal

'A Rant and a Road Trip' chronicles an alternative holiday, you might say, a heart-on-the-sleeve road trip. Its not so much about where Brendan OLeary went, but what he found when he got there and the people he met along the way. This journal covers five weeks spent on the road, drifting from town to town and motel to motel, living out of a suitcase and, for the most part, never knowing where the next stop will be. But believe it when OLeary tells you that it can be a very liberating experience, seeing another town, another diner, another motel, the story continuing as he travels to new places. Nothing can beat the feeling that comes from unexpected discoveries made while traveling. As you travel through the pages of this journal, youll see what OLeary sees and feel what he feels. From New Jersey to Texas to California, OLeary shares his thoughts about the places he visits and the people he meets. Written as very personal journal entries, OLeary examines the essence of America through his experiences and shares the ups and downs of living life on the road.

Let's Go on a Road Trip

Planning a road trip in the great American West? Take this travel journal along to record your experiences, or use it for important notes, itineraries, contact information, etc. With 200 blank lined pages for writing, it'll be a vital companion on your journey now, and a treasured memory-keeper forever. Soft bound.

Let's Go on a Road Trip

This Road Trip Travel Journal is set up to make documenting your trip easy and fun. Writing down the information as you go along helps you remember your trip easier and stay with you longer. I've set up this log book in the following way: 1. The first section is where you can record the Date and who you're traveling with. 2. Next you'll see a section to record the Weather Conditions. 3. The next section is where you can jot down where you're traveling to and from, the distance that will be, and how long it took. 4. Then you'll see a Traffic section to rate how bad the traffic was. 5. Next is an area to plan out your Travel Route a little more, including Stops, Time of Arrival, and Highlights/Notes. Be as detailed as possible here, and fill it out with specific moments. 6. Dining Experiences is the next section, and you can write down what you ate, how much, and what restaurants you stopped at. 7. The last section is Sleepover Experiences, where you can write your thoughts about where you're staying - the hotel, a friend's house, a camp site, etc. All of these sections are meant to be adaptable to many types of trips, but specifically helpful for road trips. Enjoy (and document) the journey!
