Some people are afraid to speak in their, target language. It needn't happen. We can ...

Why are most language learners afraid to speak?

We need to be prepared to speak.

If you want to speak confidently, you need the words.

A speaking opportunity is a chance to see where the gaps are in your knowledge of your target language.

Do people who are afraid of speaking in their target language lack patience?

Intro

I started with my listening skills.

I started following people on social media who post in English

I joined a community of non-native speakers on Facebook

I wrote down everything that I wanted to learn in notebooks.

I signed up for an accent makeover course.

I had some lessons on Cambly every once in awhile

I took part in different online speaking clubs to practice my speaking

I spoke and still speak in English with my husband and son

I started my YouTube channel in English.

I started posting on my Instagram in English

I took some courses in English but not English courses

I had pronunciation and accent lessons with a private accent coach.

I started teaching I'm an American accent coach.
