Faith ('Faith and Works') by C.S. Lewis Doodle (BBC Talk 18, Mere Christianity, Bk 3, Chapter 12) - Faith ('Faith and Works') by C.S. Lewis Doodle (BBC Talk 18, Mere Christianity, Bk 3, Chapter 12) by CSLewisDoodle 114,029 views 2 years ago 14 minutes, 31 seconds - C.S. Lewis, broadcast second talks on Faith, entitled 'The Problem of Faith, and Works'. Notes below... You can find the book, here: ...

"If you are right with God, you will inevitably be right with all your fellow creatures". I should point out that 'right' here does not necessarily mean 'at peace' with all your fellow creatures. Being in a right position to others can mean, at times, you are in a position of war with those against God, e.g. David was in a right position to Goliath in his Holy Spirit-inspired anger "Who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?".

The story of Bunyan's conversion: 'Bunyan says, "I did set the commandments before me for my way to heaven; which commandments I did also strive to keep, &, as I thought, did keep them pretty well sometimes, and thus I should have comfort; yet now and then should break one, and so afflict my conscience; but then I should repent, and say I was sorry for it, and promised God to do better next time, and there get help again; for then I thought I pleased God as well as any man in England. Thus I continued about a year; all which time our neighbors did take me to be a very godly man, a new and religious man, and did marvel much to see such great and famous alteration in my life and manners; and, indeed, so it was, though I knew not Christ, nor grace, nor faith, nor hope."

"I think we must introduce into the discussion a distinction between two senses of the word Faith. This may mean (A) a settled intellectual assent. In that sense faith (or 'belief') in God hardly differs from faith in the uniformity of Nature [that Nature behaves in the same way from the remotest nebula to the shyest photon] or in the consciousness of other people. This is what, I think, has sometimes been called a 'notional' or 'intellectual' or 'carnal' faith. It may also mean (B) a trust, or confidence, in the God whose existence is thus assented to. This involves an attitude of the will. It is more like our confidence in a friend. It would be generally agreed that Faith in sense A is not a religious state. The devils who 'believe and tremble' (Note James 2.19) have Faith-A. A man who curses or ignores God may have Faith-A..."

"Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling," but you must have it in you before you can work it out." Trembling" I notice but not "sweating", i.e. not doing good works in order to be saved. Similar principle here, in the saying 'you can give without love, but you cannot love without giving'. "Morality is a mountain which we cannot climb by our own efforts; & if we could we should only perish in the ice and unbreathable air of the summit, lacking those wings with which the rest of the journey has to be accomplished. For it is from there that the real ascent begins. The ropes and axes are 'done away' & the rest is a matter of flying (Man and Rabbit)."

The Great Sin by C. S. Lewis Doodle (BBC Talk 16, Mere Christianity, Bk. 3, Chapter 8). - The Great Sin by C. S. Lewis Doodle (BBC Talk 16, Mere Christianity, Bk. 3, Chapter 8). by CSLewisDoodle 284,958 views 2 years ago 21 minutes - A very happy Christmas to you all. Take a moment. Could this be your biggest problem in life,? 'There is one vice of which no man ...

Pride leads to every other vice. There are three elements necessary for sin - (1) the carnal "lust of the flesh", (2) "the lust of the eye" (i.e. seeing an opportunity), but also (3) "the pride of life" to complete the snare (1 John. That is, when the voice of God says "no" to us, sin needs that proud inner statement "Why shouldn't I have it?" or "I deserve it!" to be enacted. This appeal to pride is as old as the Garden of Eden. When Satan there said "be like Gods" (Genesis 3.5), he knew it meant "be entrapped like a slave".

The proverb "two in a trade never agree" means that people involved in a particular line of business always believe that they know better than their colleagues or competitors.

See Isaiah 5.8: "Woe to you who add house to house and join field to field till no space is left and you live alone in the land" ().

See James 4.6: "But He gives more grace. Therefore He says: 'God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble'"

See Psalm 16.2 "My goodness is not apart from you"

See Matthew 25.21: "His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord" Lewis is probably not saying that the indignity was not felt by God (or still felt), nor implying shame did not need to be corrected in glory, but the fear of shame and reproach of man did not prevent Christ from completing God's plan to the end, and 'drinking the cup'. 'For the joy set before him, He despised [counted as nothing] the shame' like each of us have to do ().

Jesus: "Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me"

"Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall"
