Through his rehabilitation, Gertjie proved to be a special rhino who was very protective and loving towards all the other rhinos at HESC, and his pal, Lammie.

Like any rhino, Gertjie has always been fond of a good mud bath. This past time is also helpful for rhinos as the mud creates a protective layer against sunburn and parasites.

Matimba is another survivor, orphaned because of poaching. She was taken to HESC a few months after Gertjie.

Gertjie and Matimba's journeys both started with heartache and sadness, but five years later, continued with hope, togetherness, and best of all, freedom after they were released into the wild She gets out of her car to get closer to him after calming him with her voice and creating familiarity between them
