#Solferino 1859 #Battle for Italy #Italian unification #Second Italian War of Independence #Franco-Austrian War

The Battle of Solferino in 1859 was a pivotal and incredibly bloody engagement that played a crucial role in the Second Italian War of Independence, profoundly influencing the path towards Italian unification. This brutal conflict, fought between the Franco-Piedmontese army and the Austrian Empire, resulted in immense casualties and famously inspired Henri Dunant to found what would become the International Red Cross, marking a turning point in military medical care and humanitarian efforts.
