What he's working on that energizes and excites him

The biggest challenges he sees for business leaders today

When he knew that helping and coaching entrepreneurs grow their business would be the focus of his work

Why the experience of self-development captivated him so much

How he turned his excitement for coaching into his work of helping businesses grow

Carl explains why a business never gets off the ground and stays arrested in the Strategic Planning stage (stage 1 of his book)

Carl explains stage 2 of his book, the Specialty stage (when a job is born)

Carl explains why he calls stage 3 the Synergy stage, and what the leadership requirements are as businesses evolve to this stage

Why so many businesses fail to transition to stage 4, the Systems stage, and what must occur from stage 3 to stage 4 to build systems that enable the business

The distinctions between stage 5 and 6, the Sustainability and Sellability stage and the transitions and significance of evolving to these stages

What entrepreneurs must learn to be prepared for Stage 7, the Succession stage

How he helps leaders facilitate the alchemy that helps them realize their full potential

How did Tony Robbins and Ichak Adizes influenced Carl

Where he thinks he'll be in 10 years

Carl shares his parting wisdom
