When Jesus got out of the boat, a man with an Impure spirit came from the tombs to meet him. He shouted at the top of his voice, "What do you want with me Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In God's name don't torture me!"

The demons begged Jesus, "Send us among the pigs; allow us to go into them."

He gave them permission, and the impure spirits came out and went into the pigs.

Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened.

When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons, sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

Then the people began to plead with Jesus to leave their region.

As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged to go with him. While Jesus was still speaking, some people came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue leader. When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly.
