#Fort Eben Emael #WWII Belgian fort #Battle of Fort Eben Emael #military history Belgium #German airborne invasion

Fort Eben Emael is a renowned Belgian fortress, strategically located near Maastricht, famous for the audacious German airborne assault launched at the beginning of World War II. This pivotal battle, often considered a blueprint for future paratrooper operations, saw highly specialized German units neutralize the formidable concrete defenses in a daring surprise attack, making it a significant site in military history.
