in this vision the sun went through the child's mouth

only the God Apollo managed to make the boy fall in love with him.

that Apollo himself had given him, accidentally ended up killing his faithful deer.

According to one of the stories, Hyacinth was killed by the god of the wind called Zephyr

He made a flower called Jacinto sprout from his blood which became a symbol of mourning due to the tears that Apollo dropped on the petals.

since he cleaned the entire island and won his place among the stars of the sky such as the famous constellation of Serpentarius.

He became well known as a hero after performing twelve tasks

Although there are not many records of his relationship with Heracles and from that moment, Hylas disappeared without leaving a trace as the most beautiful man in the entire Greek countryside.

In the Trojan War, he played an important role, as he was the Achaeans leader.
