Proximate Causation

What Is De Minimis

And on the Exception to the Rule That You Need a Waiver of Sovereign Immunity to the United States Is a Narrow One and I've Never Seen It Applied in Cases except Where the United States Is Directly Seeking some Sort of Monetary Relief They Go to the Court of Claims or Something the State li Don't Think They Would Have a Cause of Action because Only the Tribes Would Have Standing To Say the United States Is Not Fix Units Culverts and We Want Compensation on I Can't Think of any Other Cause of Action They Might Have To Deal with the the Actions to the United States Back before the 1990s in Approving Culverts

But I Want To Ask the Question about What the United States either Required or Permitted with Respect to Culverts It's Clear from the Record that the United States Said these Culverts Would Satisfy any Requirements That We Have and the State Complied with those Requirements Does the Record Tell Us Anything about whether or Not Culverts That Would Have Protected the Fish Would Have Been Forbidden by the United States or Was the United States Merely Saying if You Do this You Will Take Care of the Requirements

Does the Record Tell Us Anything about whether or Not Culverts That Would Have Protected the Fish Would Have Been Forbidden by the United States or Was the United States Merely Saying if You Do this You Will Take Care of the Requirements That We Have You Might Do Something Else What Do We Know It I Believe that that the Record Would Show that the United States the Federal Highway Administration Was Simply Saying that if You Comply with Our Standards You Meet Our Requirements

I Believe that that the Record Would Show that the United States the Federal Highway Administration Was Simply Saying that if You Comply with Our Standards You Meet Our Requirements Which Were Basically for Safety and for You Know Preventing Flooding That Sort of Thing but Did Not Was It Was

Not Saying You Can't Go beyond this It Was a Minimum I Present Sense of the Record Is There's Nothing in the Record That Would Show that the State Was Forbidden at the Time of Constructing these Culverts from Making Culverts That Would Allow Free Passage of the Fish but that's My Reading of the Record and It's a Big Record and I've Not Read the Whole Thing I Believe that Is a Correct Reading Your Own So I Have a Procedural

And It's a Big Record and I've Not Read the Whole Thing I Believe that Is a Correct Reading Your Own So I Have a Procedural Issue or Question if on some Theory or another We Were To Hold that the State of Washington Should Be Entitled To Proceed against the Federal Government under some Sort of Contribution or Recoupment Theory that You Could Get Past Sovereign Immunity with that Where Would that Leave the Federal Government in Its Ability To Bring this Suit on Behalf of the Tribes Well I Erm It Wouldn't Keep Us from from Bringing the Suit li but It Would Seem that Such a that Sort of Claim Would Have To Be Brought in the in the Court of Claims It's a Month if They if They Want To Bring a Monetary Claim

But It Would Seem that Such a that Sort of Claim Would Have To Be Brought in the in the Court of Claims It's a Month if They if They Want To Bring a Monetary Claim I Don't Think It Would Affect Our Ability To Sue on Behalf of the Tribes for Injunctive Relief so I Think We Could Still Do that and Certainly the Tribes Could Sue for for Injunctive Relief Whatever Our Actions Have Been or whether or Not the State Has a Claim against Us Okay Thank Thank You and this Is another Question That Goes to the Possible Scope of the Underlying Principles There's Evidence in the Record That Can the State Be Required To Adopt Regulation That Prohibits Development Close to Streams That Requires the Preservation of Trees That Strayed the Streams I Mean How Far Does this Go Not with Respect to Blocking Access to the Streams but Otherwise Protecting the Streams as We See this Right It's a Purely Negative One It Says to the State You Can't Take Action Which Blocks Fish Passage It's Not a Positive Right That Says the State Is Responsible for Restoring Habitat or Restoring the Fish Fish

We See this Right It's a Purely Negative One It Says to the State You Can't Take Action Which Blocks Fish Passage It's Not a Positive Right That Says the State Is Responsible for Restoring Habitat or Restoring the Fish Fish the District Court Did Not Put It in those Terms at All this Is Only about Actions of the State That Have a Direct Effect on the on the Fish Runs by Blocking a Certain Amount of Habitat and It's Limited because the District Court Only Included Culverts That Were on the State's Own List of Culverts That Needed To Be Fixed and and Coverage under State Owned or Operated Roads That's Right the State Has no Obligation

We Took the Other Side Over as I Rather Expected Let's Put Five Minutes on the Clock That Is over Time for You To Thank You Your Honor I Have Four Points I'd Like To Make if Time Allows but I Understand if that's Impossible so First I'd Like To Talk about the Recoupment Counterclaim I'm Going To Quote from Excerpts of Record 993 the State Described the Us Role in Funding and Approving Culverts Not Quoting Yet Sorry and Then Went On To Say if the State's Actions Do Not Satisfy some Treaty-Based Duty the State Has Reasonably Relied to Its Detriment on the Actions of the United States the United States Has a Duty To Pay all Costs Incurred by the State To Identify and Fix any and all Barrier Culverts

So First I'd Like To Talk about the Recoupment Counterclaim I'm Going To Quote from Excerpts of Record 993 the State Described the Us Role in Funding and Approving Culverts Not Quoting Yet Sorry and Then Went On To Say if the State's Actions Do Not Satisfy some Treaty-Based Duty the State Has Reasonably Relied to Its Detriment on the Actions of the United States the United States Has a Duty To Pay all Costs Incurred by the State To Identify and Fix any and all Barrier Culverts so the United States Was on Notice

In the in this Court's 1975 Panel Decision before It Went Up to the Supreme Court and Fishing Vessel this Court Said and this Is at Five-Twenty F Second 685 this Court Said either the Treaty in the Instant or the State on Behalf of Its Citizens May Permit the Subject Matter of these Trees To Be Completely Destroyed and that Was Based on some Sort of Property Law Concept It's Unclear whether that Reasoning Survives the Fishing Vessel Decision but We Would Be Entirely Comfortable with the Court Adopting that Principle Here that neither Side Can Completely Destroy the the Res the the Fish but Again There's no Need Why You Need To Impose that Rule because the State Would Never Do that Anyway I Mean We Have I Think You've Just Gone Back on Your Previous

Line Drawing Is Really Primarily a Policy Decision for the Federal Congress Executive Agencies and State Government at Specifying the Design for Culverts or Choosing You Know in the Future Logging Rules or Development Rules or Zoning Patterns those Are Policy Decisions the Federal Government Has the Power To Affect those through Laws Regulations through Funding They Should Be Left To Be Worked Out and through those Mechanisms Not through the District Court this Case Has Been

Going On for 45 Years under the District Court Ruling Going To Go On for At Least 45 More and every One of those Things Is Going To Be the Subject of Litigation

I Mean that's Just One Piece of Evidence of How There Truly Is no Evidence That See Culverts on Their Own Have Contributed Significantly to the Diminishment Salmon so those Are the Points I Want To Make Your Honor if You Have any Other Questions I'M Happy To Answer Them One Question if We Were To Vacate the Permanent Injunction and Remand to the District Court To Answer some More Questions What Would Be Your Position as to What Would Be the Questions That Have To Be Answered That Weren't Answered in the Prior

What Would Be Your Position as to What Would Be the Questions That Have To Be Answered That Weren't Answered in the Prior Proceedings I Hope You'll Forgive Me if My Answer Is a Little Bit Long at First I Guess We'd Say the Treaty Right Needs To Be Defined if the Courts Going To Find the Tree Right Which Again We Would Disagree with It Needs To Be Defined Far More Clearly and Far More Narrowly It Needs To Focus Specifically on State Courts Where There Is some some Showing that the State Court Itself Is Blocking Salmon from Getting into a Usual on a Custom Fishing Area because Otherwise There's Really no Evidence that the State Culvert Is Causing

I Thought I Heard that You Had Been Invited in the Litigation Part of the District Court To Say Precisely that or Do Precisely that and You Declined To To Ask for any of that Well through Two Points on that First of all We Were Opposed to any Injunction We Remain Opposed to any Injunction We Don't Think My Question Is Not that My Question Is When You Were Invited To Ask about How the Injunction Not To Be Structured My Understanding Is You Said We'Re Not Going To Play that Game because We Think the Injunction Is Improper Am I Wrong We Did Oppose the Entry of any Injunction We Did Not Propose a Narrow Injunction but that Does Not So I'M Right You Did Not Ask in the District Court for a Different Form of Injunction

If Your Child People Never Saw that Injunction of the First Time They Saw It Was When It's When It Was Signed an Issued I Agree with that Your Honor but the District Court Had Already Promised Us Promised Us that Equitable Considerations Would Play a Role in any Injunction We Had Already Made a Lot of the Points about How Fixing Culverts Makes no Difference if There's another Culvert 10 Meters Upstream and 10 Meters Downstream We Had Already Made a Lot of the Points That We Hoped Would Inform the District Courts Entry of the Injunction in the Remedies Phase so It's Not as though We Just Invented All this Stuff Later this Stuff Is All in the Record All these Problems Are in the Record

We Had Already Made a Lot of the Points about How Fixing Culverts Makes no Difference if There's another Culvert 10 Meters Upstream and 10 Meters Downstream We Had Already Made a Lot of the Points That We Hoped Would Inform the District Courts Entry of the Injunction in the Remedies Phase so It's Not as though We Just Invented All this Stuff Later this Stuff Is All in the Record All these Problems Are in the Record We Just Thought that no Injunction Was Warranted We Opposed any Injunction

Reports of Cases, Civil and Criminal in the United States Circuit Court of the District of Columbia, Vol. 3 of 6

"Lost in the District, Lost in the Federal Territory" relates the facts about Doctor David Ross of Bladensburg, his family life, his business and political connections, and his efforts to develop a productive iron mine along the upper Potomac River on lower Antietam Creek in Washington County, Maryland. Through his diligence and the skills of his close relatives, Dr. Ross was in a position to recommend the taking up of arms against Great Britain to his river neighbors of the Committee of Correspondence. His son was later appointed to serve briefly as one of the first auditors for the newly formed District of Columbia. His nephew by marriage, James Maccubbin Ligan, a victim of the Baltimore Riot of July 28, 1812, was one of the first group of leaders who set Georgetown, Maryland (and later D.C.), on its course to greatness as a deep water port. He remains the only veteran of the American Revolutionary War to be buried in Arlington National Cemetery.

Reports of Cases Civil and Criminal in the United States Circuit Court of the District of Columbia, from 1801 to 1841

Volume Five of the definitive edition of Thomas Jefferson's papers from the end of his presidency until his death includes 592 documents from 1 May 1812 to 10 March 1813. America declares war on Great Britain on 18 June 1812. Jefferson counsels domestic reconciliation while suggesting that America recruit British incendiaries to burn London if British ships attack American cities. He passes on to President James Madison a long and discouraging letter from Isaac A. Coles describing American military bungling in the Niagara Campaign. An unofficial proposal that Jefferson return to public life as secretary of state does not gain the retired statesman's support. Jefferson receives many requests for governmental patronage, responds insightfully to a colorful assortment of authors and inventors, is mildly diverted by a fraudulent perpetual-motion machine, and spends considerable time on legal troubles. A dispute with David Michie over land in Albemarle County nearly leads to a duel between Michie and Jefferson's agent. A conflict with Samuel Scott over property in Campbell County further vexes Jefferson, who prepares an extensively researched answer to Scott's complaint. Despite the conflict, Jefferson graciously writes a letter of introduction for Scott's son. Jefferson remains accessible to the public, receives anonymous letters urging him to convert to Christianity, and settles a wager for one correspondent who asks if Jefferson ever met the British king. Jefferson gloomily observes that "the hand of age is upon me" and complains that his faculties are failing. He still has thirteen years to live.
