Looking Back on Historical Collections with a 21st Century Perspective

Q: How should we view "antiquarians" and "digital antiquarians"?

Q: What did "oblivion" mean spatially in the 19th century?

Q: How did motivations of private and institutional collectors vary in the 19th century?

Q: Do you see digitization as continuity with or change from the past?

Q: Do you know of any important manuscripts that "went missing" in the 19th century?

Q: Were the collectors of the 19th century aware of their own biases?

Q: Are archives, republication, etc. the solution to our urge to preserve the past?
