INTRO

FEAR: My nervous system is stuck in a freeze response. I have trouble breathing due to a brain that is full of fear. What meditation should I do to relieve this constant stress?

ENLIGHTENMENT: Is awakening inevitable for all beings either in this life or some future life? If all things are impermanent, does this necessarily include ignorance itself?

MEDITATION PRACTICE: I have a pattern repeating itself: I meditate a lot, things start to go well, the mind gets bright and energetic, I start sleeping less, and then there's a crash, a hard check. The meditation dries up, I get miserable. Some things are not quite right, maybe I'm getting caught up in finally becoming the bright, happy person I've always wanted to be.

SELFLESSNESS: Can you talk about what has been referred to as "selflessness" or "egolessness" in Buddhism, and describe how the meditation practices you teach are related to it?

SELF: How do you square the idea that there is no self with the following quote by the Buddha: "Ananda, stay as those who have the self as island, as those who have the self as refuge"?

VINAYA: Is it appropriate for laypeople to learn the vinaya, even if the rules don't apply to them?

SOCIAL/ECONOMIC INEQUALITY: Did the Buddha have any teachings or thoughts related to social and economic inequality? I know that he questioned caste hierarchy.

POLITICAL ACTION: Is it better to have nothing to do with this world, or fight for justice? For example, stand up for oneself or one's beliefs? If we aren't interested in preserving one's own life then is there a problem with suicide instead of enduring physical pain?

ANGER: Could you please give advice for how to skillfully deal with anger in others, especially in children?

BUDDHIST COSMOLOGY: My question pertains to Buddhist cosmology. Does that information come to us from Siddhartha or other monks later on?

COMPLACENCY IN PRACTICE: When I practice the Buddha's teachings as truth, I often think that I should let go of a lot of desire in my heart. At some point, there is a conflict with worldly life. At that time, I choose to become a little complacent rather than devote myself. Please give me words of wisdom.
