War Crimes Justice Project

In the early 1990s, the former Yugoslavia was wracked by a series of wars.

The International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia was established in The Hague to deal with the prosecution of war crimes, crimes against humanity, and genocide.

Legal institutions in South-Eastern Europe have, in parallel, been conducting their own trials.

OSCE field operations and other international organizations have been working with the courts in the region to help them prepare for this task.
