

Triangulating Peace Democracy Interdependence And International Organizations The Norton Series In World Politics

#peace #democracy #international organizations #interdependence #world politics

This comprehensive volume, part of The Norton Series in World Politics, meticulously examines the intricate connections between peace, democracy, global interdependence, and the vital role of international organizations. It offers a critical analysis of how these elements 'triangulate' to shape contemporary international relations and the pursuit of a more stable global order, providing essential insights for scholars and practitioners alike.

Our goal is to make academic planning more transparent and accessible to all.
