Racism is man's gravest threat to man - the maximum of hatred for a minimum of reason.

Self-respect is the fruit of discipline.

Speech has power. Words do not fade. What starts out as a sound, ends in a deed.

Indifference to evil is more insidious than evil itself. It is a silent justification affording evil acceptability in society.

Solitude is a necessary protest to the incursions and the false alarms of society's hysteria, a period of cure and recovery.

The hour calls for moral grandeur and spiritual audacity.

The task of life is to face sacred moments.
