digging deep into the nuances of an individual tarot deck taking a look at a couple of my deck study journals add any of the design elements or creative touches decorate or write on your cover write the title on the cover write down any important notes about this deck record your impressions of the deck at this moment in time scan all the cards into my computer cut the titles off the deck explore the base meaning of each card read the introductory material in the guidebook record your ideas about the deck get to know each of the cards of the tarot looking at the archetypal message lends its energy to the deck finish up my in-depth study of the cards move into the deepening your connection divide the deck into a couple of different piles
