Matters of Dispute between Christians

Discipline and Doctrine of a Local Church Is Held in Trust under God by the Congregation

The Portrayal Then of the Responsibility of the Congregation in the New Testament Is Quite an Incomplete Picture I Admit that We Get It in Snatches and Asides and Assumptions I Think It Is Clearly Present and I Think the More You Think about It the More You Start To See It There It Seems To Be Assumed and I Think the Fact that It Is Presented in the Partial Ways That It Is Leaves Us with Quite a Bit of Freedom of Christian Prudence How We'Re Going To Recognize this in Our Churches Church I Think in Which the Congregation though Only Holds Title to the Property

That We Have Freedom To Exercise that Christian Prudence According to the General Rules of the Word I Think What We See in the New Testament Is that the Congregation Has Responsibilities and Much of How We Work that Out and Our Local Context Is Left to Us and I Think It Matters I Don't Think It's Just a Throwaway Point because if the Responsibility of the Congregation Is Simply the Reality of Our Lives Together as Christians and Churches the Challenge for Us Is Not To Create It but To Recognize It in Order that Our Churches Live Appropriately

I Think It Matters I Don't Think It's Just a Throwaway Point because if the Responsibility of the Congregation Is Simply the Reality of Our Lives Together as Christians and Churches the Challenge for Us Is Not To Create It but To Recognize It in Order that Our Churches Live Appropriately So To Go Back to Our Presbyterian Friends Again They Can They Can Think that the the General Assembly

Overrides the Local Church all They Want and Yet When a New Presbyterian Church Is Started in the Early 1970s in Response to the Liberal Unbelief of the Larger Body of Presbyterians in America What Do They Do but They Make Sure that the Law the Local Congregation Legally Owns the Property There's Much More I Could Say about this I Would Just Say the Verdict of History I Think Is in It's Clear that There Is no Certain Polity That's Going To Prevent Churches from Error from Declension but the More Centralized Polities Seem To Have a Worse Track Record than Congregationalism in Maintaining of Faithful Vital Evangelical Witness Now I Think if You Include with Congregationalism the Purity and Visibility of the Church That's Protected through Believers Baptism Then I Think You Get an Even Better Record I Mean You Just Think of the Papacy It's Wrought Havoc on Self-Confessed Christians Bishops Have Hardly Done any Better Even Assemblies and Conferences and Presbyteries and Synod's and Sessions When They Have Moved
