#shark attack level 1 #minor shark bite #low severity shark incident #shark encounter safety tips #first aid for minor shark bites

A Level 1 shark attack signifies a minor or low-severity incident, often involving an investigative bite or brush rather than a sustained, aggressive assault. These mild shark encounters typically result in superficial wounds, if any, and do not pose an immediate life-threatening danger, making understanding low-severity shark incidents crucial for proper response and general water safety awareness.
