A Companion to the Philosophy of Time

A Companion to the Philosophy of Time presents the broadest treatment of this subject yet; 32 specially commissioned articles - written by an international line-up of experts – provide an unparalleled reference work for students and specialists alike in this exciting field. The most comprehensive reference work on the philosophy of time currently available The first collection to tackle the historical development of the philosophy of time in addition to covering contemporary work Provides a tripartite approach in its organization, covering history of the philosophy of time, time as a feature of the physical world, and time as a feature of experience Includes contributions from both distinguished, well-established scholars and rising stars in the field

The Philosophy of Time

The question of the existence and the properties of time has been subject to debate for thousands of years. This considered and complete study offers a contrastive analysis of phenomenologies of time from the perspective of the problematics of the visibility of time. Is time perceptible only through the veil of change? Or is there a naked presence of 'time itself'? Or has time always effaced itself? McClure's new work also stages confrontations between phenomenology of time and analytical philosophy of time. By doing so he explores ancient issues from a fresh perspective, such as whether time passes, whether experimental time is 'real time', and whether the very concept of time is contradictory.

An Introduction to the Philosophy of Time

Time is central to our lived experience of the world. Yet, as this book reveals, it is startlingly difficult to reconcile the way we seem to experience time with many of the theories presented to us in physics and metaphysics. This comprehensive and accessible introduction guides the unfamiliar reader through difficult questions at the intersection of the metaphysics and physics of time. It starts with the assumption that physics and metaphysics are inextricably connected, and that each can, and should, shed light on the other. The authors explore a range of views about the nature of time, showing how different these are from the way we typically think about time and our place in it. They consider such questions as: whether time travel is possible, and, if it is, whether we can change the past; whether there is a single moment that is objectively present; whether time flows or is static; and whether, ultimately, time exists at all. An Introduction to the Philosophy of Time will appeal to students of physics and philosophy who want both a comprehensive overview of the area and enough depth to allow for rigorous discussion. The book's detailed readings and exercises will challenge students and provide a clear roadmap for further study.

The Future of the Philosophy of Time

The last century has seen enormous progress in our understanding of time. This volume features original essays by the foremost philosophers of time discussing the goals and methodology of the philosophy of time, and examining the best way to move forward with regard to the field's core issues. The collection is unique in combining cutting edge work on time with a focus on the big picture of time studies as a discipline. The major questions asked include: What are the implications of relativity and quantum physics on our understanding of time? Is the passage of time real, or just a subjective phenomenon? Are the past and future real, or is the present all that exists? If the future is real and unchanging (as contemporary physics seems to suggest), how is free will possible? Since only the present moment is perceived, how does the experience as we know it come about? How does experience take on its character of a continuous flow of moments or events? What explains the apparent one-way direction of time? Is time travel a logical/metaphysical possibility?

Philosophy of Time

As a growing area of research, the philosophy of time is increasingly relevant to different areas of philosophy and even other disciplines. This book describes and evaluates the most important debates in philosophy of time, under several subject areas: metaphysics, epistemology, physics, philosophy of language, philosophy of mind, cognitive science, rationality, and art. Questions this book investigates include the following. Can we know what time really is? Is time possible, especially given modern physics? Must there be time because we cannot think without it? What do we experience of time? How might philosophy of time be relevant to understanding the mind–body relationship or evidence in cognitive science? Can the philosophy of time help us understand biases toward the future and the fear of death? How is time relevant to art—and is art relevant to philosophical debates about time? Finally, what exactly could time travel be? And could time travel satisfy emotions such as nostalgia and regret? Through asking such questions, and showing how they might be best answered, the book demonstrates the importance philosophy of time has in contemporary thought. Each of the book's ten chapters begins with a helpful introduction and ends with study questions and an annotated list of further reading. This and a comprehensive bibliography at the end of the book prepare the reader to go further in their study of the philosophy of time.

The Philosophy of Time

An up-to-date and accessible selection of some of the most important writings on the philosophy of time, including work by David Lewis, Michael Dummett, and Anthony Quinton.

The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy of Time

This is the first comprehensive book on the philosophy of time. Leading philosophers discuss the metaphysics of time, our experience and representation of time, the role of time in ethics and action, and philosophical issues in the sciences of time, especially quantum mechanics and relativity theory.

Philosophy of Physics

Philosophical foundations of the physics of space-time This concise book introduces nonphysicists to the core philosophical issues surrounding the nature and structure of space and time, and is also an ideal resource for physicists interested in the conceptual foundations of space-time theory. Tim Maudlin's broad historical overview examines Aristotelian and Newtonian accounts of space and time, and traces how Galileo's conceptions of relativity and space-time led to Einstein's special and general theories of relativity. Maudlin explains special relativity with enough detail to solve concrete physical problems while presenting general relativity in more qualitative terms. Additional topics include the Twins Paradox, the physical aspects of the Lorentz-FitzGerald contraction, the constancy of the speed of light, time travel, the direction of time, and more. Introduces nonphysicists to the philosophical foundations of space-time theory Provides a broad historical overview, from Aristotle to Einstein Explains special relativity geometrically, emphasizing the intrinsic structure of space-time Covers the Twins Paradox, Galilean relativity, time travel, and more Requires only basic algebra and no formal knowledge of physics

The Time is Now. Essays on the Philosophy of Becoming

The time for what? The title of Mihaela Gligor's edited collection is wonderfully flexible, as anything having to do with time should be. There is something not only boundless about time, but also raw and untamed. In its pure form, time would be too much for us to handle. We would be crushed by the sheer immensity of it, or else we would lose our minds trying to make sense of such unmediated time. Luckily, for the most part we don't experience time in its pure form. Time comes to us already processed: shaped, engineered, tamed. The volume does fine justice to the notion that we experience time as already shaped by religion, politics, and culture. Whether its contributions cover religious or political figures, philosophers or poets, mystics or physicists, they show – sometimes explicitly, sometimes more discreetly – how difficult it is to deal with time in a pure, unmediated form. The contributors' cultural, religious, and intellectual rooting inform the way they think about time, just as about anything else. Which, far from being a weakness, is something to be recognized and celebrated. (Costic Brădian, Texas Tech University, U.S.A.)

Although scholarship in philosophy of action has grown in recent years, there has been little work explicitly dealing with the role of time in agency, a role with great significance for the study of action. As the articles in this collection demonstrate, virtually every fundamental issue in the philosophy of action involves considerations of time. The four sections of this volume address the metaphysics of action, diachronic practical rationality, the relation between deliberation and action, and the phenomenology of agency, providing an overview of the central developments in each area with an emphasis on the role of temporality. Including contributions by established, rising, and new voices in the field, Time and the Philosophy of Action brings analytic work in philosophy of action together with contributions from continental philosophy and cognitive science to elaborate the central thesis that agency not only develops in time but is shaped by it at every level.

Time and the Philosophy of Action

This book provides a comprehensive, up-to-date and accessible introduction to the philosophy of space and time. Ray considers in detail the central questions of space and time which arise from the ideas of Zeno, Newton, Mach, Leibniz and Einstein. Time, Space and Philosophy extends the debate in many areas: absolute simultaneity is examined as well as black holes, the big bang and even time travel. Time, Space and Philosophy will be invaluable to the student of philosophy and science and will be of considerable interest to mathematics students. The clear, non-technical approach should also make it suitable for the general reader.

Time, Space and Philosophy

Time is generally thought to be one of the more mysterious ingredients of the universe. In this intriguing book, Paul Horwich makes precise and explicit the interrelationships between time and a large number of philosophically important notions. Ideas of temporal order and priority interact in subtle and convoluted ways with the deepest elements in our network of basic concepts. Confronting this conceptual jigsaw puzzle, Horwich notes that there are glaring differences in how we regard the past and future directions of time. For example, we can influence the future but not the past, and can easily gain knowledge of the past but not of the future. Moreover we see a profusion of decay processes but little spontaneous generation of order; time appears to "flow" in one privileged direction, not the other; and we tend to explain phenomena in terms of antecedent circumstances, rather than subsequent ones. Horwich explains such time asymmetries and examines their bearing on the nature of time itself. Asymmetries in Time covers many notoriously difficult problems in the philosophy of science: causation, knowledge, entropy, explanation, time travel, rational choice (including Newcomb's problem), laws of nature, and counterfactual implication—and gives a unified treatment of these matters. The book covers an unusually broad range of topics in a lucid and nontechnical way and includes alternative points of view in the philosophical literature.

Asymmetries In Time

This book explores the important yet neglected relationship between the philosophy of time and the temporal structure of perceptual experience. It examines how time structures perceptual experience and, through that structuring, the ways in which time makes perceptual experience trustworthy or erroneous. Sean Power argues that our understanding of time can determine our understanding of perceptual experience in relation to perceptual structure and perceptual error. He examines the general conditions under which an experience may be sorted into different kinds of error such as illusions, hallucinations, and anosognosia. Power also argues that some theories of time are better than others at giving an account of the structure and errors of perceptual experience. He makes the case that tenseless theory and eternalism more closely correspond to experience than tense theory and presentism. Finally, the book includes a discussion of the perceptual experience of space and how tenseless theory and eternalism can better support the problematic theory of naïve realism. Philosophy of Time and Perceptual Experience originally illustrates how the metaphysics of time can be usefully applied to thinking about experience in general. It will appeal to those interested in the philosophy of time and debates about the trustworthiness of experience.

Philosophy of Time and Perceptual Experience

Why have theorists approached narrative primarily as a form of retrospect? Mark Currie argues that anticipation and other forms of projection into the future are vital for an understanding of narrative and its effects in the world.

About Time

In what sense does time exist? Is it an objective feature of the external world? Or is its real nature dependent on the way man experiences it? Has modern science brought us closer to the answer to St. Augustine's exasperated outcry, 'What, then, is time?' ? Ever since Aristotle, thinkers have been struggling with this most confounding and elusive of philosophical questions. How long does the present moment last? Can we make statements about the future that are clearly true or clearly false? And if so, must we be fatalists? This volume presents twenty-three discussions of the problem of time. A section on classical and modern attempts at definition is followed by four groups of essays drawn largely from contemporary philosophy, each preface with an introduction by the editor. First, in a chapter entitled 'The Static versus the Dynamic Temporal', four philosophers advance solutions to McTaggart's famous proof of time's unreality. In the next two sections, the discussion turns to the meaning of the 'open future' and to the much-debated nature of 'human time'. Finally, modern science and philosophy tackle Zeno's celebrated paradoxes. The essays by Adolf Grnbaum, Nicholas Rescher, and William Barrett are published for the first time in this volume.

The Philosophy of Time Society grew out of a National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Seminar on the Philosophy of Time offered by George Schlesinger in 1991. The members of that seminar wanted to promote interest in the philosophy of time and Jon N. Turgerson offered to become the first Director of the society with the initial costs underwritten by the Drake University Center for the Humanities. Thus, the Philosophy of Time Society (PTS) was formed in 1993. Its goal is to promote the study of the philosophy of time from a broad analytic perspective, and to provide a forum as an affiliated group with the American Philosophical Association, to discuss the issues in and related to the philosophy of time. The society held its first meeting during the Eastern Division of the AP A in Atlanta, George, in December 1993. In 1997 I began my tenure as Executive Director of PTS and with my term ending in 2000, I decided to put together a volume of selected papers read at PTS meetings over the years. The result is the present volume. It contains some of the latest developments in the field, including discussions of recent books by Michael Tooley, Time, Tense, and Causation, and D. H. Mellor, Real Time II, and much more. The main issue in the philosophy of time is and remains the status of temporal becoming and the passage of time.

The Importance of Time

This book provides an overall interpretation of Deleuze's philosophy alongside a critical introduction to one of the most important unifying ideas in his work: the construction of new and important philosophies of time.

Gilles Deleuze's Philosophy of Time

"Time and Philosophy" presents a detailed survey of continental thought through an historical account of its key texts. The common theme taken up in each text is how philosophical thought should respond to time. Looking at the development of continental philosophy in both Europe and America, the philosophers discussed range from Hegel, Marx, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Husserl, Heidegger, Arendt, Adorno and Horkheimer, Sartre, de Beauvoir, Foucault, Derrida, to the most influential thinkers of today, Agamben, Badiou, Butler and Ranciere. Throughout, the concern is to elucidate the primary texts for readers coming to them for the first time. But, beyond this, "Time and Philosophy" aims to reveal the philosophical rigour which underpins and connects the history of continental thought.

Time and the Science of the Soul in Early Modern Philosophy traces the complex and productive connections established between time and the soul from late Aristotelianism to the natural and political philosophy of Thomas Hobbes and René Descartes.

What is the nature of time? Does it flow? Do the past and future exist? Drawing connections between historical and present-day questions, A Critical Introduction to the Metaphysics of Time provides an up-to-date guide to one of the most central and debated topics in contemporary metaphysics. Introducing the views and arguments of Parmenides, Plato, Aristotle, Descartes, Newton and Leibniz, this accessible introduction covers the history of the philosophy of time from the Pre-Socratics to the beginning of the 20th Century. The historical survey presents the necessary background to understanding more recent developments, including McTaggart's 1908 argument for the unreality of time, the open future, the perdurance/endurance debate, the possibility of time travel, and the relevance of current physics to the philosophy of time. Informed by cutting-edge philosophical research, A Critical Introduction to the Metaphysics of Time evaluates influential historical arguments in the context of contemporary developments. For students looking to gain insights into how ideas within the philosophy of time have developed and better understand recent arguments, this is the ideal starting point.

A Critical Introduction to the Metaphysics of Time

This book is an edited collection of papers from international experts in philosophy and psychology concerned with time. The collection aims to bridge the gap between these disciplines by focussing on five key themes and providing philosophical and psychological perspectives on each theme. The first theme is the concept of time. The discussion ranges from the folk concept of time to the notion of time in logic, philosophy and psychology. The second theme concerns the notion of present in the philosophy of mind, metaphysics, and psychology. The third theme relates to continuity and flow of time in mind. One of the key questions in this section is how the apparent temporal continuity of conscious experience relates to the possibly discrete character of underlying neural processes. The fourth theme is the timing of experiences, with a focus on the perception of simultaneity and illusions of temporal order. Such effects are treated as test cases for hypotheses about the relationship between the subjective temporal order of experience and the objective order of neural events. The fifth and the final theme of the volume is time and intersubjectivity. This section examines the role of time in interpersonal coordination and in the development of social skills. The collection will appeal to both psychologists and philosophers, but also to researchers from other disciplines who seek an accessible overview of the research on time in psychology and philosophy.

The Philosophy of Time Travel

Genevieve Lloyd's book is a provocative and accessible essay on the fragmentation of the self as explored in philosophy and literature. The past is irrevocable, consciousness changes as time passes: given this, can there ever be such a thing as the unity of the self? Being in Time explores the emotional aspects of the human experience of time, commonly neglected in philosophical investigation, by looking at how narrative creates and treats the experience of the self as fragmented and the past as 'lost'. It shows the continuities, and the contrasts, between modern philosophic discussions of the instability of the knowing subject, treatments of the fragmentation of the self in the modern novel and older philosophical discussions of the unity of consciousness. Being in Time combines theoretical discussion with human experience: it will be valuable to anyone interested in the relationship between philosophy and literature, as well as to a more general audience of readers who share Augustine's experience of time as making him a 'problem to himself'.

Philosophy and Psychology of Time

This title provides a concise and accessible survey of the history of philosophical and scientific developments in understanding time and our experience of time. It discusses prominent ideas about the nature of time, plus many subsidiary puzzles about time, from the classical period through the present

Being in Time

The present book and its companion volume The Tenseless Theory of Time: a Critical Examination are an attempt to adjudicate what one recent discussant has called "the most fundamental question in the philosophy of time," namely, "whether a static or a dynamic conception of the world is correct." I had originally intended to treat this question in the space of a single volume; but the study swelled into two. I found that an adequate appraisal of these two of time requires a wide-ranging discussion of issues in competing theories metaphysics, philosophy of language, phenomenology, philosophy of science, philosophy of space and time, and even philosophy of religion, and that this simply could not be done in one volume. If these volumes succeed in making a contribution to the debate, it will be precisely because of the synoptic nature of the discussion therein. Too often the question of the nature of time has been prematurely answered by some philosopher or physicist simply because he is largely ignorant of relevant discussions outside his chosen field of expertise. In these two complementary but independent volumes I have attempted to appraise what I take to be the most important arguments drawn from a variety of fields for and against each theory of time.

A Brief History of the Philosophy of Time

This book is a systematic history of one of the oldest problems in the philosophy of space and time: How is the change from one state to its opposite to be described? To my knowledge it is the first comprehensive book providing information about and analysis of texts on this topic throughout the ages. The target audience I envisaged are advanced students and scholars of analytic philosophy and the history of philosophy who are interested in the philosophy of space and time. Authors treated in this book range from Plato, Aristotle, the logicians of the late Middle Ages, Kant, Brentano and Russell to contemporary authors such as Chisholm, Hamblin, Sorabji or Graham Priest, taking into account such theories as interval semantics or paraconsistent logic. For the first time, two main questions about the moment of change are explicitly kept apart: Which (if any) of the opposite states does the moment of change belong to? And does it contain an instantaneous event? The texts are discussed within a clear framework of the main systematic options for describing the moment of change, sometimes using predicate logic extended by newly introduced logical prefixes. The last part contains a new suggestion of how to solve the problem of the moment of change. It is centred around a theory of instantaneous states which provides a new solution to Zeno's Flying Arrow Paradox.

The Tensed Theory of Time

This book examines the many faces of philosophy of time, including the metaphysical aspects, natural science issues, and the consciousness of time. It brings together the different methodologies of investigating the philosophy of time. It does so to counter the growing fragmentation of the field with regard to discussions, and the existing cleavage between analytic and continental traditions in philosophy. The book's multidirectional approach to the notion of time contributes to a better understanding of time's metaphysical, physical and phenomenological aspects. It helps clarify the presuppositions underpinning the analytic and continental traditions in the philosophy of time and offers ways in which the differences between them can be bridged.

The Moment of Change

The Crisis of European Sciences and Transcendental Phenomenology, Husserl's last great work, is important both for its content and for the influence it has had on other philosophers. In this book, which remained unfinished at his death, Husserl attempts to forge a union between phenomenology and existentialism. Husserl provides not only a history of philosophy but a philosophy of history. As he says in Part I, "The genuine spiritual struggles of European humanity as such take the form of struggles between the philosophies, that is, between the skeptical philosophies--or nonphilosophies, which retain the word but not the task--and the actual and still vital philosophies. But the vitality of the latter consists in the fact that they are struggling for their true and genuine meaning and thus for the meaning of a genuine humanity."

The Crisis of European Sciences and Transcendental Phenomenology

This "stimulating contribution to literary theory" reveals the deeply philosophical concerns and developments behind popular time travel sci-fi (London Review of Books). In Time Travel, literary theorist David Wittenberg argues that time travel fiction is not mere escapism, but a narrative "laboratory" where theoretical questions about storytelling—and, by extension, about the philosophy of temporality, history, and subjectivity—are presented in story form. Drawing on physics, philosophy, narrative theory, psychoanalysis, and film theory, Wittenberg links innovations in time travel fiction to specific shifts in the popularization of science, from nineteenth-century evolutionary biology to twentieth-century quantum physics and more recent "multiverse" cosmologies. Wittenberg shows how popular awareness of new science led to surprising innovations in the literary "time machine," which evolved from a vehicle used for sociopolitical commentary into a psychological device capable of exploring the temporal structure and significance of subjects, viewpoints, and historical events. Time Travel draws on classic works of science fiction by H. G. Wells, Edward Bellamy, Robert Heinlein, Samuel Delany, and Harlan Ellison, television shows such as "The Twilight Zone" and "Star Trek," and other popular entertainments. These are read alongside theoretical work ranging from Einstein, Schrödinger, Stephen Hawking to Gérard Genette, David Lewis, and Gilles Deleuze. Wittenberg argues that even the most mainstream audiences of popular time travel fiction and cinema are vigorously engaged with many of the same questions about temporality, identity, and history that concern literary theorists, media and film scholars, and philosophers.

Time Travel

Time: A Philosophical Introduction presents the philosophy of time as the central debate between being and the becoming. This core theme brings together the key topics, debates and thinkers, making ideas such as Zeno's paradoxes, the experience of change and temporal flow and the direction and shape of time and time travel, clear and understandable. Alongside a glossary and detailed timeline to further enhance study and understanding, each chapter features: • Extensive lists of further reading in both primary and secondary sources • A chronological listing of key figures, brief biographical data and references • True/false questions, matching, multiple choice, and short answer questions Time is a central philosophical subject, impacting on all many different aspects of philosophy. More technical discussions of issues from mathematics, logic and physics are separated into Technical Interludes, allowing readers to choose their level of difficulty. As a result this comprehensive introduction is essential reading for upper-level undergraduates studying the philosophy of time, metaphysics or the philosophy of science.

The Growth of Jesus

Clement of Alexandria

Matthew and Luke

Annunciation

The Virgin Birth

Imprisonment of John

The Gospel of John the Baptist

Members of the Sanhedrin Watched His Activity with Suspicion like Herod with John They Saw in It the Semblance or Cover of a Political Revolution They Feared lest the Roman Procurator Should Accuse Them of Neglecting Their Responsibility for Maintaining Social Order They Were a Bit Frightened by Christ's Promise To Destroy the Temple and Not Quite Sure that It Was Only a Metaphor for His Part Christ Announced Them in Sharp and Bitter Terms the Scribes and Pharisees Put Heavy Loads of the Law upon Men's Shoulders but They Will Not Lift a Finger To Move Them They Do Everything They Do To Have Men See It They Wear Wide Scripture Texts as Charms

You Clean the Outside of the Cup and the Dish but inside They Are Full of Greed and Self-Indulgence You Hypocritical Scribes in Paris Are like Whitewashed Tombs Outwardly You Appear to Men To Be Upright but within You Are Full of Hypocrisy and Wickedness You Are Descended from the Murderers of the Prophets Go On and Fill Up the Measure of Your Forefathers Guilt Use Serpents You Brood of Snakes How Can You Escape Being Sentenced to the Pit

Many Who Like Numberless Christians a Few Centuries Later Substituted Outward Piety for Inward Grace but There Were Also Many Pharisees Who Agreed that the Law Should Be Softened and Humanized Very Likely a Large Number of the Sect Were Sincere Men Reasonably Decent and Honorable Who Felt that the Ceremonial Laws Neglected by Jesus Should Be Judged Not in Themselves but as Part of a Code That Served To Hold the Jews Together in Pride and Decency amid a Hostile World some of the Pharisees Sympathized with Jesus and Came To Warn Him that Plots Were Being Made To Kill Him Nicodemus

Very Likely a Large Number of the Sect Were Sincere Men Reasonably Decent and Honorable Who Felt that the Ceremonial Laws Neglected by Jesus Should Be Judged Not in Themselves but as Part of a Code That Served To Hold the Jews Together in Pride and Decency amid a Hostile World some of the Pharisees Sympathized with Jesus and Came To Warn Him that Plots Were Being Made To Kill Him Nicodemus One of the Defenders of Jesus Was a Rich Pharisee the Final Break Came from Jesus's Growing Conviction and Clear Announcement that He Was the Messiah at First His Followers Had Looked upon Him as the Successor to John the Baptist Gradually They Came To Believe that He Was the Long-Awaited Redeemer Who Would Raise His Real out of Roman Bondage They Came To Believe that He Was the Long-Awaited Redeemer Who Would Raise His Real out of Roman Bondage and Established the Reign of God on Earth Lord They Asked Him Will You at this Time Restore the Kingdom to Israel He Put Them Off by Saying It Is Not for You To Know the Times and Seasons Which the Father Has Set and He Gave an Equally Vague Answer to Emissaries of the Baptist Who Asked Him Art Thou He That Was To Come To Turn His Followers from Their Conception of Him as a Political Messiah He Repudiated all Claim to Davidic Dissent Gradually However the Intense Expectations of His Followers

The Fourth Gospel Reports that the Crowd Hailed Him as King of Israel Apparently His Followers Still Thought of Him as a Political Messiah Who Would Overthrow the Roman Power and Make Judea Supreme It Was these Acclamations That Doomed Christ to a Revolutionists Death Five Death and transfiguration the Feast of the Passover Was at Hand and Great Numbers of Jews for Gathering in Jerusalem To Offer Sacrifice in the Temple the Outer Court of the Shrine Was Noisy with Vendors Selling Doves and Other Sacrificial Animals and with Money Changers Offering Locally Acceptable Currency for the Idolatrous Coins of the Roman Realm Visiting the Temple on the Day after His Entry into the City Jesus Was Shocked by the Clamor and Commercialism of the Booths

On the 14th Day of the Jewish Month of Nisan Our April 3rd Probably in the Year 30 Jesus and His Apostles Ate the Seder or Passover Supper in the Home of a Friend in Jerusalem They Looked to the Master To Free Himself by His Miraculous Powers He on the Contrary Accepted His Fate and Perhaps Hoped that His Death Would Be Received by God as a Sacrificial Atonement for the Sins of His People He Had Been Informed that One of the Twelve Was Conspiring To Betray Him and at this Last Supper He Openly Accused Judas Iscariot in Accord with Jewish Ritual Jesus Blessed in Greek Eucharistic

He on the Contrary Accepted His Fate and Perhaps Hoped that His Death Would Be Received by God as a Sacrificial Atonement for the Sins of His People He Had Been Informed that One of the Twelve Was Conspiring To Betray Him and at this Last Supper He Openly Accused Judas Iscariot in Accord with Jewish Ritual Jesus Blessed in Greek Eucharistic I the Wine That He Gave the Apostles To Drink and Then They Sang Together the Jewish Ritual Song Halo He Told Them Says John that He Would Be with Them Only a Little Longer I Give You a New Command Love One another Let Not Your Hearts Be Troubled

He Told Them Says John that He Would Be with Them Only a Little Longer I Give You a New Command Love One another Let Not Your Hearts Be Troubled Believe in God and Believe in Me in My Father's House Are Many Mansions I Go To Prepare a Place for You It Seems Quite Credible that in So Solemn a Moment He Should Ask Them To Repeat this Supper Periodically as Jewish Custom Required in Commemoration of Him and Not Improbable that with Oriental Intensity of Feeling and Imagery He Asked Them To Think of the Bread They Ate as His Body and of the Wine They Drank as His Blood that Mac We Are Told the Little Band Hid in the Garden of Gethsemane

It Seems Quite Credible that in So Solemn a Moment He Should Ask Them To Repeat this Supper Periodically as Jewish Custom Required in Commemoration of Him and Not Improbable that with Oriental Intensity of Feeling and Imagery He Asked Them To Think of the Bread They Ate as His Body and of the Wine They Drank as His Blood that Mac We Are Told the Little Band Hid in the Garden of Gethsemane outside Jerusalem There a Detachment of Temple Police Found Them and Arrested Jesus He Was Taken First to the House of Anna's a Former High Priest Then to that of Caiaphas According To Mark the Council Probably a Committee of the Sanhedrin Had Already Gathered Their Various Witnesses Testified against Him Especially Recalling His Threat To Destroy the Temple When Caiaphas Asked whether He Was the Messiah the Son of God Jesus Is Reported To Have Answered I Am He in the Morning the Sanhedrin Met Found Him Guilty of Blasphemy

Pilate Was a Hard Man Who Would Later Be Summoned to Rome Accused of Extortion and Cruelty and Removed from Authors Nevertheless It Did Not Seem to Him that this Mild-Mannered Preacher Was a Real Danger to the State Are You the King of the Jews He Asked Jesus Says Matthew Answered Ambiguously You Have Said It Such Details Reported Presumably from Hearsay and Long after the Event Must Be Held Suspect if We Accept the Texts We Must Conclude that Jesus Had Resolved To Die and that Paul's Theory of Atonement Had some Support in Christ John Quotes Jesus Is Adding for this I Was Born To Give Testimony for the Truth

In any Case after Christ's Confession the Law Required Conviction and Pilate Reluctantly Issued the Sentence of Death Crucifixion Was a Roman Not a Jewish Form of Punishment It Was Usually Preceded by Scourging Which Carried Out Thoroughly Left the Body a Mass of Swollen

All Who Cared To Witness the Horrible Spectacle Were Free To Do So the Romans Who Thought It Necessary To Rule by Terror Chose for Capital Offenses by Other than Roman Citizens What Cicero Called the Most Cruel and Hideous of Tortures the Offender's Hands and Feet Were Bound Seldom Nailed to the Wood a Projecting Block Supported the Backbone of the Feet unless Mercifully Killed the Victim Would Linger There for Two or Three Days Suffering the Agony of Immobility Unable To Brush Away the Insects That Fed upon His Naked Flesh and Slowly Losing Strength until the Heart Failed and Brought an End Even the Romans Sometimes Pitied the Victim and Offered Him a Stupefying Drink the Cross We Are Told Was Raised at the Third Hour That Is at 9 : 00 in the Morning Mark Reports the Two Robbers Were Crucified with Jesus and Reviled Him Luke Assures Us that One of Them Prayed to Him of All the Apostles

The Cross We Are Told Was Raised at the Third Hour That Is at 9 : 00 in the Morning Mark Reports the Two Robbers Were Crucified with Jesus and Reviled Him Luke Assures Us that One of Them Prayed to Him of All the Apostles Only John Was Present with Him Were Three Mary's Christ's Mother Her Sister Mary and Mary Magdalene There Were Also some Women Watching from a Distance Following the Roman Custom the Soldiers Divided the Garments of the Dying Men and as Christ Had but One They Cast Lots for It Possibly We Have Here an Interpolated Remembrance of Psalm 22 Verse 18 They Part My Garments among Them and Cast Lots upon My Vesture the Same Psalm Begins with the Words My God My God Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me

They Part My Garments among Them and Cast Lots upon My Vesture the Same Psalm Begins with the Words My God My God Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me and this Is the Desperately Human Utterance That Mark and Matthew Attribute to the Dying Christ Can It Be that in those Bitter Moments the Great Faith That Had Sustained Him before Pilate Faded into Blacked Out Luke Perhaps Finding Such Words Repugnant to the Theology of Paul Substitutes for Them Father into Thy Hands I Commend My Spirit

Can It Be that in those Bitter Moments the Great Faith That Had Sustained Him before Pilate Faded into Blacked Out Luke Perhaps Finding Such Words Repugnant to the Theology of Paul Substitutes for Them Father into Thy Hands I Commend My Spirit Which in Turn Echoes Psalm 31 Verse 5 with Suspicious Accuracy a Soldier Fitting Christ's Thirst Held Up to His Mouth a Sponge Soaked in Sour Wine Jesus Drank and Said It Is Consummated at the Ninth Hour at 3 : 00 in the Afternoon He Cried Out with a Loud Voice and Gave Up the Ghost Luke Adds Again Revealing the Sympathy of the Jewish Populace That All the People That Came Together to that Site Smote Their Breasts and Returned to the Town

He Cried Out with a Loud Voice and Gave Up the Ghost Luke Adds Again Revealing the Sympathy of the Jewish Populace That All the People That Came Together to that Site Smote Their Breasts and Returned to the Town To Kindly and Influential Jews Having Secured Pilot's Permission Took the Body Down from the Cross and Bombed It with Aloes and Myrrh and Placed It in a Tomb Was He Really Dead the Two Robbers beside Him Were Still Alive Their Legs Were Broken by the Soldiers so that the Weight of the Body Would Hang upon the Hands Constricting the Circulation and Soon Stopping the Heart

The Two Robbers beside Him Were Still Alive Their Legs Were Broken by the Soldiers so that the Weight of the Body Would Hang upon the Hands Constricting the Circulation and Soon Stopping the Heart this Was Not Done in Jesus's Case that We Are Told that a Soldier Pierced His Breast with a Lance Drawing Forth First Blood and Then Limp Pilate Expressed Surprise that the Man Should Die after Six Hours of Crucifixion He Gave His Consent to Christ's Removal from the Cross Only When the Centurion in Charge Assured Him of Christ's

This Was Not Done in Jesus's Case that We Are Told that a Soldier Pierced His Breast with a Lance Drawing Forth First Blood and Then Limp Pilate Expressed Surprise that the Man Should Die after Six Hours of Crucifixion He Gave His Consent to Christ's Removal from the Cross Only When the Centurion in Charge Assured Him of Christ's Death Two Days Later Mary Magdalene Whose Love of Jesus Partook of that Nervous Intensity Which Characterized All Her Feelings Visited the Tomb with Mary the Mother of James and Salome li They Found It Empty Frightened and Yet Overjoyed They Ran To Tell the News to the Disciples on the Way They Met One Whom They Thought To Be Jesus They Bowed Down before Him and Clapsed His Feet

They Ran To Tell the News to the Disciples on the Way They Met One Whom They Thought To Be Jesus They Bowed Down before Him and Clapsed His Feet We Can Imagine the Hopeful Incredulity with Which Their Report Was Greeted the Thought that Jesus Had Triumphed over Death and It Thereby Proved Himself Messiah and Son of God Filled the Galileans with Such Excitement that They Were Ready for any Miracle and any Revelation that Same Day We Are Told Christ Appeared to Two Disciples on the Road To Emmaus Talked with Them and Ate with Them for a Long Time They Were Prevented from Recognizing Him but When He Took the Bread and Blessed It Their Eyes Were Opened and They Knew Him and He Vanished from Them the Disciples Went Back to Galilee and Soon Thereafter Saw Him and Bowed Down before Him the some Were in Doubt

But When He Took the Bread and Blessed It Their Eyes Were Opened and They Knew Him and He Vanished from Them the Disciples Went Back to Galilee and Soon Thereafter Saw Him and Bowed Down before Him the some Were in Doubt while They Were Fishing They Saw Christ Join Them They Cast Their Nets and Drew in a Great Hall Forty Days after His Appearance to Mary Magdalene as the Beginning of the Book of Acts Christ Descended Physically into Heaven the Idea of a Saint Being So Translated into the Sky in Body and Life Was Familiar to the Jews They Told It of Moses Enoch Elijah and Isaiah the Master Went As Mystically as He Had Come but Most of the Disciples Seem To Have Been Sincerely Convinced that He Had after His Crucifixion
