

Coercion Why We Listen To What Quot They Quot Say

#coercion #social influence #obedience psychology #conformity #authority figures

This article delves into the profound question of why individuals often listen to and comply with external pressures, exploring the psychological mechanisms behind our susceptibility to what 'they' say. It examines the various forms of coercion, from subtle social influence to overt demands, that shape human behavior and decision-making. Understand the forces driving obedience and conformity, and their pervasive impact on our lives.
