My purpose in writing this book is more than just sharing my journey and call to be a prophet, trained by the Holy Spirit to operate in this gift. It is even more than sharing with others God may want to accelerate into the gift's operation. My strongest desire is to de-mystify the functioning of the prophetic gift and calling. My journey has been without mentorship and the preparation long. I believe others should have these lessons imparted to them, so they may be nurtured and brought into their fullness of their calling for the sake of the body of Christ, coming into full maturity and the stature of Christ (Ephesians 4:13). It is my hope that this book will assist those who desire the gift of prophecy, and those who are certain God has called them as prophets. It is my firm conviction that the church cannot mature and experience the full measure of Christ until we release all five ministry gifts into the body. This work is dedicated to the prophets, called of God to train and equip the children of God's kingdom to function in the realms of revelation. We must learn how to decipher and understand revelation, discern God's intent and will, and train our senses.

Psychic to Prophet

Is it possible to go from psychic to prophet? My journey answered that question by highlighting my transformative process into my intended destiny. This process was long and arduous, however; the common thread we can walk away with, is learning to trust the process and more importantly, learning to trust the One orchestrating the process. It's all about Jesus. When it's all said and done, the ancient words penned by Luke in Acts 17 rings true - in Him, we move, live and have our being. My prayer for you dear reader, is that, as you glimpse into the prophetic process in my life, that you undeniably see the hand and heart of God. He is a precise craftsman motivated by love because that's who He is - Love. Journey with Michelle as she recounts her incredible transformation from high-level psychic to a clarion voice from the Lord. Follow this epic journey where a gifted child is abused and led astray into a world of deep darkness and rejoice when the Savior of the world relentlessly pursues and redeems her into the Kingdom of God.

The Prophet's Journey

There was a battle for my soul that warm October day in 1939. It was a spiritual battle for my destiny, good versus evil. The weather that twenty-first day was unusually warm, and by the time of my birth at 5 p.m., the thunderstorms were strong, with lightning shooting across the heavens. Another unusual detail of my birth was I was born with a "veil" over my head. I would later find my superstitious family believed this to be significant. If I had been born in a hospital, no one would probably have known of the veil. But my father's family took great joy in this fact, and though they went to church, they kept their superstitions as well. To them it meant I would be a fortuneteller or a psychic. However there were conditions to fulfill before that superstition could manifest. For me to receive this "gift," the veil must be buried in the ground. If it were burned instead, the gift would never come to pass. This veil is sometimes referred to as a caul or hood that is the thin remnant of the amniotic sac. In medieval times, it was considered to be good luck, and in the psychic community began to be called a veil. It was believed by the psychics that a person born with this veil would have good luck and an unusual destiny. I say, only God's people have a strange and peculiar destiny. I became His prophet.

A Prophet's Journey

Your Prophetic Journey is about receiving a word from God and then going through the process to be made into the person that the Word of God has called you to be. This is so you can fulfill your God-ordained purpose in life.

A Prophetic Journey

From birth to beyond this tells the journey of one called to be a prophet of the Lord. Told from the standpoint of where the prophet is now looking back on how the Lord touched and directed every aspect of this prophet's life and how He continues to touch and direct this prophet's future. It is the story of one called by God to walk with Him, to grow with Him, to be with Him. A living billboard to be seen by all those that are on this same journey with the Lord. A living signpost to help those that come this way also. A life lived out loud for all to see. A life laid bare before all to help others to understand and realize that we never walk alone through this journey. That we have a great cloud of witnesses surrounding us, that we have the Lord with us, that we have brothers and sisters that have gone before us, that are to the side of us and that are coming up behind us. A journey of a lifetime.

Journey of a Prophet

The Malay version of The Prophet Muhammad's Nocturnal Journey to Heaven and Hell has never been published in Malay or in English Translation. The book wants to enhance interest in this important text in the global Islamic literary tradition.

The Journey of the Prophet

Shaykh Muhammad 'Alawi al-Maliki delivers an absorbing account of the Isra' wal-Mi'raj that brings the reader almost into the story. Indeed it is a detailed narrative spiced with a simple commentary that attempts to reconcile various accounts or reports of the event that transpired. This provides a comprehensive reading that takes the reader on an experiential ride to feel the magic of Rasulullah's journey. In short, it is very inspiring; exhilarating to the spiritual core. Praise be to Allah Who chose His praiseworthy servant Muhammad (saw) for the Message, distinguished him with the night journey on the lightening-mount Buraq, and caused him to ascend the ladders of perfection to the high heavens to show him of the greatest signs of his Lord. He raised him until he reached the Lote-tree of the Farthest Boundary where ends the science of every Messenger-Prophet and every Angel Brought Near, where lies the Garden of Retreat, to the point that he heard the sound of the pens that write what has befallen and what is to befall.

The Malay Hikayat Mi'raj Nabi Muhammad

The Prophet (peace upon him) is awoken from his sleep and led by the Chieftain of angels to a riding mount like never seen before! They travel at lightning speed and embark on an unimaginable journey that, as it unfolds, becomes ever more miraculous. The first destination is the sacred city of Jerusalem for an unimaginable meeting and prayer with angels and thousands of prophets. In a state of wonderment and anticipation, the Prophet (pbuh) discovers that his journey is just beginning, as he begins to ascend into the heavens. As he travels to each heavenly dimension he is personally greeted and welcomed by the former prophets. The Prophet (pbuh) is then shown the frequented house with its ceaseless angel pilgrims and the Lote Tree in all its glory. The journey culminates at the pinnacle, which the Prophet (pbuh) learns to be the ultimate reason for the journey; he is brought into Divine presence to be gifted a special command. When he is returned to Mecca where he recounts the miraculous happenings, he is met with ridicule by the disbelievers, and sincere belief by those who believe. This book describes the Prophet's experiences along the way, the miraculous nature of this journey, and emphasizes the lessons learnt from it.

The Prophet's Night Journey and Heavenly Ascent

"The night journey (isra') and ascension to heaven (mi'raj) is a singularly auspicious event in the biography of the Prophet Muhammad, and is one of the most popular religious narratives in Islam.

Amongst other things, it is seen to confirm the Prophet as the final prophet, to explain how the five daily prayers were introduced to the Muslim community as a religious duty, and to give an early explanation of the concepts of heaven and hell. Here, R.P. Buckley explores the evolution and nature of the reception of the narrative of the isra' and mi'raj within a number of central themes, including the authentication of the journey, the manner in which it was performed, Shi'i tradition pertaining to the journey and the development of Western attitudes and approaches. It thus provides vital analysis for those involved in the research of early Islam and the history of religion in the Middle East."--Publisher's website.

The Prophet's Night Journey & Heavenly Ascent

A number of years ago, while engaged in a study of the book of Isaiah, I became aware of the many different names of God Isaiah used to describe Him in that particular book. From that time on, I began noticing and either highlighting every new name as I was reading or writing down names that were particularly meaningful to me. I have continued the practice to this day. Over time, I prepared and preached a ministry about "The Treasure of His Name," and continued to seek God's will as to how I could best give appropriate honor to the many names of God that had made such an impression on my Christian journey. In early 2020, while I was seriously considering the expansion of my earlier ministry into a book, God spoke to me. He said, "Connect your visions or pictures with My name. Imagine what My names look like, not just what they are." I had received my marching orders. God wanted my discovery of His names to be connected with my prophetic encounters. A number of books have been written concerning the different names of God, but I had never before heard of one that analyzed the names prophetically. What do these names look like? My prayer is that this book will incite you, the reader, to seek out your own personal encounters with God and experience the vastness of God and His nature. We can't understand or know who God is if we don't get to know His Names and what attributes are attached to them. As seen in the following scriptures, we are the ones who benefit from loving and thinking upon His name. Imagine that every time you talk about the Lord, He not only hears but He hearkens or "gives attention" (Hebrew-Greek Study Word Bible) to the conversation. He attaches such importance to our words and thoughts about Him that He goes so far as to have a book of remembrance written for us in His Presence. As we meditate on His name, the Lord puts us in His treasure box so that He remembers us just as we do with our own personal treasures. No wonder we who love His name burst forth with endless joy! Mal 3:16-17A (AMP) Then those who feared the Lord talked often one to another; and the Lord listened and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him of those who revered and worshipfully feared the Lord and who thought on His name. And they shall be Mine, says the Lord of hosts, in that day when I publicly recognize and openly declare them to be My jewels (My special possession, My peculiar treasure). Psalm 5:11 (TPT) Then every lover of Your Name will burst forth with endless joy. Psalm 72:19 (TPT) The blazing glory of his name will be praised forever!

The Miraculous Night Journey

My name is Chanel Sheba Berhane. I am the daughter of evangelist A.D.Berhane. My dad was born in northern Ethiopia, in the city of Mekelle. He is an Ethiopian black Messianic Jew descended of Solomon and from the tribe of Judah. As a teenager, my dad was the founder and the leader of the Ethiopian Youth for Christ. In 1974, he left his homeland to study Bible at the International Apostolic Bible College in Denmark. He moved to Montreal, Canada, to study business at Concordia University. In 1981, he settled in the States and excelled as a fashion designer in Los Angeles, California. From 2002-2010, he ministered at Trinity Broadcasting Network and traveled as an evangelist. Today he possesses a prophetic, apostolic, healing and deliverance anointing in his life. He is also an end-time Seer, a visionary who sees visions and dreams on a consistent basis. He is gifted in interpreting dreams. He is also the author of Heaven Is Empty, Hell Is Full. My dad is a single parent of me and my brother Tyrone since we were two and three years old.

The Night Journey and Ascension in Islam

This book is the first of three in a series focused on an extraordinary adventure as we discover the very heart of prophecy from the beginning as it was set forth in the book of Genesis. The very events which occurred in the first book of the Bible have in fact laid the foundation for all end time prophecy as set forth through later prophets. Without a firm grasp of the prophetic message in the beginning of time, we will build our foundation on sand. After reading In the Beginning, you will never view prophecy the same way again as you will begin to see the unveiling of many mysteries that have been long forgotten.

This book serves as a piece of study literature investigating the vast prophetic messages place in the word of God for us to learn. At the end of this book, the reader will gain profound insight into the many spiritual workings rooted in the book of Genesis and how it sets the stage for the Lord's second advent. The aim in our investigation is to spark the reader into taking on a magnificent prophetic journey of their own with the Lord and bless someone else.

A journey over the region of fulfilled prophecy

A Big-Picture Look at a Book Like No Other The world's all-time bestseller, the Bible is truly unique: an ancient collection of 66 separate books written across 1,500 years that fits together like a perfectly crafted puzzle. It proclaims itself to be the Word of God—and supports this claim with hundreds of specific, now-fulfilled prophecies. Because of its massive cultural impact, readers of all backgrounds and beliefs ask questions about the Bible's context, history, purpose, and reliability. The Weeping Prophet Accessible Guide from Bestselling Author for Embracing the Prophetic Calling Internationally respected prophet and bestselling author James W. Goll offers a readable, practical approach to the prophetic gifting. Centered around a unique, hands-on 21-day guide, he helps believers develop the intimacy with God essential to hearing his voice clearly and correctly--and then proclaiming his words faithfully. Through illustrations from his own life and those of John, Daniel, and Ezekiel, Goll exposes common misconceptions, the successes and failures of gifted people throughout church history, and wisdom from the trenches of the prophetic. Devotional prayers and reflection questions follow each chapter. A must-have resource for those in prophetic ministry and all who work with them.

The Prophet's Night Journey & Heavenly Ascent

"A profound spiritual exploration into the life and work of the beloved poet Kahlil Gibran, a much-needed guide for our times." —Reza Aslan, author of Zealot: The Life and Times of Jesus of Nazareth In Search of a Prophet is a fascinating journey through the spiritual life of Kahlil Gibran, the great Lebanese-American poet and author of The Prophet, a book originally published in 1923 that has sold over 10 million copies and been translated into dozens of languages. Capturing our imaginations and enriching our spirits, Paul-Gordon Chandler explores this beloved writer and artist, a celebrated mystic who sought to build bridges and tear down walls and who remains a cultural icon among all people of goodwill. This is not a traditional biography but a compelling spiritual journey through Gibran's writings, art, and the places he lived. From Gibran's birthplace village high in the snowy mountains of Lebanon, Chandler leads us through his immigration to Boston, art training in Paris, and career in New York, and to the far-reaching places of influence his writings and art have traveled, alerting readers to Gibran's continuing relevance for today. This paperback edition, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the publication of The Prophet, includes a foreword by Bishop Michael B. Curry, presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church, as well as a new preface by the author.

In the Beginning

A Firefighter's Prophetic Journey is a fascinating, personal story of a man's dreams, visions, and encounters with God. For the first time, Hopper recounts his journey through the fires of life, in the physical and the spiritual, discussing in depth the prophetic lessons learned, the profound impact they had upon his heart, and how they have encouraged the faith of numerous individuals along the way. These are stories of ministry beyond the pulpit, outside of the Church, typically one on one with an audience of One. After a dramatic, visible encounter with the angel of the Lord in April of 1995, Hopper writes... "Ezekiel had an encounter with the Lord that left him speechless; he sat by the river Chebar for 7 days, astonished (Ezekiel 3). When Isaiah encountered the Lord in Isaiah 6, he said "I am disintegrating." Many others fell on their faces "like dead men." After Job complained to the Lord for over 30 chapters he finally said, my ears had heard of you but now my eyes have seen you. I abhor myself and I repent in dust and ashes (Job 42). When God appeared at Mount Sinai, the people told Moses to go talk to God and tell them what He said. They didn't want that much of God again. Moses said "The Lord has come near you to put the fear of Him in you that you might not sin" (Exodus 20). Peter experienced terror on the Mount of Transfiguration when he saw Jesus in His glorified state. Saul of Tarsus said "Who are you, Lord?" as he was struck blind. Do I dare compare myself to people in the Bible? Of course I do! That's what we SHOULD do!" With no Christian heritage in his immediate family, God drew Hopper to Himself through this journey of discovery...40 years experiencing the beauty of the Lord, beyond the works of men. As a memoir meant to inspire individuals who are walking through their own fires, these stories will reveal how the Lord does work in mysterious ways. The reader will learn how the path of true obedience faces controversy, can be quite painful in unexpected ways, and how the ministry of Prophet is not one of glamour and recognition. However, it's our walking through these fires that the Lord refines our hearts. People do not care how much you know until they know how much you care.

The Non-Prophet's Guide to the Bible

Finding your destiny through a relationship with Christ is life-changing. Today, so many feel without purpose or direction; yet, Pastor Stephen Fedele boldly states that no one is an accident no matter how dark a beginning or life you may have had. In Christ, we find purpose. Our lives, when examined, can demonstrate a path where Christ in His mercy has been leading. Once Jesus is accepted by an individual, the importance of the local church is explored as a vehicle for the Christian's success in navigating this life and fulfilling that destiny. Pastor Fedele and his wife and co-laborer, Rita, have dedicated their lives to helping church's and individuals find that path where God's destiny can be achieved.

Journey of a Seer

A collection of original poems on human misery, love and the search for ultimate freedom... Misery-love-freedom, that is the philosophical order of the book. The last poem 'The Prophet' is the target point and all else is an educational journey within this very life to reach the final destination- the prophetic wisdom, the ultimate freedom. Our struggle, frustration, confusion, fear- through all these we search for the ways to be free; we try to love, we try to be loved, conditionally and unconditionally...all these experiences slowly grow us up over a period of time; through all ups and downs, someday, some of us find the ways to the ultimate freedom, the ultimate peace, the path of a prophet. These selected original poems were written over the period 1992-2013.

The Lifestyle of a Prophet

Jonah is the only ancient prophet with whom Jesus identifies in the Gospels. But when we turn to read the book of Jonah itself, we discover that this so-called "book" is only two pages long-and that Jonah's prophesying is limited to one short sentence. And yet, around this small book, as if it were around Jonah's own troubled ship, high waves of controversy and mystery have swirled for centuries. In A Journey with Jonah: The Spirituality of Bewilderment, Fr. Paul Murray strives to uncover the great lesson of this story. Following Fr. Murray's exploration is a 2003 lectio divina on Jonah by then-Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger-published here in English for the first time. Book jacket.

In Search of a Prophet

In this collection, the author travels into the childhood of the prophets Moses, Jesus and Mohammed. She creates a poetic world of feelings, hope and despair, humanity and exile, tracing each prophet's unique path to revelation.

A Firefighter's Prophetic Journey

When we think of a Monarch butterfly, the first thing that comes to mind is the beauty of its brilliant colors. So easily forgotten is the process the Monarch endured to achieve its regal beauty. The butterfly goes through four stages of development which is referred to as metamorphosis. We can prophetically compare each of the unique stages to the making of the prophet of God. As the prophet goes through various stages in life, he or she eventually comes out demonstrating the supernatural, and speaking prophetically with signs, wonders, revelation, and humility. Following the accolades of others, the prophet of God struggles to maintain his or her own sanity while going through the death process behind closed doors for purpose. Follow the journey of prophetess Jacqueline Boynes as she takes you into the prophet's life.

The Prophet's Night Journey and Heavenly Ascent

The tales of the mi'raj describe the prophet Muhammad's journey through the heavens, his encounters with prophets and angels, and his visit to heaven and hell. The tales are among Islam's most popular, appearing in Arabic, Persian, and Turkish literature, and in later adaptations throughout the Muslim world. Often serving as narratives designed to promote the worldview of particular Muslim groups, the tales were also a means for communities to construct rules of normative behavior and ritual practices, and were used to assert the superiority of Islam over other religions. The essays in this collection discuss the formation of this narrative, the mi'raj as a missionary text, its various adaptations, its application to esoteric thought, and its use in performance and ritual. -- Book jacket.
