Cheating the Government

In this book he systematically studies the underground economy to examine how certain types of economic analysis can be applied to tax evaders.

Economic Analysis of Law

This introduction to the new field of economic analysis of the law focuses on the core areas of our legal system - property, torts and accidents, contract, and crime - as well as litigation. The handbook is full of examples and is highly accessible, since no background in either law or economics is assumed and it's free of jargon, graphs, and technical material
