Always define your term before you provide an example that relates back to the prompt.

Remember to apply the term. Defining the term alone is not enough.

Some teachers have told their students to underline the term in their responses.

One way to remember the last time is UDA.

Use synonyms when elaborating on your definition

Review your definitions every day in the two weeks leading up to the exam.

Include topic sentences when you're explaining.

When providing supporting examples or studies, clearly state the purpose of you doing so.

Write in complete sentences.

Outline your responses before you begin writing by using your question sheet.

Be concise and direct.

Don't make diagrams or lists; you only get points for

Use the appropriate psychological terms when

Remember you can't lose points for incorrect answers unless they contradict part of a correct

Answer what you know first.
