"Leadership and learning are indispensable to each other.." J.F Kennedy in his undelivered remarks. If we let ourselves, we shall always be waiting for some distraction or other to end before we can really get down to our work. The only people who achieve much are those who want knowledge so badly that they seek it while the conditions are still unfavourable. Favourable conditions never come. This book presents a new learning style evident with today's students and addresses accounting industry changes as well. This textbook is not written as a reference text, rather it is written in another form where knowledge can be bridged and tested through questions and answers in a multiple choice format. To gain most from the text, we would advise you to read topics relevant to the multiple choices so as to be able to attempt the questions raised. The answers to the questions are provided towards the back pages of the text. The book will not in small measure assists students in preparation for their regular academic and professional exams. Accounting has evolved over the years especially in the areas of standard setting and global inventions and innovations. The book basically covers advanced topics in financial accounting and & Reporting. It will help broaden the base of Finance Managers, accounting students, accountants, corporate gurus and managers of businesses. Don't forget that: The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go.

1. Some important properties of soil that a CE student should be familiar with are as follows: unit weight of soil, void ratio, porosity, moisture content and degree of saturation 2. To gather data on project site, CE should conduct soil investigation via taking soil samples wherein in-situ weight and volume should be determined. Soil sample must undergo series of soil test to determine its specific gravity and moisture content. If in-situ weight, in-situ volume, moisture content and specific gravity of solid is known already, all other properties discussed in this lecture can now be computed using formula
A Large soil sample obtained from borrow pit has a wet mass of 26.50 kg. The in-place volume occupied by the sample is 0.013 m³. A small portion of the sample is used to determine the water content, the wet mass is 135g and after drying in the oven, the mass is 117.9g. Determine the soil moisture content b Determine the soil wet density for the conditions

An in place density determination is made for the sand in a borrow pit using a balloon type apparatus. The dump sample dug from a test hole is found to weigh 37.9N. The volume of the test hole is 0.00184 m. a Compute the wet unit weight in kN/m b This soil is to have a water content of 15%.

The in- place density is determined for a soil at a proposed construction site to plan the foundation. The in-place density test is performed using rubber balloon equipment with the following result

Sample Problem 3- Solution Compute the degree of saturation of soil sample considering the computation data on previous questions
