The Word Search Book: EUROPE

Modern Europe consists of 50 states, whose borders and capitals have been changed many times. In all of the Old World, the Roman, Thracian, Byzantine, Ottoman, Russian, Spanish, German and Austro-Hungarian empires argued for dominance. The current states in their composition changed their citizenship, religion, forms of government, and the peoples migrated. Part of this historic path was preserved in the external appearance of European cities. One of the most valuable things that we can and should give our children is love, care and of course knowledge! This book is designed to ensure that your children learn the geography of European countries in a playful form. If your child begins to learn with great interest the world around him, the names and location of countries, their capitals and flags, then this book is what you need. The book consists of three parts. In the first part, you will find riddles encoded in the letters of the names of European countries. First, one needs to guess these countries from their flag and only then to find the correct name in letters. To make it more interesting for children, one will have to guess the country according to their location on a map, by the name of the capital and even by their contour! The second part is a teaching one. You will find basic information about each country of Europe in it and learn about transcontinental and unrecognized countries of Europe. After studying the second part, your child should easily cope with all the tasks and what is the most important, master the knowledge! The third part of the book contains the correct answers. If nevertheless there will be some difficulties with the search for the proper names of the countries, one can find the correct solutions. If you do not use hints, then this book is suitable for any adult as well, to check your knowledge of the geography of European countries and just have a good time. So this book is created for the whole family. This is an excellent and useful gift! So, are you ready to check how well you know Europe? Do you want to give a child positive emotions, fascinating occupation and knowledge? If your answer is yes, feel free to buy this book. Good luck to you!

Vocabulary represents one of the essential skills necessary for teaching and learning a foreign language. It is the basis for developing all the other skills: reading comprehension, listening comprehension, speaking, writing, spelling, and pronunciation. Vocabulary is the primary tool for the students in their attempt to use English effectively. When confronted with a native English speaker, when watching a movie without subtitles or when listening to a favorite English song, when reading a text, or when writing a letter to a friend, students will always need to operate with words. This book is a great educational learning tool for your kids to play games and learn new essential words simultaneously. You can see your child's reading improvement!

Photocopiable Games For Teaching German

Games are a great way to engage pupils so they have fun whilst they are learning in a meaningful context. To differentiate the learning activities for classes of different abilities, the games have been colour coded according to the amount of German words that appear in the games. "Grün" is for the lower ability group, "gelb" is for the middle ability group, and "rot" is for the higher ability group. At the front of the book you will find a detailed plan of which German words each ability group has for each topic. The 8 great topics in this fantastic book include clothes, drinks, numbers, pet animals, fruit, food, sport and weather. The differentiated games in this book include: Snakes and ladders, dominoes, board game style games, coordinates and 3 or 4 in a row. The games are ideal for pupils aged 7 - 14 and have been created by a qualified teacher, with 20 years experience in teaching languages to children. For each game there is a useful German vocabulary list, many with pictures, for all the words the pupils need for that game. Each topic also has a set of mini cards. There are so many different language games that can be played using mini cards, for example the pairs card game, guess the word etc, so at the back of the book there are 16 ideas of activities to do with the mini cards. The pair work activity instructions can either be given as an instructions page for the children to choose their own game, or you can choose the games the children will play. For the games using the mini cards you can decide if you want the whole class to have all the cards, or if you continue to ask groups to focus on the words outlined in the detailed vocabulary plan for their group. The games can be played to learn or revise German vocabulary for the 8 topics, or the pupils can practise making German sentences or questions as they play the games. For each topic there are ideas for making sentences or questions using the words in that topic, and you can choose what you want the pupils to practise as they play the games. Once photocopied the games are an excellent classroom resource that can be used time and time again. The mini cards look good photocopied onto card, and to make the different sets easy to separate you could use 3 or 4 different colours when photocopying. The other games look lovely photocopied onto either A4 or A3. Games are ideal for repetition, reinforcement, encourage a positive approach to learning a foreign language and also encourage the development of good social and communication skills. Let's make learning German fun!
