JOIN AWARD-WINNING PODCASTER ZIBBY OWENS OF MOMS DON'T HAVE TIME TO READ BOOKS ON A JOURNEY FILLED WITH FOOD, EXERCISE, SEX, BOOKS, AND MORE. It's impossible to ignore how life has changed since COVID-19 spread across the world. People from all over quarantined and did their best to keep on going during the pandemic. Zibby Owens, host of the award-winning podcast MomsDon't Have Time to Read Books and a mother of four herself, wanted to do something to help people carry on and to give them something to focus on other than the horrors of their news feeds. So she launched an online magazine called We Found Time. Authors who had been on her podcast wrote original, brilliant essays for busy readers. Zibby organized these profound pieces into themes inspired by five things moms don't have time to do: eat, read, work out, breathe, and have sex. Now compiled as an anthology named Moms Don't Have Time To, these beautiful, original essays by dozens of bestselling and acclaimed authors speak to the ever-increasing demands on our time, especially during the quarantine, in a unique, literary way. Actress Evangeline Lilly writes about the importance and impact of film. Bestselling author Rene Denfeld focuses on her relationship with food after growing up homeless. Screenwriter and author Lea Carpenter and Suzanne Falter, author, speaker, and podcast host, focus on loss. New York Times bestselling authors Chris Bohjalian and Gretchen Rubin write about the importance of reading. Others write about working out, love and sex, eating and cooking, and more. Join Zibby on her journey through the winding road of quarantine and perhaps you, too, will find time.

Moms Don't Have Time To

Mom and Dad Love Me the Same is an introduction to divorce from a child's perspective.

Divorce

More Than 180 Ways to Help Your Child Survive Your Divorce -- "Please don't ever ask me to keep secrets from my other parent." -- "Tell me the truth. Divorce can be a very hard and painful thing for everyone." -- "Please don't cram a lot of fun activities into our visit with little time to talk or cuddle." During the trauma of divorce, your own needs and concerns can be frighteningly complex. Understanding and meeting the needs of your children can seem an almost insurmountable challenge. At long last, real help is at hand in the clearest, most concise guide ever to help children at the difficult time of divorce. If you're a divorced (or separated) parent, then this book is a must-read. Join family counselor -- and divorced parent -- Gillian Rothchild as she tackles such large and small issues as: -- Telling your children about the divorce. ("Tell me that you both still love me and that you are not divorcing me too.") -- Dealing with fear. ("You divorced each other...will you someday divorce me too?") -- How to handle the little details of raising a child who lives in two houses. ("I really need to have special things at both homes.") When you're going through a divorce, the last thing you want is to have to sit down with a complicated book. You need a practical and inspiring resource with the quick, smart, and professional answers that will help you and your children get on with your lives -- happily. DEAR MOM AND DAD is just that.

Mom and Dad Love Me the Same

Anyone who is contemplating divorce should read Merrick's book to discover how Almighty God has the power to restore their marriage when they trust and obey Him. Evangelist Mike Gendron, Director of Proclaiming the Gospel Ministry. Robert A. Merrick (Bob) is the average-man, guy-next-door, who fell in love, married, raised three children with his wife, built a 23 year career as a Civil Engineer, mowed the lawn, fixed the plumbing, helped his neighbors, and balanced financial challenges. Then one day, his wife packed-up and moved out, and a whole new set of realities fell in on him. Bob was faced with a choice: wallow in self-pity and blame, give up and get a divorce-or-see God's answer. Over the last 5 years, Bob has made the second choice-daily. ALL of his life experiences-from marriage and professional career, to founding a Christian high school and teaching, to coaching youth sports and leading Church fellowship groups-seemed to have little relevance in the midst of this crisis. Over these recent years, Bob walked closer with God-learned more about the meaning of, ".all things work together for good to those who love God." (Romans 8:28)-and spent hundreds of late-night hours writing out the Biblical insights he has discovered. Why Stand? is a testament of our Lord and Savior's no-matter-what love for us. It is a book that gives hope in times of painful circumstances and encouragement to stand for what is right, what is good, what is God. Bob is currently seeking his Masters Degree in Christian

Counseling at Colorado Theological Seminary. His heart is to follow God and to lead others to the freedom and victory found through faith in Jesus Christ. www.2of12ministries.com

Dear Mom and Dad

For many years, Growing Up With Divorce has offered divorced parents transformative insight, solace, and practical guidance on how to help their children cope with the stresses caused by marital separation. Every child is unique, yet there are certain common reactions to the stresses of divorce: anger, a sense of divided loyalties, lasting intimacy issues. Dr. Neil Kalter explains that, for children, divorce is not a single event but is comprised of "a series of events that occur over many years." Identifying three stages of divorce, Dr. Kalter cites the particular struggles associated with each stage and explains how gender as well as cognitive, emotional, and social development also affect how children react. Dispensing sage advice on everything from understanding and minimizing the anxieties that underlie various troublesome behaviors to smoothing out your child's transitions between her two households to incorporating a new spouse into your family, Dr. Kalter gives parents and the professionals who treat divorced families an indispensable guide to navigating the difficulties of divorce.

Why Stand?

Having a baby is a joyous experience, but even the best relationships are strained during the transition from duo to trio. Lack of sleep, never-ending housework, and new fiscal concerns often lead to conflict, disappointment, and hurt feelings. In And Baby Makes Three Love Lab™ experts John Gottman and Julie Schwartz Gottman teach couples the skills from their successful workshops, so partners can avoid the pitfalls of parenthood by:

- maintaining intimacy and romance
- replacing a culture of criticism and irritability with one of appreciation
- preventing post-partum depression
- creating a home environment that nurtures physical, emotional, and mental health, as well as cognitive and behavioral development for your baby

Complete with exercises that separate the "master" from the "disaster" couples, And Baby Makes Three helps new parents positively manage the strain that comes along with their bundle of joy.

Growing Up with Divorce: Help Yr Child Avoid Immed

This book is hopefully the voice for every child who experiences any of the downs of divorce, simply because one parent chooses to do his own thing for "Just Right Now." Divorce is hard enough for the child in and of itself without their having to deal with the fact that that loving missing parent believes his needs are more important than his child's. This is where I believe a real difference exist in Americans and Jamaicans. Jamaicans seem to have a stronger feel for Family, Elders and loyalty. Fatherhood is not a temporary position! Most men here are more than enthused when it comes to promoting themselves for the sake of their business; it makes you wonder how does their enthusiasm diminish when it comes to involvement with their own flesh and blood! If they would just try giving themselves completely for a little while to that child they would surely see that their children's love would fill the void they're denying, and the love given and received from them will last longer, and weigh greater than anything else, forever.

Marini and Stebnicki provide a wide range of culturally diverse treatment approaches that will expand the counseling profession's knowledge, awareness, and skills.

Are We Divorced, Too Daddy?

So are you feeling anxious, hurt, furious, scared, considering beating someone with a shovel? Then take a deep breath and have a seat. I have a few words of advice for you, my friend. In my divorce, I made many mistakes but I also learned SO many valuable lessons along the way. I came out of my divorce happier than ever and loving myself and my life more than I ever thought I could! Divorce is only the end... to a chapter. And I am here to walk you through the ups and downs. I am here to tell it to you straight and the only way I know how... by sharing all of the dirty details of my own adventure. Filled with humor, heart and enough honesty to make my mother blush if she reads it, I hope this book gives you an extra voice of encouragement as you travel this crazy journey called divorce.

Dear Mom and Dad

A relatable story of a fun day with son and dad. From the moment son is dropped off at dad's home by mom, to the moment dad drops son back at mom's home the next day, they do everything together. From eating grilled cheese, to a trip to the zoo, to reading a book before bed, son and dad pack as much quality time as they can into one full day and night. The next day it's time for son to head back to mom's home, where he'll have just as much fun. Marilou Legault's illustrations of son and dad enjoying their day together are images that every dad can relate to and appreciate. While you read along, your child is sure to love watching son and dad's humorous, genuine, and relatable scenes.

The Professional Counselor's Desk Reference

Should you feed your baby whenever she wants or put her on a schedule? Do you impose consequences on children who don't do their homework or clean up their room, or do you help them with chores and homework? Should you respond to the difficult adolescent with tender love or tough love? Parents are faced every day with a multitude of decisions, and they worry about making the right choices. The Smart Love Parent offers a breakthrough method to parenting created and tested by the husband-and-wife team of Dr. Martha Heineman Pieper and Dr. William J. Pieper. The Piepers offer a new understanding of the entire sweep of child development, allowing you to view the process of growing up through your child's eyes. Their patient and caring approach avoids the extremes of permissiveness and of the old reward-and-punishment style of parenting that turns parents into disciplinarians. By offering a relaxed and realistic timetable for your child's development, they identify some previously unrecognized developmental milestones and show you how to help your child reach them through guiding, not punishing. If you understand your child's point of view, you can better know how to love her and how to respond to her actions. The Smart Love Parent helps parents cultivate a child's inner happiness, which is the best means of ensuring your child will grow up well behaved, responsible, self-confident, and able to reach his or her fullest potential. How to Get Divorced without a Shovel

Wrestling is as much a part of winter in Iowa as is snow and cold. Dreams of state championships begin in elementary school and, since 1972, come to fruition-or heartbreakingly fall short-at an arena in Des Moines in February or March. The tournament finals sell out, and individuals and teams carve their names on the sport's history tree each year. Some champions were deaf, some were amputees, but all earn the respect of thousands for their work ethic-a hallmark of the state's populace. Is this heaven? No, it's better than that. It's high school wrestling in Iowa!

Daddy, I'm Here

Offers guidance in making the two-home approach successful.

The Smart Love Parent

Seventy now-adult children of divorce give their candid and often heart-wrenching answers to eight questions (arranged in eight chapters, by question), including: What were the main effects of your parents' divorce on your life? What do you say to those who claim that "children are resilient" and "children are happy when their parents are happy"? What would you like to tell your parents then and now? What do you want adults in our culture to know about divorce? What role has your faith played in your healing? Their simple and poignant responses are difficult to read and yet not without hope. Most of the contributors--women and men, young and old, single and married--have never spoken of the pain and consequences of their parents' divorce until now. They have often never been asked, and they believe that no one really wants to know. Despite vastly different circumstances and details, the similarities in their testimonies are striking; as the reader will discover, the death of a child's family impacts the human heart in universal ways.

When Your Parents Get a Divorce

Are you trying to find love – and beginning to suspect you're not looking in the right place? This wise, hip guide gives you a new map for the journey to happiness in relationships of all kinds, starting in your own heart. Told from the alternating vantage points of authors Meggan Watterson and Lodro Rinzler, How to Love Yourself (and Sometimes Other People) reminds us that love isn't something we have to earn. All of us are deeply and intrinsically worthy of love – not only the love we hope to receive from others, but the love we give to ourselves – and this book offers the insight and practical tools we need to stay firmly grounded in self-love as we ride out the natural (and often stormy) cycles of relationships. Meggan and Lodro's unique perspectives as teachers and scholars of Christian mysticism and Buddhism respectively make for a rich and lively dialogue that draws on wisdom sources like the Gospel of Mary Magdalene and the Four Noble Truths, along with funny, revealing stories from their own love lives and their deep friendship with each other. You'll find guidance for embracing single life, dating with an open heart, and thriving in lasting love; meditations and practices for calm abiding, "disciplined hope," and connecting to the source of love within you; and tips on everything from sex, self-worth, and nourishing friendships to navigating breakups and learning to truly love yourself. Ultimately, you'll be able to see your ideal partner in a new light – not as someone who "completes" you, but as someone who mirrors back to you your own wholeness.

I Thought I'd Be Done by Now

Diaries of a Forgotten Parent: Divorced Dads on Fathering Through and Beyond Divorce opens an intimate window on the lives of divorced men. Literature on divorce focuses primarily on its effects on women and children, but fair and personal accounts of the lived experiences of custodial and non-custodial fathers are less available. In this highly accessible text, ten American men share intensely personal reflections of guilt, pain, frustration, sacrifice, loneliness and pride. The men do not see themselves as exemplary; rather, their stories are graphically honest, revealing what Paterson calls ordinary men "with all their warts." The author reviews significant works on the male experience of divorce from psychological, legal, educational and sociological experts, interspersing commentary and research with the men's own voices. From the initial discussion of why men marry and why they divorce through the men's painful memories of being pushed out of their children's lives by angry and resentful mothers, the author illuminates the legal, fiscal, emotional and practical experiences of men struggling to reinvent their fathering while they find themselves reconfigured into deserters, deadbeats and visitors. The societal myth that fathers are less valuable parents than mothers is thoroughly deconstructed in this text. The book will help divorced and divorcing men and those who work with them to fully understand the experiences of fathers who never stopped loving and caring for their children, in spite of the fact that the contributions of fathers are still largely discounted by schools, courts, and worst of all, by their children's mothers. From this book, readers will understand that there are just too many reasons why fathers must never be forgotten in the lives of their children.

Winning the Heart of Your Stepchild

Featuring excerpts of essays collected from over one thousand young adults while in the throes of divorce, this book paints a picture of the pain and the hope shown by the storytellers. By framing the narratives with an analysis of the most recent divorce literature, the authors provide readers with a greater and more vivid understanding of the effects of divorce. Challenging the contention that most children will be irretrievably hurt by their parents' divorce, some stories clearly demonstrate the strength and resilience many have learned in dealing with a divorce in the family. Emphasis is placed on how hope about the possibilities of having close relationships - as well as a willingness to create stronger families in their own lives - represent abiding motivations in this sample of young people. The authors hope that the use of the raw input of respondents will make the experiences more realistic and ultimately help people deal with major loss events in their lives. Highlights of the new edition include: A new chapter (7) that demonstrates the messiness of divorce (infidelity, dysfunctional interactions, multiple marriages/relationships, and the financial expense), the fading stigma of divorce, the latest divorce rates, the increased average age of first time marriages, and the recent hook-up phenomenon wherein young people are showing a reluctance to commitment. Updated throughout with the most current demographic data, new findings from the top researchers in the field, and the latest intervention programs. A review of the Divorce Variability and Fluidity Model (DVFM) that helps predict variability in adjusting to divorce. More suggestions to help children adapt to divorce, including material on parenting education classes and mediation as a method for easing the process. A list of readings and suggested websites for further review. More tables and graphs to summarize key concepts. An ideal supplement for courses on divorce, family studies, close relationships, and loss and trauma taught in human development and family studies, and clinical, counseling, and social psychology, as well as communication, social work, and sociology, these engaging stories also appeal to practitioners and those interested in the effects of divorce in general.

Diaries of a Forgotten Parent

Life is a mucky mess: slogging through overdue bills, squabbling kids, and unending monotonous chores. We all need help, like author Ann McCarthy's s bright red galoshes, to protect us as we trudge through. With humor and candor, Red Galoshes reveals the real, messy life of an abused wife and mother of six as she travels through unthinkable and heart-wrenching memories. McCarthy shares how she navigates pain, mistakes, regrets, and shame with joy, grit, and companionship. Throughout the journey, a loving and protective God provides grace and guidance. Each part of this memoir offers a collection of stories from a specific season of her life. Each chapter includes an experience followed by a reflection. These reflections contain McCarthy's thoughts in hindsight as well as encouragement that connects her journey to your own. A story of God's faithfulness, miracles, mercies, and love, Red Galoshes also provides perspective and resources to better support the abused and/or single parent in neighborhoods or churches.

The beautiful, ruthless Internet Predator wanted my recently-widowed 85 year-old father's millions. I had to stop their imminent marriage or KILL MOM. A true story about a son's efforts to keep his father from becoming another victim of a Charming Evil Opportunist. Five months after my mother passed away, my father went on the Internet to find companionship. He quickly arranged a luncheon date with Carolyn, an attractive divorcee whose picture he saw on "A.O.L. In Love." Carolyn had learned my father was a retired business executive living in an expensive home over-looking San Diego Bay. Due to Carolyn's intense pressure, they were engaged in six weeks. Carolyn was a violent, dangerous gold digger with a criminal record who used the Internet, news papers and retirement homes to prey on wealthy seniors. According to neighbors, she may have already killed for money. When Carolyn realized we learned her background and motive, she dug in her heels. She had finally found her $10 million pay day and was not about to be stopped by "greedy children." Dad ignored the evidence, saying "only she makes me happy." Lawyers said there was nothing we could do to stop their marriage. Elder Financial Abuse is a serious epidemic. Learn how you can stop predators from ending up with your senior's hard-earned assets.

Kill Mom

Nick is a child telling the story of how his world changes as a result of his parents' divorce. Nick, like other children going through divorce, experiences an emotional rollercoaster. He is confused, sad and angry. He feels alone and ashamed. He is dealing with many changes — new homes, different schedules, and now, he travels back and forth from his mom's home to his dad's home. Initially, Nick's parents are upset and going through their own struggles. Later, they realize the divorce is impacting Nick, and the family begins to communicate. This book mirrors children's experience of divorce through powerful illustrations and words. By mirroring what children are feeling and facing, it helps them communicate about their own divorce. Reading this book gives parents the tools to open a dialog to help their children. Talking about divorce allows parents and children to move forward and begin healing.

Anxiety and Depression Workbook For Dummies

The book is about a southern Licensed Massage Therapist named Ms. Linnie Delmar. She uses her unusual unique style and different massage therapy techniques that sets her apart from all the others. She has worked with over 10 motion picture production companies and has traveled around the world working with well known A-list actors all of which have interesting stories to tell. She considers herself to be the female version of Forrest Gump due to doors continue to open for her because she has always been at the right place at the right time throughout her life of thrills and adventure. She has also managed to have four husbands on her life's journey. She wants women to listen to their inner spirit and pay attention to the warning signs that a mistake is on the way. Find out how she found her place and purpose in life without having a man to define her as the person she is today. She wants women to learn from the mistakes she has made about falling for a good looking, smooth talking, man who will steal your heart and try to trash your soul. Follow her into the light of life and happiness that were like ashes in the wind to her wild past and gave her the courage and strength to look forward to her future. Her story may inspire you, it may amuse you, but it will never bore you! Linnie's southern humor will entertain you and make you laugh with joy and cry with heartbreak!

Women in the Middle

Are you craving a hero? Allie certainly is... as she finds herself falling for the hot Navy SEAL who wants to adopt her beloved rescue dog. Then there's Annie who's hiding secrets from her Army Ranger boss in Hawaii... Freya who discovered she is head over heels for her SEAL best friend... and single mom Ava who is lusting over the SEAL next door. CRAVING A HERO is a steamy military romance anthology with four happily-ever-afters and all the friends-to-lovers, small town, billionaire, grumpy/sunshine feels... ...along with four heroes who have honor, brains, and eight-packs. Craving: satisfied. MORE, PLEASE Allie: I know exactly what I want. And it has nothing to do with the hot Navy SEAL I picked up in a bar. Really... it doesn't. Since graduating from college, I've been juggling two jobs while fostering abandoned dogs, with my sights set on opening a rescue kennel. I'll do whatever it takes to succeed, even if it means fighting back my cravings for the man who's been fueling my fantasies since I got my first taste of him in a hotel elevator. But when he slips his way back into my life, all I can do is remember that night... ...and ask for more, please. A IS FOR ALPHA Camden: Who put the "O" in Aloha? Yeah, that's me. Camden Sheridan. A guy who will bring you to "O" faster than you can text it. Former Army Ranger with the standard issue 8-pack. And now, a bartender who'll get you safely back to your hotel after too many margaritas... and you won't want me to leave. Believe me, you won't. I live life by my rules in my bachelor pad paradise here on the Big Island of Hawaii. Until a Ranger brother needs me to take care of his little girl while he deploys. A four-year-old cockblock in pigtails. My sex life comes to a screeching halt. Then the babysitter shows up - one who's got a fortress of secrets surrounding her. But I'll break it down and claim her as mine. If this kid will just take a nap. BFF'ED Freya: Mason Adler... Hot. Cocky. Sugar-coated Bad Boy. The type of man who knocks the big "O" clear to the front of the alphabet every time. Wrap up that eight-pack with Navy khakis and top it off with a shiny SEAL Trident, the kind that makes the girls swoon. That's Mason. My best friend. For me, he's off limits. Now that I've finished college, I need to focus on my writing career. And without his help, I don't stand a chance. But I need something from him. Something only he can give me. So I'll pull the blinds. I'll call it "research." And I won't let my heart get involved, especially with him leaving at the end of the week. Leaving me... even though my very soul is still in his grasp. ROMANCING CHRISTMAS Harris: I set the bar pretty low when it comes to the holidays. I have to. As a Navy officer, I spend plenty of them far from anyplace I'd call "home"... sometimes getting shot like I did on my last SEAL mission. So, yeah, I set the bar low enough that I can roll over it. That is, until I meet Ava. She's the type that bakes pecan pie, drinks egg nog, and goes caroling with her neighbors. I bet she even owns a stack of ugly Christmas sweaters. She's also got a son... and roots dug deep into this town that make life with a Navy guy like me impossible. Ava is the last thing I need. Yet she's all I want for Christmas.

They want to see that you are SELF AWARE.

They want to assess how HONEST you are!

They want to see whether you HAVE A PLAN to improve.

NEVER SAY you are not good at managing multiple tasks.

Do not say you are a perfectionist! Everyone uses this!

– Explain what you are doing to improve on the weakness

– I find it difficult to ask other people for help

– "I struggle to let go of projects."

– "I'm not very good at giving people feedback."

I am too sensitive at times.

"I don't yet have any leadership experience!"

I get stressed if a project runs over the deadline.

I am not very good at presenting to large groups of people.

Which of the following is an example of vector transmission? a. Tuberculosis b. Salmonella infection c. Bubonic plague d. HIV

C: The transmission of bubonic plague by fleas from rodents is an example of vector transmission: tuberculosis is spread via airborne transmission.

B: A specific class of fire extinguisher is used for each class of fire except for class D fires: these types of fires involve combustible or reactive metals such as sodium, potassium, magnesium, or lithium and should be handled by trained firefighting personnel.

B: Because the median cubital vein is closer to the surface and located in an area least prone to nerve damage, it is the preferred site for venipuncture.

C: Body position, environmental conditions such as temperature and humidity, and stress can affect blood specimen composition; fasting is useful in eliminating dietary influences on blood testing.

B: The reservoir host is a person, animal, plant, or other organism or substance that acts as the source of transmission of a pathogen; the susceptible host is the person capable of being infected with a pathogen.

ANSWER C: Blood from infants under one year of age is collected by heel stick (lateral areas), as the child's veins are generally too small for venipuncture.
When collecting a sample of whole blood for testing using a lavender-capped Microtainer, how many inversions are needed to mix the blood with the additive?
ANSWER C: Microtainer tubes that contain anticoagulants require 10 inversions after the addition of blood to ensure that the additive and blood are mixed adequately.
Which government agency is responsible for laws governing the use of gloves when carrying out a venipuncture?
ANSWER D: The government agency responsible for laws governing the use of gloves when carrying out a venipuncture is OSHA under the Bloodborne Pathogen standards, with the current version part of the Needlestick Safety and Prevention Act (2000)
ANSWER C: The primary difference between plasma and serum is that only plasma contains fibrinogen, a protein that facilitates formation of blood clots. Plasma and serum are otherwise very similar, as they constitute the fluid portion of the blood.
ANSWER A: One of the reasons that serum is more often used for testing than plasma is that serum contains more antigens, so it can be used to carry out a wider variety of tests. Additionally, anticoagulants found in plasma may interfere with some tests.
ANSWER C: Wearing artificial nails especially increases the risk of harboring Gram-negative bacteria on the fingertips and may result in outbreaks of infection. The CDC recommends that artificial nails or long nails (which pose similar risks) should be avoided by healthcare workers who have direct contact with patients, especially in high risk areas such as in ICU or NICU.
