What thoughts and emotions do you have before going to the frontline?

How do you prepare mentally to go to the frontline?

What is the main process of arriving at the front?

What is the hygiene like? Do many people get sick?

Do you feel any empathy for Russian soldiers?

Anything you've gotten used to that you didn't think you would?

Is there any friendly fire in the trenches?

What is the rotation like?

Do you take any trophies? Like what?

What is life like after being exposed to so much war?

How do you stay motivated?

How often do you think about home?

Has the fighting gotten worse?

Are you ever glad to be at one part of the front and not others?

What is a typical day in the trenches like?

What do your best and worst days in the trenches look like?

What was your expectation vs the reality of trenches?

Do you ever compare your experience to WW1?

How scared were you at the start? And now?

Precautions against drones?

How are the nights?

What advice would you give to new recruits?

What are the living conditions like?

How often do the Russians attack?

How often do you receive artillery?

How often do you talk with family?

Any close calls with death?

What is being shelled like?

What is winter like in the trenches?
