Does smoking provide the best explanation for observed patterns?

APC model To estimate the role of changing patterns of smoking overall on adult cohort mortality we use an APC formulated as

Age Period Cohort models for mortality: cohorts born 1885-1955, England and Wales

APC - Lung Cancer

For these causes, the model simplifies to

Annual percentage rate of change of cohort relative risk for those born 1885- 1955, England and Wales

Annual change in cohort standardised mortality rate for those born 1885-1955, England and Wales

Regression of annual change of total cohort mortality on change of lung cancer cohort mortality, actual and fitted values, for those born 1885-1955, England and Wales
