Intro

What can you see?

Recognise that individuals, families and communities have many strengths and the capacity to learn, grow and change

Focus on strengths and aspirations

Look for, and build on, the many resources that can be found in a wide range of social environments

Take care with the language you use because it changes how we see people, situations and possibilities

Collaborate and support self-determination

Work in ways that promote empowerment

See problems and challenges as the result of interactions between people rather than within people

Keep a commitment to social justice
