ACCOUNTABILITY This is a complex concept, and in its narrowest sense, it means holding elected officials accountable for their actions by some kind of external control-that is, political accountability.

CUSTOMERS Accountability becomes a matter of satisfying the preferences of individual customers of governmental services.

ADMINISTRATIVE Both reinventing government and CzRM tend to emphasize administrative values and a clear distinction between the political and administrative system.

PUBLIC SERVICE Public service is seen as a continuation of the political system, and therefore representative of the same basic values.
