how to journal on great literature journalling begins with marginalia marginalia is a compliment to the writer on show copies vs work copies Montaigne's marginalia technique underlining resonant passages my rationale for underlining things how to bring unity to your reading the power of posing questions on etymological excavations my marginalia for Moby Dick what is the effect of this passage?

talk to yourself in the margins insights arise from frivolity the power of cross-pollination how I approach my rereading one of my most rewarding readings reading quotas & one-page prescription using marginalia to direct rereading how to make your rereading a habit scheduling reading & athletic activity rereading as spaced repetition technique rereading reflects personal change collecting resources for your hero's journey the pen and journal I use for my practice different journals for different purposes going through my journal for the sonnets be highly selective on what you focus on the logistics of my journalling practice riffing on key words & passages step one: alight upon resonance step two: write the quotation by hand step three: pose questions to yourself taking the scenic route through literature engaging with yourself through great books action steps & practical application you are what you repeatedly do a powerful mindset for creating habits designate your journalling as meaningful journalling as a self-care practice

Personification is when things or animals have some Human quality.

But watch out for conflict, it's always the problem That drives a story, play, or tale.

Exposition then rising action.

Falling action, then resolution.

Inference isn't just taking a stab Sensory details are what let a reader, Use touch, smell, and taste to connect.

Irony contrasts a thing you expect, With what actually happens that day.

Pathos is feelings and logos is logic, And ethos is when they trust you.
