Unveiling the Mask

For the longest time I have written poem after poem trying to bring clarity and closure to help explain the hardest parts of my life. This collection of poems has been a long time coming. I have written a poem every day for the last 15 years in order to help heal from trauma, heartache, and a series of choices. When I was curating this book I wanted it to be in a frame of becoming the woman I am today. Unveiling the Mask is a reference to no longer hiding who I truly am and finally revealing the authentic charismatic empowering friend you see today. When I started embracing who I was I finally found a place that made sense. There have been several events in my life that have left me broken and bruised and through all the brokenness I finally realized that I can glue myself back together. I don't need to hide my scars nor need someone else to fix them. I can wear my wounds with pride and through these poems I am practicing the art of Kintsugi on my heart, mind, and spirit. Kintsugi is the Japanese art of utilizing gold glue to put pottery back together after it is broken. This is me embracing my flaws and imperfections to grow. Hopefully these poems will speak to you in some way and help you on your journey to heal your cracks as well.

From Despair to Deliverance

"Love Conquers All" I pray as you read this book that you will smile, laugh, cry, smile, and laugh again. Those were all of my emotions as I was writing this book. This was the absolute hardest thing I have ever done. I'm a very private person. I know by sharing our story, it will help someone else who is going through this same situation. You can insert your particular life challenges and find inspiration so you know that you too can overcome anything. I want that couple to know that they can make it - even as they're going through rough times. I want them to know that they have to make memories that are so good that when times are bad they can reflect back on those good memories. Although this book speaks to the tragedy of being diagnosed and living with a mental illness, it also speaks to the love that held our family together through it all. Our love outweighed all of our troubles, and we are still dealing with the illness one day at a time - together. During the good times, we never focus on the illness. We spend that time loving and enjoying one another, making those great memories that keep us strong when we must deal with the illness. My husband and I are more in love today than we were when we first got married. He is my true soul mate and I am his true soulmate. Our two sons love and respect their father - always have and always will. God gave us this life and the strength to conquer all that has come our way as we continue to love and be in love with one another.

Unveiling the Mask

Many Christian women today are wearing masks. From an early age, we are taught that to be valuable we need to do more, to be more. To feel worthy, we learn to hide behind the masks of our accomplishments, physical appearance, intelligence, education, relationships—even our work in the church. But those masks separate us from God, from other people, and from our true selves. Thankfully, there is hope. We can remove our masks and trust Christ to see us as we really are . . . but it takes humility. To examine our hearts, motives, and past experiences requires honesty and confession. But beyond the masquerade, Christ can heal and transform our lives, freeing us from bondage.

Unveiling the Mask: My Testimony

Crossroad: a point at which a vital decision must be made. On February 6, 2006, Precious Jackson had to make one of the most devastating choices that anyone has ever had to make; to live or die. Precious' world was shattered as she peered at it through a broken mirror. Hiding behind a mask of well put together smiles and faces, Precious' eyes told the story that burdened her soul. Warding off issues of abandonment, failed relationships, delving into poor decision-making due to a lack of self-confidence; and rescuing others from their problems, Precious was not prepared for the storm that was brewing her way. Not heeding the warning signs that God placed before her, Precious fell into emotional and spiritual bankruptcy. There was nothing left in her; Precious had pronounced herself dead! In 2015, with a rejuvenated spirit for life, Precious reveals her journey. With a clear view of her authentic self, Precious explores and resolves the roots that kept her bound. Breaking free from past hurt and pain, Precious now experiences; love, laughter, strength and most of all, the courage to share her story. Knowing now that life will throw you curve balls, Precious reminds us that we sometimes create our own chaos.

The Unveiling of a Mask

Negative emotions from our past, combined with bad experiences of our present, leave us feeling lost and confused. To overcome our valley of death experiences, the answer is simple: Submit to God. May this book serve as a reminder that no matter what people may do or how they may try to harm you, no matter what people may say or what pestilence may come your way, submit to God. Obedience to God is far more valuable than any sacrifice we can give. Obedience requires faith. Regardless of how incredibly foolish it may look or how incomprehensible it may seem, exercise your faith and obey God. It is only when we delight ourselves in the Lord, will we experience our dynamic destiny.

Unveiling the Mask

When dealing with life issues it's ok to just be you! Discover that your breakthrough is found deep within yourself. You can grow in the midst of trials. Your first step is "Prayer." Your 2nd step is "Stop Pretending" to be like someone else. Your 3rd step is "Accept" you can't please everybody. Just be YOU!!

Unveiling the Expressions Behind the Mask

Are you ready to remove the mask? Freedom in America allows us to protest and refuse the wearing of a mask. How much more should we fight and strive to refuse the masking of our true selves? It's time to discover something deeper within you. In a period when the entire world is wearing a mask, it is difficult to recognize anyone. We are experiencing how God has seen us, His children who live behind a mask, for generations. This mask has been cultivated by our society, peer pressuring us to be more like those around us. Captivated by the trends of success, we can lose sight of who we truly are, staring in the mirror at a distorted image of ourselves and wondering who we have become. My prayer is that we as people are uplifted and inspired to enter the process that will eliminate the need for the mask. Behind the mask is a chosen, peculiar, and royal child of God made in His image and likeness. As you read through the pages, you will begin to discover how to unmask, thus unveiling the real you.

Joel and Jenny Lowe; an upper-class married Christian couple's marriage was built on a foundation of sand. Their marriage is riddled with deceit, omissions, shame and guilt. Due to Jenny, they are faced with myriads of life's dilemmas that threaten to rip apart their delicate union. You see, Jenny has a secret, in fact, she has several-secrets, that are placing her marriage, career, and her life in perilous jeopardy. However, Jenny has reached a fork in the road. Does she lose everything, or is her life and world restored by the power of God? He came behind her and kissed her neck, breathing her essence into his being. They shared an intimate peaceful moment as they looked at each other in the mirror. His voice was soft and husky. His eyes were moist with emotion. "You look gorgeous " He closed the hook of her dress for her, and turned her to face him. "You know that when you wear that powder blue dress it just does something to me. And your beautiful diamond necklace and matching earrings are the perfect accents. And I just love your hair pinned up. Oh, and did I tell you, you look gorgeous?" Jenny smiled sheepishly, "thank you kind sir." They both chuckled at her comment. The limo arrived on time and they were off to the party. During the drive, Joel asked Jenny not to drink. She was a bit miffed, but wanted this night to be perfect. Instead of taking offense, she touched his hand reassuringly. "Joel, I hadn't really thought about drinking, but since we're not driving, one or two drinks won't hurt." "Jenny." "Oh for goodness sake, I was joking." His voice and the intensity in his eyes matched. "I mean it Jenny. This is my boss. Don't embarrass me or yourself." Jenny was quiet for the remainder of the drive.

Why Not Me?

Nkenga Warren sets the stage for women to crush their fears, inhibitions, insecurities and fears with the release of her sophomore book, "Take It Off: Unveiling the Woman Behind the Mask". Women are complex creatures who invariably require attention and validation. As such, many hide who they really are from those they attempt to impress. The masks camouflage all that's wrong in our "picture perfect" worlds! The masks allow us to hide what's perceived to be ugly while revealing only what we perceive to be beautiful and perfect.

On the Outside Looking In

A book collaboration of women who provide testimonial of real life experiences. Most have not shared them with others. They reveal negative traditions that could have continue to rob them of vision and joys in life. They each share and pray that other women can relate. We hope to encourage women to reveal traditions and correlate it with an oyster that houses a pearl. Beautiful peals are created by irritants that breach the walls of the oyster. So no matter what irritants that have come into our lives, we will no longer allow them to incubate in our oyster. They made us who we are and we wear adorn them as badges of honor.

Take It Off

• Reveals how mask rituals are akin to shamanic journeying and allow the mask wearer to personify an ancestral presence, spirit, deity, or power • Examines animal guising and shows how mask customs are tied to creation myths and the ancestral founders of a people, tribe, city, or nation • Looks at morris dancers and mummers in the UK, Krampuslauf and Perchtenlauf in Germanic areas, the Gorgon myths of Greece, Norse Berserker rituals, and the annual Black Forest rite to awaken ensouled masks every spring There is a spiritual power in masks that transports one into realms unseen and gives voice to things unspoken. Within the context of ritual, putting on a mask places the wearer at the intersection between the present and the past, the living and the dead, this world and the Otherworld. Masks make it possible to activate ancient archetypes, with the mask wearer reanimating or personifying an ancestral presence or spirit, a deity or power, an animal or a being of the eldritch world. In this illustrated study, Nigel Pennick explores the magical and spiritual aspects of mask wearing from ancient times to the present. He examines the many mask traditions around Europe and shows how mask rituals are similar to shamanic journeying and near-death experiences and can induce ecstatic states that allow the power signified by the mask to take possession of the individual wearing it. He also looks at the practice of dressing up as sacred animals and mask wearing as it relates to ostenta, events that occur suddenly and without warning that are considered a token or sign from the Otherworld. Unveiling the sacred power of masks, the author shows how masks allow us to transport into realms unseen, embody ancestors and otherworldly entities, and connect with traditions that stretch back to time immemorial.

Unveiling the Mask, Understanding Behaviour and Empowering Humanity

The scars of our pains, hurts, frustrations, and inner-most anger are the bedrocks to the birth of "THE DISFIGURED MASK!" Too often, the chariot of emotional instability is our voice and vessel that unleashes our human-animal within! Irrespective of the color of our skin, like a ticking time bomb we lay await for something, someone to aggravate the anger and hurt that stain like sin. Unveil the masks and you will see, some angry souls in deep misery; for even though we smile so bright in our lives there is no light! I pray that this book, THE DISFIGURED MASK, would be very instrumental in not only taming the “human-animal” within us, but transform our thoughts and actions to be more loving to each other; in our society and domestic relationships!

Contradiction is a riveting and dynamic account in which Charles Carpenter unveils the core of why at risk youth become attracted to gang subculture. Charles Carpenter shares his personal experience regarding his attraction to gang life. Profound insight is offered regarding loyalty and the ugly face of betrayal. Charles delves into how the catalyst that motivated his change was when a fellow member of his former gang violated the code of honor and respect by having a capricious affair with his wife; this transgression was the foundation that led to Charles Carpenter's conviction of second degree murder. After years of living a destructive life style which continued to yield negative fruitage, Charles Carpenter vowed to make positive changes in his life. He made a conscious effort to change the behavior patterns that ultimately shaped the gang member that he diligently aspired to become. Charles Carpenter outlines the anatomy of his change and describes what is required to learn positive behaviors.

Behind the Mask

This book is a spinning of my first book, The Masks behind the Mask, and also a book of the next stage of taking your mask off. In the first book, I was letting you know that we all carry a mask where you may have not been comfortable with your imperfections of who you are behind your mask. In this book I am here to help you unpack the things we carry and hold on to that can end up destroying your relationships (with friends, associates, family or partner). We are going to take time to rebuild the person that you have hidden from the world because you were not comfortable in your own skin. We are going to get uncomfortable to get comfortable with ourselves regardless to what others think about who you are. This is the time to learn who you are and what makes you happy

The Mask We Wear

My Fortitude is a collection of soul-wrenching poems and prose works that focus on the themes of Love, Purpose and Beauty. It is a collection of poetry stripped of ambiguous literary conformity that usually characterizes poetry works. It is a complete aberration from the pompous and pedagogic poetry, a poetry that bores and fails to engage with people. Although done without ridiculing the complex forms of poetry, the poems in ‘My Fortitude’ are composed in simple diction that allows every level of readers connect with it. My Fortitude is a book prepared with the motive to portray poetry as enjoyable, especially to those people who do not normally read poetry. It contains compositions with deep messages touching on practical societal happenings and sprinkled with wit and rhymes. It is a creative mix of poems and prose touching on the themes of purpose, beauty and love. The poems are skillfully composed in captivating rhythmic lines to pass across various thematic messages. My Fortitude contains fictitious and non-fictitious prose (inspired from personal and impersonal experiences) astonishingly crafted to teach the readers lessons about love, beauty, life and purpose of existence.

Girlz Run the World in Pearls

This book explores the Spiritual Dimensions of the identity, delving into the numerous false personas we unconsciously create as human beings. When these personas are recognized and acknowledged, it becomes possible to let go of the inauthentic self, allowing you to embrace the Source of who you really are an expression of the Creator.

Unveiling the Mask of Moheyman

He was born that way. Few would forgive his appearance. Fear and revulsion, even rage, were not unfamiliar to him. The villagers, but for one small child, have not been kind. The forest, his home, was not only a sanctuary, ironically, it also became his prison. One day, the forest offered him something more. What he found both chilled and excited him. It was a discovery that would change his life forever. The Mask is an allegorical tale that touches upon our human frailties, inspires us to find our inner truth, and dares us to be more courageous than we can imagine. Beautifully illustrated and designed, The Mask compels a reader to ponder important social issues such as bullying and body image as well as the meaning of beauty and truth.

The Spiritual Power of Masks

In this pivotal chapter, the narrative explores the depths of Mark and Selina's concealed lives. On the surface, both characters appear to lead contented lives with their respective spouses. However, beneath this façade lies a turbulent past that shapes their present. Mark, raised by a gangster, has always strived to distance himself from the criminal world of his father. He presents himself as a successful, law-abiding citizen, yet he constantly battles with the fear that his true heritage might surface and disrupt his carefully constructed life. Similarly, Selina, born to a notorious drug lord, has spent her life masking her origins. She lives in luxury, a stark contrast to her father's illicit activities. Her marriage, like Mark's, is built on partial truths and omissions. As the chapter progresses, the narrative delves into the psychological impact of living such dual lives. Mark and Selina, unbeknownst to each other, grapple with feelings of guilt and fear. They question their own identities, wondering if they can ever truly escape the shadows of their families. The tension escalates when Mark and Selina, during a chance encounter, sense a deep, unspoken understanding between them. This moment marks the beginning of their complex relationship, as they find solace in each other's shared experiences. "Secret Lives, Hidden Truths" sets the stage for the unfolding drama, highlighting the internal conflicts of the protagonists. It questions the extent to which one's past can dictate the future and explores the intricate dance between the truth and deception in the lives of those bound by family legacies they never chose.

The Face and the Mask

Each of us, at some point in our lives, will have a knee bender a devastating event that has happened to you or someone you love that has caused you to fall to your knees to pray. In The Ride of Your Life, Faith Will Move You Forward, Tina Boyd will take you through her personal knee bender and will show you how she turned a tragic experience into a meaningful life lesson. Years of journaling and reflection have helped Tina to develop the "front wheel" model. The front-wheel model will encourage you to move forward and to embrace life, regardless of the challenges you are facing. She utilizes the mechanics of a wheel to guide you through the seven spokes of healing that will lead you down the road of faith towards God's love. Tina shares her deepest thoughts, pain, and spiritual healing to guide you through the blowouts, bumps, and wrong turns along your ride. The wheel concept is a practical guide to show you how to handle each step of your journey: shame, humility, forgiveness, and finally, gratitude. Tina's front-wheel concept with God as the hub of the wheel will help you understand your life's lessons. The rim will help you to understand God's everlasting love and promise of eternal life. Even if you have yet to have a significant blowout or wrong turn along your personal path, using this concept will guide you through the beautiful ride that God intends for you to have.
