No matter how good a parent you have been, your children can still be impacted by the dark side of today's culture.

Jesus instructed His disciples to “pray that you may not enter into temptation” (Luke 22:40). We must instruct our adult children in the same way.

Because Joseph was godly and faithful, God worked in all the evil that came against him.

If your adult child is enduring an undeserved punishment or hardship of some kind because of the evil or sin of others, pray that he will not turn against the Lord...

Ask God to send strength from heaven to help your adult child get through what she is facing.

Genesis 4:6...God gave Cain a choice. He could choose to do the right thing and rule over sin, and therefore please God. Or he could choose not to do the right thing and allow his own jealousy, anger, and revenge to rule over him.

We can't give up on our adult children either, no matter what they have done.

Pray that your adult child's heart will be filled with wisdom and knowledge.

God can deliver us and He promises to continue to deliver us and that includes your adult children.

Do not allow the enemy to make you feel that you are disqualified from the powerful intercession for your adult children because of mistakes you may have made in the past.

You have the authority to call upon the Deliverer on behalf of your adult children, so that they can find the deliverance they need.

Trust your instincts when it comes to your adult children.

Pray with me about this.

Your days of serious parents are just beginning.

First of all, you need to know that it never ends. The part no one tells you about being a parent is that parenting never stops.

Your heart and mind will always be with each one of your children for the rest of your life. When we observe life happening to our adult children in a challenging way, we want to help them. Parents are finding it so hard to know where to draw the line between letting an adult child learn a hard lesson and helping them to get on their feet.

We all must ask God to show us what to do and what not to do for our adult children. The third thing you need to know is you must stop blaming yourself. Guilt is a killer. We parents beat ourselves up with guilt, every time something concerning happens to one of our children because we see how we could have done things differently. In order to be effective in praying for your adult child, you must stop blaming yourself or everything that goes wrong.

Would you pray with me about this?

In my book, The Power of Praying for Your Adult Children—I give you 15 ways to pray for your adult children and you will need them all.
