Florence Nightingale, Lady with the Lamp, Nursing History, Crimean War, Healthcare Reform

Florence Nightingale, often known as 'The Lady with the Lamp,' was a British nurse, social reformer, statistician, and the founder of modern nursing. Her experiences as a nurse during the Crimean War were foundational in her views about sanitation. She established St Thomas' Hospital and the Nightingale Training School for Nurses, revolutionizing healthcare practices and advocating for improved sanitation in hospitals and other public health initiatives, leaving a lasting legacy on modern healthcare.

"People with goals succeed because they know where they're going."- Earl Nightingale

"We are all self-made, but only the successful will admit it."- Earl Nightingale

"Problems are challenges to creative minds. Without problems, there would be little reason to think at all."- Earl Nightingale

"Don't let the fear of the time it will take to accomplish something stand in the way of your doing it. The time will pass anyway; we might just as well put that passing time to the best possible use."- Earl Nightingale

"Everything begins with an idea."- Earl Nightingale

"We can let circumstances rule us, or we can take charge and rule our lives from within." - Earl Nightingale

"All you need is the plan, the road map, and the courage to press on to your destination."- Earl

Nightingale

"Learn to enjoy every minute of your life. Be happy now. Don't wait for something outside of yourself to make you happy in the future. Think how really precious is the time you have to spend, whether it's at work or with your family. Every minute should be enjoyed and savored."- Earl Nightingale

"A great attitude does much more than turn on the lights in our worlds; it seems to magically connect us to all sorts of serendipitous opportunities that were somehow absent before the change."- Earl Nightingale

"Wherever there is danger, there lurks opportunity; whenever there is opportunity, there lurks danger. The two are inseparable. They go together. You can measure opportunity with the same yardstick that measures the risk involved. They go together."- Earl Nightingale

"No man can get rich himself unless he enriches others."- Earl Nightingale
