Chance Encounter

Daphne and Jack meet on a Greyhound bus heading north from California. The year is 1976 and Daphne is a pregnant teenager. Jack is a guy in search of a future. For these two lost souls, this is a ride that will change their lives and begin a dynasty. This is a prequel to the Take a Chance series about the eleven kids Jack and Daphne will collect over the years and the paths each member of this very untraditional family, will take as they, in turn, fall in love.

Love to Go

When every woman wants him, how can she believe that he loves her? Marguerite Chance is an organic farmer in the idyllic town of Hidden Falls, Oregon. She's as rooted as her heirloom tomatoes, but when food truck owner Alexei Vasilopoulos rolls into town, looking more like Adonis than a real human being, she fights her attraction. No man who looks like Adonis could ever be interested in a plain woman who digs in dirt all day; she's been burned once before by a man who thought his good looks gave him a permanent hall pass for bad behavior. Alexei has been propositioned by everyone from modelling scouts to older woman who should know better for most of his life. He didn't ask for his face, and mostly he's used to fending off women, but there's something about Marguerite Chance that appeals to him on every level. Trouble is, she doesn't want anything to do with him. Alex has so little experience in actually wooing a woman, that he's not sure how. Good thing he's got not only his own Greek family giving him advice, but also the large Chance clan. This is book 5 in the Take a Chance series of romantic comedies, but each book can be read separately. Fall in love along with Marguerite and Alex.

Secondhand Bride

Five brides and one (possibly cursed) wedding gown. Will any of them get to wear the designer wedding dress down the aisle? As the poor relation in the rich and powerful Carnarvon family, Ashley Carnarvon is used to hand-me-downs. But getting handed down a wedding dress that's cursed? Okay, the curse is bad enough, but even worse, the dress doesn't suit her. The fabulous gown was designed for a taller, slimmer bride who ran away before the wedding and never wore the dress — which gets back to the curse... At twenty-five, Ashley's not sure what she wants to do with her life. She's still living on the Carnarvon compound in Malibu, sharing a cottage on the property with her mother. She goes to school part time, works part time and parties more than she should. Mostly, she parties with Eric Van Hoffendam, who's the slacker in his rich, powerful family. A lot of their friends are starting to get married and when Eric asks her to marry him, she likes the idea. Eric doesn't look down on her or demand anything of her. Life with him would be easy, and Ashley likes things to be easy. Bennett Saegar has a bad habit of making his life harder than it needs to be. Trying to make it as a Hollywood screenwriter is hard enough, but when a movie star stages a very public suicide attempt over unrequited love for him, the media frenzy is so bad he needs a place to hide out. Luckily, the pool house is free on the property of his family friends, the Carnarvons. He'll be out of sight and able to concentrate on his next screenplay. Best of all, he'll be far away from women. When he moves into the pool house, the first person he sees is Ashley Carnarvon. Ashley who had a world class crush on him ten years earlier. Now, she's all grown up and something about her pulls at him. Good thing she's engaged, or she could be a serious distraction. Then, Ben meets her fiancé and realizes this guy is all wrong for Ashley. She's got so much more potential than she realizes. He wishes he knew how to show her how special she is without anyone getting the wrong idea about his intentions. Especially him.

The Almost Wives Club

Five Brides—One Dress Kate Winton-Jones is marrying one of America's most eligible bachelors. Edward Carnarvon III is rich, handsome and hers. But at the final fitting of her wedding gown, one of the seamstresses pricks her and a tiny blood spot appears on the outrageously expensive gown. Its famous designer fires the clumsy seamstress on the spot, whereupon the girl puts a curse on the dress and storms out. Kate doesn't believe in curses. She's modern, American and in love with the perfect guy. What could go wrong? But that very evening she meets a man who makes her question her future. And then she discovers that Edward has been hiding a secret or two... and before you can say, "This dress is so cursed," she's on the run from Edward, his family, her mother, the paparazzi and the person she thought she was. When the man who discovers her hiding place turns out to be the last man she should trust, it's time to throw her cautious good sense out with the satin shoes she won't be wearing. Playing it safe hasn't done her much good. Maybe it's time to play by a new set of rules. Her rules. Sometimes Prince Charming is the one who turns out to be the frog, and true love appears in the most unexpected places. Follow the cursed dress through five sets of bridal hands as four more women join The Almost Wives Club. These are complete novels. Watch for: Secondhand Bride coming in April, 2015 Bridesmaid for Hire coming in May, 2015 The Wedding Flight in June, 2015 If the Dress Fits in July 2015

The Wedding Flight

Got the Gown, Need a Groom She's passing a vintage store on Melrose Avenue when Meg O'Reilly catches sight of the prettiest wedding dress she's ever seen. On impulse she tries it on and the guy who runs the vintage store tells her she looks beautiful. The gown fits like it was made for her and when she twirls in front of the mirror, she feels like a fairy princess. Not even her Doc Martens ruin the effect. Dylan West helps his mother and his aunt run their vintage store. It's not a bad use of his business degree while he works on his Internet start-up. When a pretty young woman comes in to try on the Evangeline wedding gown they've scored, he's amazed to feel jealous of whoever the lucky groom is. Until he discovers there isn't one. Now his biggest task is to keep anyone else from buying that dress until he gets to know Meg better. Maybe it's not only the dress that is a perfect match for Meg. Things are going perfectly, until the dress mysteriously disappears. Does the theft mean the end of the affair? Or was the dress only playing matchmaker? Five brides, one (possibly cursed) designer wedding gown. Will any of the brides actually wear the gorgeous gown down the aisle? Follow these five women as they join The Almost Wives Club, a romantic comedy series about finding love in the most unexpected places.

The Sheriff's Sweet Surrender

He was the last man she could have, and the only one she wanted. Welcome to Hidden Falls, Oregon where the big, crazy Chance family are finding love one by one. Sheriff James Chance is a burned out Seattle cop who's come home to Hidden Falls where he loves his quiet life as a sheriff — quiet except for a determined divorcee who's stalking him, and the shy baker who's trying to avoid him. Kimberly Parker left home and the shame of her past to start fresh in Hidden Falls. Little did she know that the town sheriff was the man she'd fallen for at a wedding and been avoiding ever since. Now she's working in his sister's bakery and she sees him everyday. Can she keep her secrets and her heart safe from the sexy sheriff?

If the Dress Fits

Evangeline is a former supermodel more famous for the men she's dated and the scandals she's been involved in than for her acting talent. Now, the famous Brit has turned her hand to designing wedding gowns and lingerie for the rich and famous. It's an open secret that she only designs her outrageously priced gowns for attractive women. The Diva Designer also has a famous temper. She's been wildly successful until an unfortunate incident ended with a seamstress cursing both her and her latest wedding gown. Now rumours are circulating, and the press are picking up the juicy story of the cursed wedding gown. Four brides have attempted to get married in the cursed dress and none of them has made it down the aisle. To squelch the rumours, Evangeline announces publicly that she is wearing the gown herself, for her own wedding. It's a brilliant PR tactic. All she has to do now is find a witch, an exorcist, a shaman, someone who can remove curses. Then she'll need to find a temporary groom. There's only one man she trusts completely. Wade Davenport. Her former lover has no illusions about Evangeline. He won't get any foolish ideas about love or a real marriage. Or so she thinks. A romantic comedy about second chances, If the Dress Fits is the final book in The Almost Wives Club.

Every Rose

Every Rose has its thorns... Rose Chance is a dedicated Portland physician who loves shoes, clothes and the finer things in life. Her colleagues call her Dr Vogue, and she won't even look at a man unless he's rich. And preferably titled. Her colleague Matt Vasilopolous is a Greek immigrant made good. He dresses like a schlep, always needs a shave and doesn't seem to own a comb. Rose can't stand a man who looks like a tramp. Matt loathes a woman who looks down at him. But when they're thrown together to save a life one day, and find themselves in the same wedding party the next, Rose and Matt can no longer deny the attraction between them. With an English baronet and his stately home in the offing, though, will Rose choose the man she's dreamed of her whole life or the one her heart craves? This is the fourth novel in the Take a Chance series of romantic comedies. All the books can be read independently, but are also connected.
