Morning introduction, highlighting the purpose of documenting how God is at work in cities.

Introducing the Drive-Through Prayers initiative on 2222, where volunteers provide prayers to strangers in a parking lot.

explains the origin of the Drive-Through Prayers idea and the periodic stints of this unique ministry. Volunteers, including Joe and Jim, pray for people in the parking lot who stop by for prayer.

Joe's wife shares her experience of drawing cars on the street to attract attention and engage with people.

Examples of personal stories shared during Drive-Through Prayers, including moments of difficulty and prayer for safety.

Joe and his wife join for coffee to discuss deeper insights into how they've seen God at work through Drive-Through Prayers.

Joe shares impactful moments where prayers led to positive changes in people's lives, including a woman experiencing improvement in her marital relationship.

Discussion on the significance of being present, listening, and providing comfort through simple words and prayers. The ministry is described as a love letter to the city.

Joe and his wife talk about praying for the local community, emphasizing the importance of being needed right where they are and making an impact.

Reflection on the daily impact of being present and connecting with people through Drive-Through Prayers, serving as a source of encouragement for the community.
